Sheepish Beauty Civilian Love:

Contemplative and Artful Openings Susan Walsh, 2017-07-06 Highlighting an arts based inquiry process that involves contemplation mindful awareness and artful writing this book explores women's difficult experiences in teaching. It weaves a strong autobiographical thread with artifacts from several research projects with female teachers. By linking innovative approaches to research that involve visual images and poetic writing with feminist poststructuralist theories and Buddhist inspired practices Walsh offers new understandings about what it means to be critical in research and teaching and also what transformation both social and personal might entail.

Poets Talk Pauline Butling, Susan Rudy, 2005-01-15 This is a book that takes on the hard questions about the role of poets in society together with the challenges of reading difficult poetry. Using the relaxed format of the personal interview Butling and Rudy open doors to some of the most challenging and important poetry of the 1990s. Robert Kroetsch talks about his dread of systems and his subversive use of sub-literary forms. Erin Mour and Daphne Marlatt discuss the feminist trajectories in their work how to jump circuits and activate alternative networks. Dionne Brand links her poetics to Marxist politics and Pan African liberation movements. Annharte explains her use of humour to de-program Native people. Jeff Derksen wants to disarticulate and rearticulate linguistic and social systems while Fred Wah emphasizes the role of poetry in changing how we see the world.

O Ciudadan, 2002-04-01 A candid and passionate consideration of citizenship viewed through the feminine. O Ciudadan examines borders in language and in the body to explore ways in which we might rethink nation and community in our era. Erin Moure's poems pulse they shift and overlap echo capture sensual and political hinges in our social topography. Drawing on puns shadows images charts and crosswords Moure's poetic forms belie any settled safe habitation of the page extending the textual possibilities of language and expression as Moure grapples with how we might exist as citizens. Gritty argumentative funny and moody O Ciudadan is Erin Moure's final volume in a decade long trilogy of work exploring language feeling responsibility and identity within the liminal territories we occupy. The first critically acclaimed volumes were Search Procedures nominated for the 1996 Governor General's Award for poetry and A Frame of the Book also called The Frame of a Book nominated for the 1999 QSPELL A.M. Klein Poetry Prize and the 1999 Pat Lowther Memorial Award.

Planetary Noise Erín Moure, 2017-03-07 Planetary Noise Selected Poetry of Erín Moure gathers four decades of poetry from a celebrated Canadian poet and translator who has persistently reconfigured the linguistic and material relations of English. Moure's poems and networked sequences are hybrid and often polylingual they work with contradiction paradox and verbal detritus linguistic hiccups and blips often too quickly dismissed as noise to create new conditions for thought and pleasure. From postdramatic theatre to queer and feminist theory from the politics of citizenship and genocide to the minutiae of digital poetics from the clamor of love to the shadows of grief and memory Moure has joyously toppled hierarchies of meaning and parasited dominant discourses to create poetry that crosses borders embracing hope not war. This volume edited by poet and literary scholar Shannon Maguire also features an extensive introduction to Moure's poetry a section of poetry by others translated by Moure and an afterword on translation by the poet An online reader's companion is available at wesleyan.edu/wespress/readerscompanions Hardcover is unjacketed

Trans.Can.Lit Smaro Kambourelli, 2009-10-22 The study of Canadian literature CanLit has undergone dramatic changes since it became an area of specialization in the 1960s and 70s As new global forces in the 1990s undermined its nation based critical assumptions its theoretical focus and research methods lost their immediacy The contributors to Trans Can Lit address cultural policy citizenship white civility and the celebrated status of diasporic writers unabashedly recognizing the imperative to transfigure the disciplinary and institutional frameworks within which Canadian literature is produced disseminated studied taught and imagined Furious, 2018-08-07 The poetry in the Governor General's Award winning collection Furious is charged with Erin Moure's characteristic energy and wit as she explores the limits of pure reason and the language of power There is too a fresh and often celebratory look at love and in an unusual finale The Acts Moure challenges us to explore a feminist aesthetic of thinking of the page of working life and the possibility of poetry O

Cadoiro, 2007-04-01 O Cadoiro is an astonishing exploration of lyricism by one of our greatest poets best known in recent years for her challenging experimental work But where experimental poets often disdain lyric Moure embraces it revelling in its beauty and its radical modernity Rooted in medieval Galician Portuguese cantigas her poems in O Cadoiro are a breathtaking passage through archive rhythm address and the mystery and wound of authorship itself From the author's postface O cadoiro is literally the place where falling is made In Galician cadoiro is one word for waterfall Cataract perhaps Thus the fall This to me is the place of poetry for whoever writes poetry must be prepared ever to fall The postface to O Cadoiro is freely downloadable by clicking on sample chapter via the House of Anansi product page It is not printed in the book Contemporary Women's Poetry and Urban Space Z. Skoulding, 2013-10-03 This book focuses on the role of the city and its processes of mutual transformation in poetry by experimental women writers Readings of their work are placed in the context of theories of urban space while new visions of the contemporary city and its global relationships are drawn from their innovations in language and form Eleven More American Women Poets in the 21st Century Claudia Rankine, Lisa Sewell, 2012-01-01 A fine and selective anthology that's also a critical introduction to some of the most provocative and some of the most original poetry out there Stephanie Burt author of Don't Read Poetry A Book About How to Read Poems The American Poets in the 21st Century series continues with another anthology focused on female poets Like the earlier books this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work This unique organization makes these books invaluable teaching tools Broadening the lens through which we look at contemporary poetry this new volume extends its geographical net by including Caribbean and Canadian poets Representing three generations of women writers among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Karla Kelsey on Mary Jo Bang's modes of artifice Christine Hume on Carla Harryman's
