Take My Word Anne E. Goldman, 2023-09-01 In an innovative critique of traditional approaches to autobiography Anne E Goldman convincingly demonstrates that ethnic women can and do speak for themselves even in the most unlikely contexts Citing a wide variety of nontraditional texts including the cookbooks of Nuevo Mexicanas African American memoirs of midwifery and healing and Jewish women's histories of the garment industry Goldman illustrates how American women have asserted their ethnic identities and made their voices heard over and sometimes against the interests of publishers editors and readers While the dominant culture has interpreted works of ethnic literature as representative of a people rather than an individual the working women of this study insist upon their own agency in narrating rich and complicated self portraits In an innovative critique of traditional approaches to autobiography Anne E Goldman convincingly demonstrates that ethnic women can and do speak for themselves even in the most unlikely contexts Citing a wide variety of nontraditional texts including Memories: Journey into an Immigrant's Mind Emanuel Paparella, 2018-08-10 As its title powerfully suggests this book while being a personal memoir a narration of one's life journey from sunrise to sunset transcends the personal Its uniqueness lies in the fact that these memories are the memories of an immigrant who has lived in the country as a US citizen with an American born father for some sixty years It is much more than a list of events and anecdotes of an immigrant experience It is written in a Dantesque and Vichian spirit and as such it goes beyond the listing of historical events and people More than a physical journey it is an intellectual journey into the mind of an immigrant in search of ones self and ones ethnic identity As such it is a universal journey with which nonimmigrants even native born can easily empathize Our common humanity makes it universal As Dante well put it when he began the narration of his lifes journey In the middle of the journey of our lives I found myself in a dark wood As Dante begins the journey guided by Virgil and Breatrice he finds out that indeed the journey is universal beyond the purely personal As Michelangelo said Ancor imparo I am still learning He uttered such a statement at the venerable age of eighty nine a few days before he died He was still sculpting and learning Likewise if we dare to begin the journey at whatever age we may find ourselves we may soon find out that we too are still learning and the journey may well have a common purpose and destination

Voices of Asian Americans in Higher Education Festus E. Obiakor,Ying Hui-Michael,2018-10-01 Voices of Asian Americans in Higher Education Unheard Voices is a unique and historical book Asian Americans are often portrayed as model minority yet their personal and educational experiences are often unheard In this book 10 Asian American educators and scholars present realistic pictures of America s higher education using personal narratives The contributors in this book come from different regions and teach in different colleges and universities and coincidentally they all endure the outsider category formerly as students and now as professors and leaders This outsider status can be emotionally overwhelming and psychologically unnerving This status hampers opportunities for Asian Americans to grow and maximize their fullest potential Though they develop different strategies to address their outsider label it does not make it comfortable But time and time again they have proven that they can succeed In this technological age we must value unending truths as we educate ourselves and others We hope that this book will be an educational and informational resource for students administrators and faculty in higher education and also educational policy makers and stakeholders

Never Alone Natan Sharansky,Gil Troy,2020-09-01 A classic account of courage integrity and most of all belonging In 1977 Natan Sharansky a leading activist in the democratic dissident movement in the Soviet Union and the movement for free Jewish emigration was arrested by the KGB He spent nine years as a political prisoner convicted of treason against the state Every day Sharansky fought for individual freedom in the face of overt tyranny a struggle that would come to define the rest of his life Never Alone reveals how Sharansky s years in prison many spent in harsh solitary confinement prepared him for a very public life after his release As an Israeli politician and the head of the Jewish Agency Sharansky brought extraordinary moral clarity and uncompromising often uncomfortable honesty His story is suffused with reflections from his time as a political prisoner from his seat at the table as history unfolded in Israel and the Middle East and from his passionate efforts to unite the Jewish people Written with frankness affection and humor the book offers us profound insights from a man who embraced the essential human struggle to find his own voice his own faith and the people to whom he could belong The Value of Worthless Lives Ilaria Serra,2007 Publisher description Transculturating Auto/Biography Rosalia Baena,2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena s theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self inscription and self representation Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing which tends to centre on content the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies Bulletin Detroit Public Library,1913

