Revered science reporter and radio host Bob McDonald has devoted a decades long career to turning our attention away from everyday perspectives and outward to the vast intricate wonders of our planet and universe. Now in this revealing and captivating memoir he looks within offering an intimate view of the path that brought him from a blue collar background to his long standing role as Canada's foremost explainer of all things scientific. It's an engrossing and often jubilant story that allows McDonald to share powerful insights on overcoming fear of failure and tackling life transforming challenges. Early on he describes a childhood and youth plagued by difficulties in school that eventually convinced him to drop out of university. Yet despite the academic obstacles his love of science burned bright. Soon through an innate stage sense and sheer enthusiasm he landed a gig doing high spirited demonstrations for the public at the Ontario Science Centre which in turn led to self produced TV spots. And as each hard won never certain success built on the last he arrived at the role that would make him a national figure: the witty engaging passionately curious host of the perennially popular CBC Radio show Quirks and Quarks reporting from the frontiers of scientific exploration and rubbing elbows with such luminaries as Chris Hadfield, Buzz Aldrin and Stephen Hawking. Told with all of McDonald's trademark pace and humour, Just Say Yes is bound to please, surprise and inspire his numerous fans in entirely new ways. Dragons & Dinosaurs

Timothy Martin, 2020-09-09 Jim is a small town police officer proudly doing his duty like any law enforcement agent would. Jim's continuing adventures as he helps to ensure the future for the family he is building. A fast paced adventure filled with dwarves, elves, dragons. From the cold and snow in the North to the depths of the oceans in search of the legendary dragon crystal which might give Jim just enough power to defeat the deadly Malum and the evil wizard Chavez. He relies on his training and survival instincts to continue to cheat death. Will he finally be able to balance the power before the dark forces take over? An evil wizard and the creatures he has aligned with must be destroyed before they bring ruin to the entire world he has grown to love. This world has waited for a long time for someone, a leader, a hero. Can Jim be this person? Things certainly are heating up in more ways than ever expected. Abraham Lincoln

Amy L. Cohn, Suzy Schmidt, 2002 With a down home folksy flavor, Amy L. Cohn and Suzy Schmidt have written an unusual biography of Abe Lincoln that is sure to become a perennial classic. In their first collaboration as storytellers, since FROM SEA TO SHINING SEA, Amy L. Cohn and Suzy Schmidt tell Lincoln's story from his birth to his untimely death. Beginning with his humble start in a log cabin in Kentucky, the authors take us through his young life working on the family farm, learning to read and write on his own with only the crudest schooling, his early love of knowledge and the sad times when he lost his mother They delve into his adult life as a lawyer a father a husband a politician a military leader and a president all the while exploring the many facets of his character his kindness his wisdom his compassion and his wonderful quirky humor Readers will relish this flavor rich biography that portrays a favorite American hero with rare sensitivity Home to You Muriel Jensen,2000 Overachiever Karen Tillman had temporarily returned to Bramble Bay to mend a broken heart And though her dreams had shattered one look at her old high school crush Charlie Scott and she realized a new dream was possible America's Bountiful Waters National Fish and Aquatic Conservation Archive National Fish and Aquatic Conservation Archive,2021-06-01 Fish and Aquatic Conservation FAC in the U S Fish Wildlife Service is the direct descendant of the U S Fish Commission founded in 1871 In 2021 FAC marks its 150th anniversary the oldest conservation agency in history To commemorate this milestone U S F W will publish a compelling history to celebrate the broad thinking scientists writers and artists who led us through the gilded age of American ichthyology into the present day Quest: V. Virom Coppola,2004-03-16 The task before us in a nutshell my fellow humans is the clear and present danger of finding out who we really are That is the impossible feat I have given this poor creature V Virom and each of us with him The proof of the pasta is always in the tasting So says the author at the beginning of his book as he invites the reader on a detective story offering a beautifully written book with a rather remarkable synthesis of modern thinking one that builds from the ground of existence alone to a spirituality both secular and sacred That single paragraph on the cover of the book says what needs to be said it seems to me When I thought about this further and longer requested description of the book for the web site T S Eliot came to mind I am referring to the time when he was asked what his poem Prufrock was about and kindly replied Read the poem I do think he made a valid point because asking for a description of a book is the same when you think about it Shouldnt a person rather be reading the book itself At the same time I certainly can understand a person wanting to get a feel for the book before purchasing it and since you dont have the book to handle and page through to do that which I myself always do to see if there is going to be a love affair between the book and me I will give the viewer some of the Overture at the beginning of my book as an overture here as well hopefully to help accomplish the tangential absence Call it virtual foreplay if you want First Review From the Free Venice Beachhead News June 2004 Book Review QUEST A SEARCH FOR A SOUL MODERNKIND by Vincent Coppola Reviewed by Steve Goldman a former editor for Encyclopedia Britannica With great passion yet without a scintilla of mawkish sentimentality Coppola here makes the strong compelling case for love as the direct and primary implication of human consciousness That would be laudable by itself but these are not merely the pleasant musings of a decent well intentioned person This is and it is astounding tightly reasoned philosophy based on acute astute observation and profound and powerful argument Building on Descartes whom he explicitly reverses on the fundamental matter of proof of personal experience and Kant who seems indispensable to all who came after Coppola emerges with a distinctive and compassionate American existentialism that is unlike anything heretofore

With strongly grounded links to modern cosmology evolutionary theory and sheer phenomenology of consciousness in space time Coppola delivers a ringing statement of free will so sorely needed in this era of burgeoning biological reductionist determinism This in turn yields a ringing adduction of the ontological primacy of self with commensurately devastating attacks on any variety of teeny bopping reductionism chemical biological physical or psychological and as well on any religious philosophical tradition usually Asian which explicitly denies or tries to eradicate the self I myself exist and I can love is the rigorously derived powerfully demonstrated theorem which is the first principal here What is more the revolutionary optional theology Quest proposes seems to at last settle that huge and perennial question for contemporary times Additionally and astonishingly and with philosophical deftness and gracious style Coppolas secular Christology evinces sacred humanitarian values again so needed in this era Coppola is a highly trained professional philosopher a prodigiously well read and deeply thoughtful theorist and analyst whose similarity to the preponderant mentality in his field is only superficial That is because Vincent V Virom is a philosopher in the all but abandoned grand tradition
