in management science and economic research China International Import Expo: Shared Future In A New Era Lei Zou, 2020-09-22 China has been holding its annual China International Import Expo CIIE starting from 2018 in Shanghai This is a significant move for China to actively open the Chinese market to the rest of the world as this supports trade liberalization and economic globalization This book systematically expounds the background and content of CIIE and studies the opportunities that China's expansion of imports brings to its economy enterprises consumers and to that of other countries It elaborates on how the CIIE facilitates countries and regions from different parts of the world to strengthen their economic cooperation and trade and promote global trade and world economic growth The book helps readers understand China's reform and opening up as well as the latest trends and policies of the country's expansion of import World War II in Global Perspective, 1931-1953 Andrew N. Buchanan, 2019-05-07 A comprehensive review of World War II that offers a global level analysis Written for academics and students of history World War II in Global Perspective 1931-1953 presents a dynamic and global account of the historical events prior to during and after World War II The author a noted expert on the topic explores the main theaters of the war and discusses the connections between them He also examines the impact of the war on areas of the world that are often neglected in historical accounts including Latin America sub Saharan Africa and the so called neutral countries This comprehensive text clearly shows how in the struggle against the Axis powers the United States replaced Britain as the global superpower The author discusses the Japanese invasion of Manchuria in 1931 and the Korean War 1950-1953 and argues that the core years of the war 1939-1945 cannot be understood without considering the turbulent events that framed them The text puts World War II in context as a series of large regional conflicts that intersected and overlapped finally emerging as a genuine world war with the formal entry of the United States in late 1941 This vital text Offers a comprehensive review of World War II that frames it in a global context Gives weight to the economic and political developments of the war Provides a robust account of the main military campaigns Contains illustrations and maps that themselves highlight little known aspects of the global war Early Pottery Technologies among Foragers in Global Perspective Giulia D'Ercole, Elena A. A. Garcea, Lenka Varadzinová, Ladislav Varadzin, 2024-11-06 This book presents up to date perspectives on pre farming innovations through material practices resource intensification and emerging technologies particularly pottery manufacture It includes original studies on the earliest pottery productions among foragers from different parts of the world based on first hand excavations and laboratory analyses Its broad geographic scope includes Northern and Central Europe Eastern Asia different regions in China Northern Western and Southern Africa and southeastern North America comprising parts of the world previously ignored different regions in Africa and extending beyond the Old World i.e. North America It also takes into account the differing chronologies of the emergence of pottery before food production which are not limited to the late Pleistocene and early Holocene but extend as late as the middle Holocene e.g. in Southern Africa This volume offers a fresh and still unexplored global intercultural and interactive discussion on the emergence of pottery By mapping the latest findings and variety of methodological approaches it intends to capture both variability and common denominators of the cultural processes between the end of the Pleistocene and the early mid Holocene in which the production and use of pottery played a significant role among hunter gatherers This book is a fundamental contribution to the understanding of the role of material practices in cultural transformations in late prehistory worldwide and to the debate on how local narratives mirror different social identities meanings and or functions depending on the specific economic context settlement system and cultural landscape It emphasizes how transformative technologies can potentially create radical changes in the way human populations live and interact with each other Ultimately this volume contains valuable reflections and expectations for the future of worldwide pottery research among foragers Global Project Management Handbook David I. Cleland,Roland Gareis,1994 A curious baby wonders about the origin of sounds in the house so that a pitter pat might be a squirrel on the roof or water dripping and a clunk might be a dog knocking over garbage cans of Sister playing with her blocks This popular book from the Polka Dot Door Series is designed to help the small child develop an awareness of his her environment China's Development and the Construction of the Community with a Shared Future for Mankind Linggui Wang,2023-05-05 This book focuses on China s experience in development over the past 70 years and its significance as well as building a community with a shared future for mankind The book consists of a collection of papers contributed by researchers from many countries covering the topics of world order a community with a shared future for mankind the Belt and Road initiative exchange and mutual learning between civilizations China Model China and the World multi bilateral relationship sustainable development Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures Masha Salazkina,Enrique Fibla-Gutiérrez,2021-01-05 For too long the field of amateur cinema has focused on North America and Europe In Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures however editors Masha Salazkina and Enrique Fibla Guti rrez fill the literature gap by extending that focus and increasing inclusivity Through carefully curated essays Salazkina and Fibla Guti rrez bring wider meaning and significance to the discipline through their study of alternative cinema in new territories fueled by different historical and political circumstances innovative technologies and ambitious practitioners The essays in this volume work to realize the radical societal democratization that shows up in amateur cinema around the world In particular diverse contributors highlight the significance of amateur filmmaking the exhibition of amateur films the uses and availability of film technologies and the inventive and creative approaches of filmmakers and advocates of amateur film Together these essays shed new light on alternative cinema in a wide range of cities and countries where amateur films thrive in the shadow of commercial and conventional film industries Global Perspectives on Language Education Policies JoAnn (Jodi) Crandall,Kathleen M. World Construction via Networking Christopher Joseph Hansen,2024-03-04 With the mainstream's growing acceptance of worlds and storytelling spread among several different texts e.g. films television series novels and comics this pioneering study employs a multidisciplinary approach combining transmediality network theory and narratology to analyze the narrative network of the Marvel Cinematic Universe In this analysis Christopher Hansen thoroughly examines storytelling techniques while providing a fresh theoretical framework to develop a structural model for interconnected narratives He redefines our understanding of narrative dynamics in one of the most successful cinematic franchises of all time A Global Perspective on the European Economic Crisis Bruno Dallago,Gert Guri,John McGowan,2018-10-24 The financial and economic crisis in Europe is not over and the radically opposing strategies on how to proceed has only increased the complexity of problems in the region revealing the shortcomings of the EU's architecture The European Union perhaps for the first time in its history of more than seventy years is being perceived as a threat to the financial and monetary stability of the world A Global Perspective on the European Economic Crisis explores the connection between internal EU actions and institutions and the external factors that influence the ongoing response to the European crisis With a unique collection of international and interdisciplinary essays this book considers the complex macroeconomic and challenging political landscape of Europe looking at how and why the European Union is untenable in its current state The chapters outline what should be done to make the common currency area more resilient and explain why external events are particularly problematic for the EU ultimately offering suggestions for what Europeans should do in order to avoid harmful internal consequences This volume confronts the causes of the crisis persistence its economic and political consequences and the impact of more recent events and policy decisions It will be of interest to researchers and policy makers keen to understand the EU relations and the influence of international organizations in the European economic crisis Management of Shared Groundwater Resources Eran Feitelson,Marwan Haddad,2012-12-06 Most of the world's freshwater resources in the liquid state i.e. not in glaciers and polar caps are underground As the population grows and demand for water rises reliance on groundwater increases In many cases the groundwater underlies boundaries or is part of a hydraulic system that crosses boundaries In such cases there is always the danger that the prisoner's dilemma will run its course and all parties will compete over who will pump the most water ultimately destroying the storage potential to the detriment of future generations of all parties reliant on the groundwater This book explores the options and means for averting this all too realistic scenario by managing these shared groundwater resources Nowhere is the likelihood of excessive use of groundwater greater than in the water scarce Middle East and especially in the Israeli Palestinian case Here both sides are heavily reliant on a shared aquifer the Mountain aquifer This book is the outcome of a seven year effort to find ways to manage the Mountain aquifer perhaps the most important resource shared by Israelis and Palestinians As part of this cooperative study four workshops were held in which a selected number of Palestinian Israeli and foreign experts were invited The chapters in this book were originally presented in one of these workshops To these papers introductory and concluding chapters were added
