She Had Not Yet Decided Journal:

Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney, Volume 2 Lars E. Troide, 1991-02-01 The years 1774-77 saw Fanny Burney's increasing occupation with Evelina which she finally completed and presented to the publisher Thomas Lowndes. Like her novel, the journals and letters of this period reveal her artistic powers as she continues to sketch characters with economy and precision and create convincing narratives out of the events of her life. Among the more memorable figures she meets at her father's London house are the noble savage Omai, the first Tahitian brought back to England, the famed explorer James Abyssinian Bruce who returned from Africa with tales of natives who ate raw flesh, and Prince Aleksei Orlov of Russia who had Czar Peter III murdered in order to permit Peter's wife Catherine the Great to ascend the throne. Other notable figures include Dr Samuel Johnson and the great singer Lucrezia Agujari, admired by Mozart. Also in these pages the usually diffident Miss Burney takes charge of her destiny by rebuffing her suitor Thomas Barlow, who has wealth, education, good looks, and the vehement approval of most of her family, but whom she finds a total bore. The journals and letters of Fanny Burney are an invaluable source for anyone interested in the social and literary history of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century England. Lars Troide has supported the texts with thorough and detailed annotations.

Asiatic Journal and Monthly Register for British and Foreign India, China and Australasia, 1816 Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney Fanny Burney, 1994-06 This third of 12 projected volumes of a critical edition of English novelist Burney's 1752-1840 journals and letters covers the period from January 1778 to December 1779, the period following the publication of Evelina or A Young Lady's Entrance into the World, a universally acclaimed novel that led admirers to place Burney in the ranks of Fielding and Richardson. It reveals Burney's striking transformation to a celebrity as she is welcomed into London's literary society and her mixed delight and terror at this reception. The Daring Miss Lassiter Marcy Stewart, 2001-05-01 When the steward of a noble house asks Audrey to pretend to be the long lost daughter of Lady Marianne, although it is for a great sum of money, she is reluctant. Her family has fallen on hard times, so she agrees to go to Far Winds Manor. The Lady Marianne is on her deathbed, accepting Audrey as her daughter. Roxanne, grown into a lovely woman without question, The rest of the family is furious and unbelieving. Marianne's nephew, the baron, spends all his time with the beautiful Audrey, trying to prove her deceit. Attempts on Audrey's life make the mystery of the missing daughter more urgent. On the Far Winds estate, intrigue and secrets abound, and no one is who they seem, nor are their motives clear. While Audrey lives in luxury, surrounded by beauty and handsome men, she must keep her wits about her if she is to save herself and her family.

Beyond the Shelley Circle Sharon L. Joffe, 2025-07-25 Beyond the Shelley Circle The Clairmont Family and Its Descendants will interest Shelley circle researchers life writing scholars and nineteenth century historians alike The Clairmont family's connection to Mary Shelley began in 1801 when her father William Godwin married Mary Jane Vial The combined family then included the future author of Frankenstein plus her half sister Fanny who had been left motherless by the death of Mary Wollstonecraft and Vial's two children Charles and Claire Clairmont a fifth child William Godwin Junior was born in 1803 In 1816 Mary would marry Percy Shelley thereby creating the extended Wollstonecraft Godwin Shelley Clairmont kinship circle Despite the often difficult relationship between Vial and her stepdaughters the children in the blended family were close into adulthood Beyond the Shelley Circle traces this history and that of the Clairmont family into the twenty first century through various personal writings It includes in German transcription and English translation with editorial notes the previously unpublished journal of Ottilia Clairmont the wife of Charles's son which describes her life in the Banat region in the 1860s It uses this document and others for a fulsome discussion of life writing in the period among women and in literary circles The book further connects the kinship coterie to other family studies situating them in a vital tradition within literary studies
