finally ended when he received the news that his mother had died In No Son of Mine Corcoran traces his messy estrangement from his mother through lost geographies the trees mountains and streams that were once his birthright as well as the lost relationships with friends and family and the sense of home that were stripped away when she said he was no longer her son A biography nestled inside a memoir No Son of Mine is Corcoran s story of alienation and his attempts to understand his mother s choice to cut him out of her life Through grief anger questioning and growth Corcoran explores the entwined yet separate histories and identities of his mother and himself
