Pilgrim Road, Revised Edition Albert Holtz, 2014-11-01 In the view of St Benedict of Nursia the Lenten journey is an inner pilgrimage with Christ into the deepest parts of ourselves to be marked not so much by external observances such as fasting and self denial as by a deepening of our relationship with God Benedictine monk Albert Holtz develops that journey theme through meditations written during a fifteen country pilgrimage while on sabbatical At the heart of each reflection is the lesson it teaches about our inner spiritual journey By applying Benedict s monastic wisdom to the everyday concerns and aspirations of modern Christians Pilgrim Road helps contemporary spiritual seekers travel along and experience the journey of Lent in the most positive meaningful and fruitful manner

Disputes and Settlements John Bossy, Lyndal Roper, 2003-01-30 This collection of essays by British American and French scholars uses the records of the law in Western Europe from the fall of Rome to the nineteenth century in an attempt to outline a social history of the West considered as a history of human relations The primary themes are dispute arbitration and conjugal relations the primary influences considered are feud Christianity and the state The contributions are discussed overall by an anthropologist lawyer Simon Roberts who writes an anthropological introduction and by the editor in a short historical postscript The aim has been to strike a new note in social history by attending more closely to actual people and their actual relations by drawing on the resources of anthropology legal history the history of religious feelings and institutions and of states to illuminate their behaviour and by combining the efforts of scholars representing a diversity of intellectual traditions and a long perspective of human experience

Grand Finales Susan Gubar, 2025-06-10 One of our most formidable literary critics explores how nine women artists flourished creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O Keefe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age
