She Went A Whaling The Journal Of Martha:

She Went A-whaling Martha Smith Brewer Brown,1993 One of the women who accompanied her whaling captain husband for an adventure on the whaling grounds Martha Smith Brewer Brown kept a journal in 1847 and 1848 and it is presented here edited by Anne MacKay in a little book that makes a large contribution to women s history and whaling history The very religious Martha Brown writes about her fears her moral concerns shipboard life whale hunting and especially her distress during eight months ashore in Honolulu with a baby on the way a husband in the Sea of Okhotsk and not enough money in her purse To Swear like a Sailor Paul A. Gilje,2016-02-15 Anyone could swear like a sailor Within the larger culture sailors had pride of place in swearing But how they swore and the reasons for their bad language were not strictly wedded to maritime things Instead sailor swearing indeed all swearing in this period was connected to larger developments This book traces the interaction between the maritime and mainstream world in the United States while examining cursing language logbooks storytelling sailor songs reading images and material goods To Swear Like a Sailor offers insight into the character of Jack Tar the common seaman and into the early republic It illuminates the cultural connections between Great Britain and the United States and the appearance of a distinct American national identity The book explores the emergence of sentimental notions about the common man through the guise of the sailor appearing on stage in song in literature and in images Remarkable Women in New York History Helen Engel,Marilynn Smiley,2014-04-08 A history of the amazing women who have left their mark on the Empire State The significant events in New York State history are well known to educators students and New Yorkers alike But often the role that women played in these events has been overlooked In this book members of the American Association of University Women in New York State have meticulously researched the lives and actions of some of New York s finest women Some of the names are renowned like the great emancipator Harriet Tubman who settled in Auburn and some are less so such as Linda Tetor who fought for the rights of senior citizens in Steuben County and throughout the state Discover the stories of these indomitable women who from Long Island and Manhattan to Buffalo and Fredonia have steered the course of New York s history from the colonial era through today Female Husbands Jen Manion,2020-03-26 A timely and comprehensive history of female husbands in Anglo America from the eighteenth through the turn of the twentieth century Hen Frigates Joan Druett,1999-05-04 A hen frigate is any boat with the captain s wife on board This is their story of life on the high seas Fish Harlan Walker,1998 The annual volume of the proceedings of the Oxford Symposium the longest running colloquy on food and food history in the western world The subject of this year s discussions was not just fish but the diet of fishermen and any foodstuff that may be culled from the waters such as seaweed Maritime Labour Richard Gorski,2007 This is a collection of soundings into various aspects of the history of maritime labor from the close of the Middle Ages to the present The spatial emphasis of the essays is north European and Atlantic since they deal with the countries around the North Sea and Baltic with some coverage of North America Indeed from time to time the authors leave the sea behind in order to examine broader issues such as labor markets the regulation and institutions of seafaring and industrial relations on the waterfront But at all points there is a common theme of sea related labor and a common objective of better understanding what have often been perceived as difficult and elusive groups of people Captain Ahab Had a Wife Lisa Norling,2014-02-01 During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the whaling industry in New England sent hundreds of ships and thousands of men to distant seas on voyages lasting up to five years In Captain Ahab Had a Wife Lisa Norling taps a rich vein of sources including women s and men s letters and diaries shipowners records Quaker meeting minutes and other church records newspapers and magazines censuses and city directories to reconstruct the lives of the Cape Horn widows left behind onshore Norling begins with the emergence of colonial whalefishery on the island of Nantucket and then follows the industry to mainland New Bedford in the nineteenth century tracking the parallel shift from a patriarchal world to a more ambiguous Victorian culture of domesticity Through the sea wives compelling and often poignant stories Norling exposes the painful discrepancies between gender ideals and the reality of maritime life and documents the power of gender to shape both economic development and individual experience Round About the Earth Joyce E. Chaplin,2013-11-19 Originally published in hardcover in 2012

Whaling on Martha's Vineyard Thomas Dresser ,2018 Martha s Vineyard became an integral part of the whaling industry at the beginning of the eighteenth century and inspired a lasting romantic enthusiasm for life on the open ocean From shorewhaling to daring voyages into the Atlantic Pacific and Arctic Oceans the insular whaling community offered a tempting path for many young Vineyarders to rise from cabin boy to captain Local businesses were enticed by the potential profit from whaling voyages and many reaped generous rewards from successful whale oil harvests Through memoirs music and memorabilia author Thomas Dresser recounts this dramatic history of the bygone era of whaling on Martha s Vineyard
