My Mothers Black Child:

Black Intimacies Shirley Ann Hill, 2005 In Black Intimacies A Gender Perspective on Families and Relationships Shirley A Hill applies a gender lens to the multiple systems of oppression that have shaped the lives of African American women and men She challenges the image of a monolithic black population a legacy of the civil rights movement that she argues is impossible to sustain in the postmodern era Through a critique of intersectionality theory Hill examines the ways in which gender has affected experiences of intimacy family relationships child rearing and motherhood for contemporary African Americans Drawing on ethnographic material interviews and scholarly research Hill s work rethinks the cultural and historical definitions of black identity and reconceptualizes the various forms of oppression faced by black women This book will be useful to students and instructors of African American Studies Gender Studies Sociology Anthropology Marriage and Family and Social Work

Mothers of Adult Children Marguerite Guzman Bouvard, 2013-09-12 Mothers of Adult Children elucidates what happens when children come of age and leave home creating new lives in the realms of work and relationships Mothers from around the world learn that this is the point in which their relationships with their children must drastically change Mothers often come to terms with the changes by accepting differences and providing moral and emotional support when needed However the evolutionary nature of mothers roles throughout the course of their children s lives is not only determined by the mother child dynamic The mothering of adult children is a transformative role and the stories presented here show that the dynamics between mother and child are also influenced by cultural events Accidents disasters war and other hardships also intervene in these stories of multicultural motherhood This book reveals the problems mothers of adult children face and celebrates the outstanding accomplishments of those who mother through hardship

Gender Through the Prism of Difference Maxine Baca Zinn, Pierrette

Hondagneu-Sotelo, Michael A. Messner, 2016 Gender Through the Prism of Difference adopts a global transnational perspective on how race class and sexual diversity are central to the study of sex and gender In contrast with other books in this area which tend to focus on U S or European viewpoints this wide ranging anthology features many articles based on research done elsewhere throughout the world Now in its fifth edition the book opens with a revised and updated Introduction that sets the stage for understanding gender as a socially constructed experience Featuring twenty eight new readings this edition covers compelling subjects like transgendered people intersex issues men and masculinity sexual and gender violence disabilities obesity reproductive technologies educational testing aging and ageism and Occupy Wall Street

