Catholics and Political Violence in the Twentieth Century

Lucia Ceci,2024-10-14 Catholics and Political Violence in the Twentieth Century presents a historical reconstruction of the ways in which Catholics have justified the recourse to political violence during the twentieth century a period marked by major wars nationalisms decolonization ideological clashes and episodes of genocide Legitimation processes are particularly complex when this violence is not endorsed by the state and perhaps used against it Depending on perspective the protagonists of this radical form of collective action may be seen as terrorists or freedom fighters Written by a leading historian of contemporary Catholicism this book examines a series of case studies from different parts of the world selected because of the central role played by the Catholic religion They range from Northern Ireland to the Basque Country from the Philippines to Colombia and from Mexico to Rwanda It highlights how theological sources paradigms of martyrdom and symbols of the Christian tradition have provided a catalogue of reasons to give moral value to violence and promote it in the name of God By looking at the history of Catholicism in global terms and adopting a transnational perspective Catholics and Political Violence in the Twentieth Century sheds a critical light on the themes that are crucial to understanding the relationship between religion and violence It will appeal to scholars and students working and studying in the fields of Modern and Contemporary History Religious Studies Terrorism Studies Cultural and Global Studies Intellectual History and the History of Political Thought Liberation, Method and Dialogue Roberto S. Goizueta,2018-06-27 This book analyzes the theological method of liberation theologian Enrique Dussel and by comparing it with the meta method of Bernard Lonergan establishes a paradigm for international theological dialogue The author suggests that Dussel s non reductionist understanding of liberation and Lonergan s understanding of the subject as subject provide a methodological foundation for critical dialogue between Latin American and North American theologians The methodological maturation of liberation theology rehearsed in this study suggests how the insights of Latin American theology demand the development of an indigenous form of North American theology of liberation The Bolivian Revolution and the United States, 1952 to

The ethics of war A. J. Coates, 2016-01-01 The ethics of war explores the moral limits and possibilities of war in its diverse forms The feasibility of the moral limitation of war is upheld At the same time war's fragile moral potential is acknowledged and its causes sought The argument is conducted from a traditional just war standpoint which balances rules or principles against the moral capacities and dispositions of belligerents and the particular circumstances in which they act In this enlarged second edition a new introduction addresses the common criticism that traditional just war theory is incoherent outmoded and in need of radical revision Many of the problems attributed to the tradition by revisionists are seen to derive from a distortion and oversimplification of the historical tradition A fuller and more accurate understanding of that tradition can mitigate or even resolve these problems It can also help to fill the gaps left in the ethical agenda of war by analytic ethics Part I compares the conception of just war with realism militarism and pacifism Part II examines the principles of just recourse and just conduct with the aid of real life examples A new Part III discusses the propriety of defining terrorism and the ethical problems raised by particular aspects of terrorism and counterterrorism such as the tension between moral and strategic concerns the variable moral impact of different forms of terrorism the status and the moral disposition of the terrorist the treatment of noncombatants the resort to preventive war and interrogational torture and the use of drones and risk free warfare      South and Meso-American Native Spirituality Gary H.
