My Life In Sarawak:

My Life in Sarawak Lady Margaret Brooke, 1987 Margaret de Windt married Charles Brooke Rajah of Sarawak in 1869 In this book she described her adventurous and lonely life as Raneé of that wild and remote land My Life in Sarawak Margaret Brooke, 2013-04-02 Hardcover reprint of the original 1913 edition beautifully bound in brown cloth covers featuring titles stamped in gold 8vo 6x9 No adjustments have been made to the original text giving readers the full antiquarian experience For quality purposes all text and images are printed as black and white This item is printed on demand Book Information Brooke Margaret Lady My Life In Sarawak Indiana Repressed Publishing LLC 2012 Original Publishing Brooke Margaret Lady My Life In Sarawak London Methuen Co Ltd 1913 My Life in Sarawak (Classic Reprint) Margaret Brooke, 2017-10-15 Excerpt from My Life in Sarawak I that they should find an advocate in their Raneé for she loves them To know Raneé Brooke is to know that and those who read her Life in Sarawak will realize this fact to the full and will feel that in the years she spent with these simple people she must have proved it to them and won their confidence by her sympathy That is the only way to get at the hearts of a Malay people and though the native population of this section of Borneo is divided into at least two sections Malays and Dyaks differing widely in religion customs and language they are still members of the great Malay family which is spread over the Malay Peninsula Sumatra Java Borneo the islands of the Archipelago and farther afield It is well for any of the Malay race that they should find a sympathetic writer to tell the world something of their little lives for they are a silent and exclusive people They do not understand publicity they do not want it so long as they are fairly and justly treated indeed superficial observers might think that Malays do not really care how they are governed and that it is a matter of About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works An Anthology of Women's Travel Writings Shirley Foster, Sara Mills, 2002 This anthology aims to challenge stereotypes of women travellers Rather than simply presenting writings by Victorian women who travelled bravely around the world disregarding social convention and danger the editors present a range of writing and possible ways of being a woman traveller As well as the eccentric woman traveller the editors have included writings by those who might be seen as failed travellers cautious and conventional travellers and those who did not conform to the adventurous heroine stereotype Because travelling as a woman and writing as a woman presents the author with a number of textual problems which must be negotiated Foster and Mills have chosen to include writings which confronted these problems and which resolved them or did not resolve them in different ways These textual problems include the depiction of other women the representation of spatial relations the negotiations undertaken in relation to the adventure heroine narrative and character and the position taken by the author in relation to the representation of knowledge These issues are all crucial in relation to travel writing by women and the women whose writing has been collected together in this anthology have made bold decisions in relation to them MY LIFE IN SARAWAK MARGARET.