Criminalizing Motherhood and Reproduction Michelle Hughes Miller, 2024-02-08 In this book motherhood and reproduction are identified as sites of legal political and ideological surveillance regulation and criminalization Collectively this rich and diverse edited volume builds on cross disciplinary frameworks and an attention to differences among mothers to analyze multiple ways that mothers and pregnant women face culture policy or practices that may criminalize their identities or their actions Several themes cross the volumes six chapters from the importance of and problems related to socialized expectations of what good mothers should do for incarcerated formerly incarcerated and never incarcerated mothers alike to the role of state actors and everyday informal interactions in enforcing these expectations particularly against marginalized Black Brown and young mothers in open air prisons Conflicts between motherhood ideologies and state control dominate many women under carceral motherhood Nation states are also implicated in these analyses particularly in the European Union where nation states outsource abortion across and within geopolitical borders making migration a contested strategy for pregnant women Yet despite the criminalizing of motherhood and reproduction described in the text women and mothers are also found to be resilient choosing their identities and their actions Criminalizing Motherhood and Reproduction will be a key resource for researchers scholars and practitioners in the fields of feminist criminology and motherhood studies criminology and criminal justice women s studies gender studies child and youth studies and sociology It was originally published as a special issue of Women Criminal Justice Centering Youth, Family, and Community in School Leadership Katherine C. Rodela, Melanie Bertrand, 2022-09-30 This timely book advances a new vision for educational justice centered on the leadership activities organizing efforts and counternarratives of youth parents families and communities of color and other groups who are seeking to transform local schools and communities across the United States Bringing together scholars activists and leaders this contributed volume presents cases and first person narratives for readers to analyze in order to interrogate inequities facing communities and schools By creating spaces for youth family and community leadership within schools and opening decision making to include their input leaders can support transformative justice oriented school change This book is a critical teaching tool asking educators and administrators to reflect learn and re imagine their practice and collaborate with other leaders in their communities Freedwomen and the Freedmen's Bureau Mary Farmer-Kaiser, 2010 Established by congress in early 1865 the Bureau of Refugees Freedmen and Abandoned Lands more commonly known as the Freedmen s Bureau assumed the Herculean task of overseeing the transition from slavery to freedom in the post Civil War South Although it was called the Freedmen s Bureau the agency profoundly affected African American women Until now remarkably little has been written about the relationship between black women and this federal government agency As Mary Farmer Kaiser clearly demonstrates in this revealing work by failing to recognize freedwomen as active agents of change and overlooking the gendered assumptions at work in Bureau efforts scholars have ultimately failed to understand fully the Bureau s relationships with freedwomen freedmen and black communities in this pivotal era of American history Walking This Path Together, 3rd Edition Gwendolyn Gosek, 2025-04-29T00:00:00Z Canadian child welfare policies and practices have been central to maintaining a settler colonial nation by controlling and managing the childhoods and future lives of children While ostensibly grounded in the best interests of the child child welfare policies and practices far too often make the lives of young people more precarious because they are stratified along race and class lines rather than caring for their wellbeing There have been dire consequences for Indigenous communities but also for Black newcomer non citizen and poor people who are also disproportionately the primary focus of child welfare The contributors to this book reveal these unjust conditions so that workers can contribute to the ongoing transformation of child welfare to facilitate child wellbeing The third edition of Walking This Path Together continues the transformative vision of the first two editions and charts a new way forward There are several new chapters and authors who focus on M tis kinship protocols family group conferencing decolonizing child welfare and the criminalization of newcomers refugee children and Indigenous youth in care They demonstrate how to bring forward transformative practices to moving child welfare into a truly new decolonial era This transformative vision is the path that we are walking Maternal Theory Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-07-08 Theory on mothers mothering and motherhood has emerged as a distinct body of knowledge within Motherhood Studies and Feminist Theory more generally This collection The Second Edition of Maternal Theory Essential Readings introduces readers to this rich and diverse tradition of maternal theory Composed of 60 chapters the 2nd edition includes two sections the first with the classic texts by Adrienne Rich Nancy Chodorow Sara Ruddick Alice Walker Barbara Katz Rothman bell hooks Sharon Hays Patricia Hill Collins Audre Lorde Daphne de Marneffe Judith Warner Patrice diQinizio Susan Maushart and many more The second section includes thirty new chapters on vital and new topics including Trans Parenting Non Binary Parenting Queer Mothering Matricentric Feminism Normative Motherhood Maternal Subjectivity Maternal Narratology Maternal Ambivalence Maternal Regret Monstrous Mothers The Migrant Maternal Reproductive Justice Feminist Mothering Feminist Fathering Indigenous Mothering The Digital Maternal The Opt Out Revolution Black Motherhoods Motherlines The Motherhood Memoir Pandemic Mothering and many more Maternal Theory is essential reading for anyone interested in motherhood as experience ideology and identity Black Mother Educators Tamba O. Jackson, 2021-02-01 Drawing upon the theoretical frameworks of Beauboeuf Lafontant 2002 Collins 2009 Crenshaw 1991 and Dillard 2012 this volume makes a case for centering the voices and experiences of Black women in the protection and educational uplift of Black children While examinations of how Black educators articulate and enact a need to protect Black students from racialized harm exist McKinney de Royston et al 2020 this book is a collection of autoethnographic narratives from Black mother educators who work at the intersections of their personal and professional identities to protect Black children Intersectionality allows us to look at the nexus of our identities in regards to race gender and occupation as Black women and educators Our goal for this volume was to bring together scholars who can support theorizing the intersectionality of our identities as Black mothers and educators particularly its influence on our pedagogical practices and the safekeeping of Black children This volume explicates stories of motherwork from Black mother educators whose professional spaces span K 12 to higher education contexts Collectivity this volume expounds upon the dimension of protector within the literature on Black women teachers The Mother Wave Andrea O'Reilly, Fiona Joy Green, 2024-09-01 Matricentric feminism seeks to make motherhood the business of feminism by positioning mothers needs and concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic on and for the empowerment of women as mothers Based on the conviction that mothering is a verb it understands that becoming and being a mother is not limited to biological mothers or cisgender women but rather to anyone who does the work of mothering as a central part of their life The Mother Wave the first ever book on the topic compellingly explores how mothers need a matricentric mode of feminism organized from and for their particular identity and work as mothers and because mothers remain disempowered despite sixty years of feminism The anthology makes visible the power of matricentric feminism as it is theorized enacted and represented to realize and achieve the subversive potential of mothers and their contributions to feminist theory and activism Contributors share the impact and influence of matricentric feminism on families and children culture art literature education public policy social media and workplace practices through personal reflections scholarly essays memoir creative non fiction poetry and photography The mother wave of matricentric feminism invites conversations with others and offers a praxis of feminism that aims to coexist overlap and intersect with others
