She Answered Every Call The Life Of Public Health Nurse Mona Gordon Wilson 18941981:

She Answered Every Call Douglas Baldwin,1997 In the Interval of the Wave Mary McDonald-Rissanen,2013-12-01
Taking its title from a poem by Prince Edward Island poet Anne Compton In the Interval of the Wave is a close study of diaries written by Prince Edward Island women in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Women from both rural and urban regions of the Island recorded their lives in a genre that allowed them to play with the conventions of the language they knew For busy farm wives their quotidian language syntax and choice of topic appear simple whereas for the urban elite like Margaret Gray Lord and Wanda Wyatt the erudition of their diaries suggests a more leisured existence Mary McDonald Rissanen argues that the initial reception of the text its physical appearance handwriting gaps and flood of words provides interesting insights for understanding the circumstances of Prince Edward Island women from times past Intertextual readings of the diaries alongside other cultural artifacts such as paintings histories folk stories and songs embellish the idiosyncratic diary discourse Diaries enabled women to write their voices create a subjective identity and redefine their place in the world In the Interval of the Wave exposes lives lived and recorded in a special moment and place never far from the rhythm of the sea Secondary Sources in the History of Canadian Medicine Charles G. Roland,Jacques Bernier,2010-11-22
Volume Two of this retrospective bibliography is both a continuation and an expansion of Volume One 1984 It contains references to Canadian medical historical literature published between 1984 and 1998 and also includes much additional material published prior to 1984 Finally it substantially enlarges the content of French language material Every effort has been made to be as inclusive as possible of articles theses book chapters and books both in English and in French relating to the history of medicine No single electronic source can replace this bibliography The contents are divided into three sections The first is a listing of material expressly biographical Section two lists material under a wide variety of subject headings related to medicine and the third is a complete listing of the authors who have contributed these articles Simply organized and easy to use this bibliography will be of value to historians archivists librarians and anyone interested in the history of medicine Caregiving on the Periphery Myra Rutherdale,2010-04-19 Assembling scholars from nursing women s studies geography native studies and history this volume looks at the experience of nurses in Newfoundland and Labrador northern Saskatchewan northern British Columbia and the Arctic and features essays on topics such as Mennonite midwives in Western Canada missionary nurses and Aboriginal nursing assistants in the Yukon Contributors illuminate the larger themes of religion colonialism social divisions and native newcomer relations Special attention is paid to nursing in Aboriginal communities and the relations of race to medical work particularly in connection to ideas of British ethnicity and conceptualized meanings of whiteness An informative collection of fascinating works Caregiving on the Periphery provides insight into the history of medicine in Canada and the long established importance of women for the country s wellbeing
Labour in the Laboratory Peter Twohig,2005-05-04 Labour in the Laboratory is also about the ways in which health care work has been organized Twohig reveals that many health care workers fulfilled multiple roles challenging traditional ideas of professional boundaries and exclusive control over particular tasks Using evidence from the Maritime provinces he challenges assumptions about health care work and hospital development throughout Canada and beyond Occupied St John's Steven High,2010-10-12 In January 1941 the hulking twenty one thousand ton troopship Edmund B Alexander docked in St John s harbor carrying a thousand American soldiers sent to join the thousands of Canadian troops protecting Newfoundland against attack by Germany France had fallen Great Britain was fighting for its survival and Newfoundland then a dominion of Britain was North America s first line of defence Although the German invasion never came St John s found itself occupied by both Allied Canadian and American forces All Things in Common Ruth Compton Brouwer,2021-06-29 In the first decade of the twentieth century a few closely related families established a utopian community in Canada s smallest province Known officially as B Compton Limited but described by a journalist in 1935 as Prince Edward Island s unique brotherly love community this utopia owed its longevity to the cohesion provided by its communal organization dense kin ties and long held millenarianism and to a decidedly pragmatic approach to business All Things in Common demonstrates how un utopian such a community could be while problematizing the contention that the inevitable end of all utopian experiments is a full blown dystopia Beginning with a compelling backstory and locating the Compton community in the historiography of North American utopias the author goes on to explore the community s business endeavours its religious familial and transgressive aspects and its brief period of international fame before assessing the factors that led to its dissolution in 1947 Providing a strong narrative framework All Things in Common draws on rich family and archival records and diverse secondary sources concluding with a consideration of the community s legacy for its alumni and their descendants On All Frontiers Christina Bates,Dianne Dodd,Nicole Rousseau,2005-04-30 Nursing has a long and varied history in Canada Since the founding of the first hospital by the Augustine nuns in 1637 nurses have contributed greatly to Canadians quality of life On All Frontiers is a comprehensive history of Canadian nursing Editors Christina Bates Dianne Dodd and Nicole Rousseau have brought together a vast body of research into one volume Authored by leading experts the chapters and vignettes form an overview of the history of Canadian nursing to date From the midwives of early Canada to urban public health nurses from remote outposts to the battlefields of Europe On All Frontiers documents the hardships challenges and achievements of Canadian nurses Richly illustrated with archival photographs it is an essential read for scholars of Canadian health care history Published in English Learning to Practise Ruby Heap,Wyn Millar,Elizabeth Smyth,2005-10-25 How does one become a professional This interdisciplinary collection offers new insights into that fundamental question Employing a wide variety of approaches and methodologies the original and thematically linked essays discuss such problematic issues as the most appropriate site for professional education the proper focus and content of the initial and on going preparation of professionals and the nature of both continuity and change in professional education In the process they raise challenging questions about the development of professional education in Canada and elsewhere from the early 19th century to the present day in fields as diverse as the health sciences law engineering social work theology and university teaching An essential resource for those studying the professions this book will also appeal to practitioners professional associations administrators and faculty in professional schools and to all those interested in the past present and future state of their professions Published in English Mobilizing Mercy Sarah Glassford,2017-05-31 An engaging history that follows Canada's leading humanitarian organization through decades of war peace and social change
