May she never seek recovery. Indeed. Best Travel Writing 2005 James O'Reilly, Sean O'Reilly, Larry Habegger, 2005. The 28 stories in this compilation take the reader on delightful armchair adventures to points known and unknown from recreating Muhammad Ali's Rumble in the Jungle in a makeshift boxing ring in Malawi to discovering the secret to life and chicken in a humble Parisian restaurant to encountering the ghost of Odysseus and the mysteries of one's own past in the Aegean. Featuring points of view and perspectives as global as the tales themselves, the stories present an equally eclectic collection of themes encompassing spiritual growth, misadventure, high adventure, romance, women's solo journeys, stories of service to humanity, family travel, and encounters with exotic cuisine. The common thread connecting them all is fresh, lively storytelling that makes readers laugh, cry, wish they were there, or be glad they weren't. The Readers' Advisory Guide to Nonfiction Neal Wyatt, 2007-05-14. Navigating what she calls the extravagantly rich world of nonfiction, renowned readers advisor RA Wyatt builds readers advisory bridges from fiction to compelling and increasingly popular nonfiction to encompass the library's entire collection. She focuses on eight popular categories: history, true crime, true adventure, science, memoir, food, cooking, travel, and sports. Within each, she explains the scope, popularity, style, major authors, and works, and the subject's position in readers advisory. Interviews Wyatt addresses who is reading nonfiction and why, while providing RAs with the tools and language to incorporate nonfiction into discussions that point readers to what to read next. In easy-to-follow steps, Wyatt explains the hows and whys of offering fiction and nonfiction suggestions together. Illustrates ways to get up to speed fast in nonfiction. Shows how to lead readers to a variety of books using her read-around and reading map strategies. Provides tools to build nonfiction subject guides for the collection. This hands-on guide includes nonfiction bibliography, key authors, benchmark books with annotations, and core collections. It is destined to become the nonfiction bible for readers advisory and collection development, helping librarians, library workers, and patrons select great reading from the entire library collection. Settling the Borderland Jan Whitt, 2008-09-05. Settling the Borderland deals with the intimate connection between journalism and literature, both fields in which work by women has been underrepresented. This book has a twin focus: the work of journalists who became some of the greatest novelists, poets, and short story writers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in America, several of whom are men and contemporary journalists who best exemplify the effective use of literary techniques in news coverage. Although five women are emphasized here—Katherine Anne Porter, Eudora Welty, Joan Didion, Sara Davidson, and Susan Orlean—three men whose work was profoundly influenced by journalism also are included: Edgar Allan Poe, Walt Whitman, and John Steinbeck, all well known as writers of poetry, short stories, and novels, but they too are among the other voices rarely included in studies of literary journalism. In Settling the Borderland, Jan Whitt presents a thorough analysis of the increasingly indistinct lines between truth and fiction and between fact and creative narrative in contemporary media. The St. Martin's Guide to

The Thong Also Rises Jennifer L. Leo, 2009-05-01 Too many travel guides are dry lists of attractions or portentous histories of a place This isn't the case with The Thong Also Rises Hot on the high heels of Sand in My Bra and Whose Panties Are These comes this collection of the best in women's travel and humor writing These Ms adventures take readers around the world and back again and they'll be happy to be reading rather than experiencing some of these adventures Subjects include learning how to go to the bathroom with a pig in Thailand trying to explain that sex toy to customs while Mother is watching attending naked wedding ceremonies on Valentine's Day in Jamaica conquering that consuming fear of wooden puppets with a visit to Prague boarding a crusty old Soviet Bomber in Laos and more Contributors include such notable writers and comedians as Jill Connor Browne Wanda Sykes Laurie Notaro Wendy Dale and Ayun Halliday

Immersion Ted Conover, 2016-10-24 Over three and a half decades Ted Conover has ridden the rails with hoboes crossed the border with Mexican immigrants guarded prisoners in Sing Sing and inspected meat for the USDA His books and articles chronicling these experiences including the award winning Newjack Guarding Sing Sing have made him one of the premier practitioners of immersion reporting In immersion reporting a literary cousin to ethnography travel writing and memoir the writer fully steps into a new world or culture participating in its trials rites and rituals as a member of the group The end results of these firsthand experiences are familiar to us from bestsellers such as Nickel and Dimed and Behind the Beautiful Forevers But in a world of wary strangers where does one begin Conover distills decades of knowledge into an accessible resource aimed at writers of all levels He covers how to get into a community how to conduct oneself once inside and how to shape and structure the stories that emerge Conover is also forthright about the ethics and consequences of immersion reporting preparing writers for the surprises that often surface when their piece becomes public Throughout Conover shares anecdotes from his own experiences as well as from other well known writers in this genre including Alex Kotlowitz Anne Fadiman and Sebastian Junger It s a deep in the trenches book that all aspiring immersion writers should have in hand as they take that first leap into another world
