Share Your Faith Contemporary Discussion Series:

Sharing Your Faith With A Muslim Abdiyah Akbar Abdul-Haqq, 1980-08-01 This is the book for you if you are serious about communicating the truth of the Gospel to Muslims It is thorough It is authoritative It is written by a third world Christian whose father was a convert from Islam It is the contention of the author that an effective evangelistic approach to the adherents of Islam must be based upon a study of Christ as He is found in both Scripture and the Koran Christ then becomes the bridge between the two faiths Such a search is to Abdul Haqq the natural means of introducing the Savior Having seen Christ on the pages of the Bible he moves on to a presentation of the great issues of sin salvation and the nature of God as the final pressing points to raise in efforts to win Muslim friends and neighbors to Jesus Religious Books and Serials in Print ,1982

Nations and Democracy Amanda Machin, 2014-11-13 A figure of enduring ingenuity the nation has for centuries played a part on the socio political stage Whether centre stage or background scenery it has featured in violent tragedies revolutionary drama and nostalgic fable Today the nation is cast simultaneously in the roles of villain and hero While it is renounced by those advocating trans national post national and cosmopolitan forms of belonging it has lately also been asserted as the solution to various social failures in liberal democracies This appears to leave us with two alternatives to jettison the nation in order to move towards a less parochial world a world in which new forms of belonging underpin more inclusive politics Or to celebrate the nation as way of ensuring the social cement that can unite a diverse society Using the ideas of Wittgenstein and Lacan Amanda Machin expertly explains that the overlapping and conflicting language games of the nation produce it as an object of desire in an uncertain world The nation is not a pre political thing but a matter of persistent political contestation and coalition She reveals that the nation still has a vital part to play in democratic politics but that this role is one of improvisation While they endure as tools of emancipatory promise nations nonetheless remain potential categories of violent exclusion They cannot be pinned down as easily as anti national and pro national alternatives suggest It is precisely the indeterminacy of the nation that gives it ongoing importance for democracy today Providing an urgent riposte to dominant accounts this thought provoking and highly original account demands a re politicisation of the nation This book will appeal to those engaged in theory and empirical research on nations and nationalism and the question of their link to democracy in a changing world as well as those interested in psychoanalysis and Wittgenstein Immersion Bible Studies | Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations Janice E Catron, 2013 Journey inside the pages of Scripture to meet a personal God who enters individual lives and begins a creative work from the inside out Shaped with the individual in mind Immersion encourages simultaneous engagement both with the Word of God and with the God of the Word to become a new creation in Christ Immersion inspired by a fresh translation the Common English Bible stands firmly on Scripture and helps readers explore the emotional spiritual and intellectual needs of their personal faith More importantly they ll be able to discover God s revelation through readings and reflections Atonement Eleonore Stump, 2018-11-22 The doctrine of the atonement is the distinctive doctrine of Christianity Over the course of many centuries of reflection highly diverse interpretations of the doctrine have been proposed In the context of this history of interpretation Eleonore Stump considers the doctrine afresh with philosophical care Whatever exactly the atonement is it is supposed to include a solution to the problems of the human condition especially its guilt and shame Stump canvasses the major interpretations of the doctrine that attempt to explain this solution and argues that all of them have serious shortcomings In their place she argues for an interpretation that is both novel and yet traditional and that has significant advantages over other interpretations including Anselms well known account of the doctrine In the process she also discusses love union guilt shame forgiveness retribution punishment shared attention mind reading empathy and various other issues in moral psychology and ethics Make Poverty Personal (ēmerſion: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Ash Barker, 2009-02-01 Poverty is one of the great challenges of the 21st century But poverty is not new And neither is God s deep concern for the poor it is a theme deeply woven throughout the Bible Yet sadly churches and individual Christians have too often been blind to this emphasis or they have been paralyzed into inaction by feelings of helplessness In this urgent provocative book Ash Barker offers both challenge and hope Pulling out and reflecting on significant passages from both testaments he reveals what the Bible says about both the nature of poverty and about how God calls his people to respond These studies ideal for either individual or small group use are interlaced with personal reflections first hand accounts from fifteen years of ministry among the poor Teaching That Transforms Richard R. Melick, Shera Melick, 2010 A proposal on how to improve the way the Bible is taught to adult learners that focuses on life transformation and putting faith into action

Echoing the Word Gretchen Hailer, 2008 An introduction and interactive process for parish based catechist formation Peace and Faith Cary Nelson, Michael C. Gizzi, 2021-10-26 PEACE AND FAITH Christian Churches and the Israeli Palestinian Conflict composed of new essays is the first collection to bring together writers from different faith communities to discuss the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions movement s impact on one of the more fractious topics addressed by Christian denominations the Israeli Palestinian conflict In so doing it builds on interfaith projects under way for decades Theology and politics intermingle in debates taking place in local churches Christian NGOs and national church meetings that define official policy The debates revive and reframe the most basic values of Christianity and the questions church members seek to resolve How do Christians today hew to the principles Jesus articulated How can justice be pursued in the context of competing national narratives and historical understandings What bearing do or should centuries of Christian violence against Jews and Muslims have on contemporary theology and ethics Is it ethical or even possible to set aside millennia of Christian anti-Semitism in judging Israel's conduct What Christian values should be honored in pursuing Jesus's mission of reconciliation today How may the pursuit of truth be corrupted by passionate social witness Can advocacy cross the line into hatred These are among the critical questions this collection poses and attempts to address
