Humour in the Beginning Roald Dijkstra, Paul van der Velde, 2022-10-15 Humour in the Beginning presents a multidisciplinary collection of fourteen in depth case studies on the role of humour both benign and blasphemous elitist and ordinary orthodox and heterodox in early formative stages of Christianity Islam Buddhism Hinduism and late antique Judaism Its coherence is strengthened by four preceding theoretical essays many cross references and a conclusion Thus the volume allows for a methodologically sound comparison and explanation of historical views on humour in the world s most important religions At first sight the foundational period of religions do not seem to offer much opportunities for humour A closer look on primary sources however reveals the ways in which people formulated answers to existing ideas on humour and laughter in moments of religious renewal Main topics include the incongruous nature of the divine the role of anthropomorphism superior and didactic humour moderate laughter responses from dissenters and the gap between religious regulations and reality
