years through the stories of three wives who have long fascinated her Women and Citizenship in Britain and Ireland in the 20th Century Esther Breitenbach, Pat Thane, 2010-05-06 The continuing under representation of women in political and public life remains a matter of concern across a wide range of countries including the UK and Ireland Within the UK it is a topical issue as political parties currently debate strategies often controversial which will increase women's representation At the same time devolution has ushered in significant change in the level of women's representation in Scotland and Wales and improved representation for women in Northern Ireland That such increases in women's representation in political institutions have been slow in coming is indisputable given that full enfranchisement of women on equal terms with men was achieved in Ireland in 1921 and in the UK in 1928 Jennie Lee Patricia Hollis, 2014-09-18 First published in 1997 Patricia Hollis's biography of the pioneering Labour MP Jennie Lee 1904-1988 won both the Wolfson History Prize and the Orwell Prize It is the definitive study of this remarkable woman her stormy political career and her marriage to Aneurin Bevan In a new preface to this edition Hollis adds insights into Lee's life which emerged subsequent to first publication and also draws on her own experience as a Labour Minister from 1997-2005 Lee's lives and loves passions and drives are beautifully and frankly explored in Patricia Hollis's compelling book THE Superbly researched engrossingly written scrupulously honest Gerald Kaufman Daily Telegraph What makes it particularly fascinating is the author's own first hand knowledge of politics and of the Labour movement TLS One of the best political biographies of recent years Alan Watkins New Statesman
