My Lithuania:

Lithuania Alexandra Ashbourne, 1999-01-01 In 1990 the tiny Soviet Republic of Lithuania declared independence and began restoring the mechanisms of independent government and democracy that had been suppressed by its Soviet invaders for half a century Lithuania examines the first years of this rebirth in the face of the legacy of the Soviet occupation In addition to chronicling the lively chain of events leading to and stemming from the declaration of independence Alexandra Ashbourne studies the essential components of rebirth the creation of domestic foreign and security policies and the revitalization of an independent economy Drawing from the personal testimony of Lithuanians closely connected to these events Ashbourne appraises Lithuania's attempts to rejoin the international community and acquire an effective security guarantee She concludes that the damage caused by fifty years of Soviet domination created obstacles to the process of rebirth obstacles that are proving difficult and even impossible to overcome Readers of Lithuania will find its discussions applicable to most former Soviet republics and Eastern Bloc states The book will be invaluable to students and scholars of Lithuania Soviet history and international political policy

Lithuania Thomas Lane, 2014-04-08 Lithuania restored her independence after half a century of Soviet occupation in the immediate aftermath of the failed Moscow coup in August 1991 As the multi national Soviet state disintegrated Lithuania evolved without war or violence from a communist state and a command economy to a liberal democracy a free market and a society guaranteeing human and minority rights Lithuania therefore offers a notable example of peaceful transition all the more impressive in the light of the bloody conflict elsewhere in the former Soviet Union of Yugoslavia where the aspirations to independence of the constituent republics were either violently resisted or dissolved into inter ethnic violence Equally remarkable has been Lithuania's determination to return to Europe after half a century of separation even at the price of submerging its recently restored sovereign rights in the supranational European Union The cost of membership in western economic and security organizations are judged to be worth paying to prevent Lithuania's being drawn once again into a putative Russian sphere of influence On the threshold of a new millennium therefore Lithuania has made a pragmatic accommodation to the demands of becoming a modern European state whilst vigorously resisting the dilution of her rich cultural and historical traditions These twin themes of accommodation and resistance are Lithuania's historical legacy to the current generations of Lithuanians as they integrate into European institutions and continue the modernization process

Lithuania 1940 Alfred Erich Senn, 2007-01-01 In June 1940 as Nazi troops marched into Paris the Soviet Red Army marched into Lithuania Latvia and Estonia seven weeks later the USSR Supreme Soviet ratified the Soviet takeover of these states For half a century Soviet historians insisted that the three republics had voluntarily requested incorporation into the Soviet Union Now it has become possible to examine the events of that tumultuous time more carefully Alfred Erich Senn the author of books on the formation of the Lithuanian state in 1918 1920 and on the reestablishment of that independence in 1988 1991 has produced a fascinating account of the Soviet takeover juxtaposing a picture of the disintegration and collapse of the old regime with the Soviets imposition of a new order. Discussing the historiography and the living memory of the events he uses the image of a shell game that focused attention on the work of a supposedly non communist government while in the hothouse conditions of military occupation Moscow undermined the state's independent institutions and introduced a revolution from above. New Lithuania in Old Hands Ida Harboe Knudsen, 2012. Based on detailed ethnographic material New Lithuania in Old Hands analyzes the impact that European Union accession has had upon the country's aging smallscale farmers and describes how the reality of Lithuania's EU membership has been a far cry from the scenarios of wealth and overabundance once promised. The text reveals that in many instances membership has resulted in a return to subsistence production, increased insecurity and a reinforcement of kinship obligations. Thus instead of treating the European Union as an elite project and voicing the support of various other segments of the population, this volume shows how broad parts of the rural population have been affected by and engaged in processes of change following Lithuania's accession, changes that threaten to have a large impact upon the future of the country's family structures and its farming demographic. Adventures in Lithuanian Genealogy Sheriene

Saadati, 2021-03-22. Through reviewing documents held for over a century in St Petersburg, Russia, DNA tests, the Facebook Lithuanian Genealogical Society, various genealogy websites and traveling to Lithuania, I have unraveled stories of my noble Lutkiewicz and Dowgwilllo ancestors who were born in the Grand Duchy of Lithuania, once the largest country in Europe. Over the centuries, my ancestors lived through Czarist Russian occupation, Napoleon's invasion, uprisings against occupation, Soviet and Nazi occupation and independence. At the turn of the 20th century, many ancestors, including my great grandparents, immigrated to the United States. This is a collection of their stories. Jews of Lithuania and Latvia Keith W. Relates the experiences of a young Baltic German in World War II during the resettlement of the Germans from Lithuania, the German occupation of Lithuania and the brutal Soviet occupation of Germany. Lithuanian Review, 1918. Our People Ruta Vanagaite, Efraim Zuroff, 2020-03-15. A famous Nazi hunter and a descendent of Nazi collaborators team up on a journey to uncover Lithuania's Holocaust secrets. This remarkable book traces the quest for the truth about the Holocaust in Lithuania by two ostensible enemies: Ruta, a descendant of the perpetrators; Efraim, a descendant of the victims. Ruta Vanagaite, a successful Lithuanian writer, was motivated by her recent discoveries that some of her relatives had played a role in the mass murder of Jews and that Lithuanian officials had tried to hide the complicity of local collaborators. Efraim Zuroff, a noted Israeli Nazi hunter, had both professional and personal motivations. He had worked for years to bring Lithuanian war criminals to justice and to compel local authorities to tell the truth about the Holocaust in their country. The facts that his maternal grandparents were born in Lithuania and that he was named for a great uncle who was murdered with his family in Vilnius, with the active help of Lithuanians, made his search personal as well. Our People exposes the significant role in implementing the Final Solution played by local political leaders and the prewar Lithuanian administration that remained in place during the Nazi occupation. It also tackles the sensitive issue of the motivation of thousands of ordinary Lithuanians who were complicit in the murder of their Jewish neighbors. At the heart of the book are the issues that Ruta and Efraim discuss, debate, and analyze as they crisscross the country to visit dozens of Holocaust mass murder sites in Lithuania and neighboring Belarus. This book follows them on their remarkable journey as they search for neglected graves, interview eyewitnesses, and uncover hints of the rich life that had existed in hundreds of Jewish communities throughout Lithuania.