Book Notes Illustrated, 1923 My History is America's History National Endowment for the Humanities, 1999 15 things you can do to save America's stories Trial and Error: The Autobiography of Chaim Weizmann Chaim Weizmann, 2019-07-31 Chaim Weizmann's autobiography is a highly personal account of his life in the Zionist movement Book One completed in 1941 covers the years 1874-1917 and Book Two covers the years 1918-1948 Weizmann describes the Russian shtetl where he was born in 1874 his schooling in Pinsk and his university studies in Berlin Geneva and Freiburg Switzerland where he received his PhD in chemistry in 1899 before moving to Manchester in 1904 He portrays many leading Zionists such as Theodor Herzl Achad Ha'am Max Nordau Shmarya Levin Ussishkin Jabotinsky Ruppin He describes the opposition by assimilationist Jews like Edwin Montagu to Zionism and internal debates within the Zionist movement such as the defeat of Herzl's Uganda plan bitterly opposed by Weizmann at the 6th Zionist Congress 1903 and his frictions with the American Zionists led by Brandeis Weizmann describes how during World War I his work on acetone brought him into contact with British political leaders such as Lloyd George Arthur Balfour and Winston Churchill and facilitated the Balfour Declaration which in 1917 paved the way for the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people Weizmann recounts his role in the creation of what would become Israel's leading scientific institutions the Hebrew University the Weizmann Institute of Science and the Technion including his fundraising efforts in Europe and in the United States on their behalf and for other Zionist initiatives He became the first President of Israel and died in office in 1952 one of the important historical documents of our time Orville Prescott The New York Times January 19 1949 Trial and Error is likely to be read for many years to come as an authoritative exposition of the Zionist movement records eye witness accounts of so many crucial events and reflects so many deep insights that it is certain to become of permanent value to the scholar and a delight to the general reader Salo Baron The New York Times January 23 1949 There are four angles from which one can approach this book One can take it as a history of Zionism during the last seventy years a record of personal endeavour triumphant over obstacles and dissension a sad commentary upon human achievement when eventual triumph comes at a date and in circumstances which rob it of its full savour the self portrait of a most remarkable man Harold Nicolson The Observer March 27 1949 Notable in this intellectually candid record is the fact that Weizmann embraced and propagated Jewish nationalism because he regarded it as a positive good not merely a negative escape from gentile persecution This intensely human book which in a sense is the story of modern Zionism constitutes one of the indispensable sources for the history of our times Robert Gale Woolbert Foreign Affairs July 1949 Weizmann's autobiography is an astonishingly objective and life-like narrative without a trace of dramatization, exaggeration, vanity, self-pity, self-justification; it conveys his authentic, richly and evenly developed, autonomous, proud, firmly built, somewhat ironical nature, free from inner conflict, in deep instinctive harmony with the forces of nature and society and therefore possessed of natural wisdom, dignity and authority. Sir Isaiah Berlin, Chichele Professor of Social and Political Theory, Oxford University, November 19, 1957. Ranks between Churchill's war memoirs and those of Nehru, Masaryk and Trotsky among the founders' own stories; above all, a human book, the record of the experiences and reactions of a man who fought over issues that were important. Congress Bulletin, April 1949. Devolving Identities Lynne Pearce, 2017-03-02

There is no doubt that the political and cultural map of Europe is in the process of being radically redrawn. Alongside the major upheavals in continental Europe, the British Isles have undergone far-reaching constitutional reform. In Devolving Identities, feminist scholars explore their personal negotiations of gender, class, ethnicity and national or regional identity through their readings of two literary and cultural texts. The collection centres on the ontological experience of reading and writing as a feminist and combines the discussion of texts which are inscribed, whether consciously or unconsciously, with the academics' own struggle to reconcile their roots with their current situations or identities. This book's focus on the overlapping of gender and national or regional identity is a direct response to the devolution movements currently active in the British Isles. The contributors are drawn from Scotland, Wales, Cornwall, Ireland, Northern Ireland and selected regions of England. In its complex engagement of subject and text and its political insistence that we no longer consider key aspects of identity in isolation, this volume presents a truly state-of-the-art investigation of what it means to be regionally defined and how the complexity of our positioning in terms of class, gender and nation impacts upon our practice as literary and cultural critics.

Praying with Jane Eyre Vanessa Zoltan, 2022-07-05 In these soaring, open-hearted essays, Vanessa Zoltan writes with fierce brilliance about suffering, survival and the kind of meaning in life that can withstand real scrutiny. John Green, bestselling author of The Fault in Our Stars and The Anthropocene. Our favorite reads keep us company, give us hope and help us find meaning in a chaotic world. In this fresh and relatable work, atheist chaplain Vanessa Zoltan blends memoir and personal growth as she grapples with the notions of family legacy and identity through the lens of her favorite novel, Jane Eyre. Informed by her training at the Harvard Divinity School and filtered through the pages of Jane Eyre as well as Little Women, Harry Potter and The Great Gatsby, Zoltan explores topics ranging from the trauma she has inherited as the granddaughter of four Holocaust survivors to finding hope, meaning and even magic in our deeply fractured times. Brimming with a love of classic literature and the tenderness of self-reflection, the book also reveals simple techniques for reading any work as a sacred text, from Virginia Woolf to Anne of Green Gables to baseball scorecards.
