Sharing The Eucharist A Theological Evaluation Of The Post Conciliar Legislation:

Sharing the Eucharist Myriam Wijlens, 2000-01-19 Ecclesiastical changes resulting from the Second Vatican Council inspired a revised approach to the issue of sharing the Eucharist with those who are not in full communion with the Catholic Church In Sharing the Eucharist Myriam Wijlens offers a detailed analysis of the Council's schemata interventions and texts in an effort to determine the theological values that inspired subsequent policies on the issue of communion Wijlens bases her work on the notion that there ought to be an organic relationship between theological insights and the norms that govern the life of the Catholic community Her rigorous approach allows her to identify areas where there is already organic unity between the insights of Vatican II and Church legislation In the process she also reveals several matters where additional work is needed and offers suggestions for the continued implementation of the Council's vision and intent An unprecedented work that makes a genuine contribution to the ecumenical movement Sharing the Eucharist has great significance for religious scholars and clergy who are concerned with the unity of Christian churches Text also includes a foreword by Johannes Cardinal Willebrands the former President of the Secretariat for Christian Unity of the Vatican T&T Clark Handbook of Sacraments and Sacramentality Martha Moore-Keish, James Farwell, 2022-12-29 Introducing readers to the contemporary field of sacramental theology this volume covers the biblical and historical foundations a survey of the state of the discipline and a collection of constructive essays representing major themes practices and approaches to sacraments and sacramentality in the contemporary world The volume starts with a set of foundational essays that offer broad introduction to the field of sacramental theology from contemporary scholars analysing a number of historical figures in order to illumine and inform contemporary sacramental theology The second part of the volume is dedicated to a series of essays on sacramentality and includes attention to elements of space time ritual action music and word all as aspects of what Christians have termed sacramental reality The third set of essays includes attention to each of the seven practices that have most commonly been termed sacraments in Christian traditions baptism eucharist Lord's Supper confirmation confession forgiveness and reconciliation marriage ordination and anointing The final part of this volume features scholars who are working on sacraments in conversation with contemporary academic disciplines critical race theory queer theory comparative theology and disability studies Church Laws and Ecumenism Norman Doe, 2020-09-27 Written by experts from within their communities this book compares the legal regimes of Christian churches as systems of religious law The ecumenical movement with its historical theological focus has failed to date to address the role of church law in shaping relations between churches and fostering greater mutual understanding between them In turn theologians and jurists from the different traditions have not hitherto worked together on a fully ecumenical appreciation of the potential value of church laws to help and sometimes to hinder the achievement of greater Christian unity This book seeks to correct this ecumenical church law deficit It takes account of the recent formulation by an ecumenical panel of a Statement of Principles of Christian

Law which has been welcomed by Pope Francis and the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople leader of the Orthodox Church worldwide as recognizing the importance of canon law for ecumenical dialogue This book therefore not only provides the fruits of an understanding of church laws within ten Christian traditions but also critically evaluates the Statement against the laws of these individual ecclesial communities The book will be an essential resource for scholars of law and religion theology and sociology It will also be of interest to those working in religious institutions and policy makers

Practical Theology and the Interpretation of Crossing Boundaries Bert Roebben, 2003 In October 2002 the Tilburg Professor of Practical Theology Tjeu van Knippenberg retired In order to honour him as a bright scholar in the field of fundamental practical theology and pastoral care 23 of his colleagues at Tilburg University and elsewhere Nijmegen and Leuven contributed to this festschrift Their attention is focused on the concept of boundaries in practical theology between context and Christian tradition church and society personal identity and Christian narrative individual and community Different research projects out of the Tilburg tradition of practical theology are presented from an empirical hermeneutical perspective Eucharist and Receptive Ecumenism Kimberly Hope Belcher, 2020-10-15 All doctrinal development and debate occurs against the background of Christian practice and worship By attending to what Christians have done in the eucharist Kimberly Belcher provides a new perspective on the history of eucharistic doctrine and Christian divisions today Stepping back from the metaphysical approaches that divide the churches she focuses on a phenomenological approach to the eucharist and a retrieval of forgotten elements in Ambrose's and Augustine's work The core of the eucharist is the act of giving thanks to the Father for the covenant and for the world This unitive core allows for significant diversity on questions about presence sacrifice ecclesiology and ministry Belcher shows that the key is humility about what we know and what we do not which gives us a willingness to receive differences in Christian teachings as gifts that will allow us to move forward in a new way Mapping the Differentiated Consensus of the Joint Declaration Jakob Karl Rinderknecht, 2016-10-12 This book uses the insights of cognitive linguistics to argue for the possibility of differentiated consensus between separated churches The Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification signed by the Lutheran World Federation and the Roman Catholic Church in 1999 represents the high water mark of the twentieth century ecumenical movement It declares that the sixteenth century condemnations related to justification do not condemn the teachings of the partner church Some critics reject the agreement arguing that a consensus that is differentiated is not actually a consensus In this book Jakob Karl Rinderknecht shows that mapping the cognitive blends that structure meaning can reveal underlying agreement within apparent theological contradictions He traces Lutheran and Catholic positions on sin in the baptized especially the Lutheran simul iustus et peccator and the Catholic insistence that concupiscence in the baptized is not sin He demonstrates that the JDDJ reconciles these positions and therefore that a truly differentiated consensus is possible Communion with Non-Catholic Christians Jeffrey Thomas VanderWilt, 2003 How should a Catholic pastor respond to non Catholics who wish to have

Communion without conveying harshness scrupulosity legalism or rudeness Intended to help Christians recognize the present provisional norms and to seek new possibilities in eucharistic sharing Communion with Non Catholic Christians examines the risks challenges and opportunities involved in the admission of Communion to non Catholic Christians

Penal Law in Action Msgr.
