My Own My Countrys Time A Journalists Journey:

Always on the Other Side: A Journalist's Journey from Hitler to Howard's End Juergen Corleis, 2008-03 A Stranger's Journey David Mura, 2018 Long recognized as a master teacher at writing programs like VONA the Loft and the Stonecoast MFA with A Stranger's Journey David Mura has written a book on creative writing that addresses our increasingly diverse American literature Mura argues for a more inclusive and expansive definition of craft particularly in relationship to race even as he elucidates timeless rules of narrative construction in fiction and memoir His essays offer technique focused readings of writers such as James Baldwin ZZ Packer Maxine Hong Kingston Mary Karr and Garrett Hongo while making compelling connections to Mura's own life and work as a Japanese American writer In A Stranger's Journey Mura poses two central questions The first involves identity How is writing an exploration of who one is and one's place in the world Mura examines how the myriad identities in our changing contemporary canon have led to new challenges regarding both craft and pedagogy Here like Toni Morrison's Playing in the Dark or Jeff Chang's Who We Be A Stranger's Journey breaks new ground in our understanding of the relationship between the issues of race literature and culture The book's second central question involves structure How does one tell a story Mura provides clear insightful narrative tools that any writer may use taking in techniques from fiction screenplays playwriting and myth Through this process Mura candidly explores the newly evolved aesthetic principles of memoir and how questions of identity occupy a central place in contemporary memoir Political Journeys Fred Halliday, 2012-08-14 One of the great contrarians of international relations scholarship Fred Halliday was able to combine his understanding of the broad sweep of modern history with a profound knowledge of modern revolutions the Middle East and national movements This collection of Halliday's political essays written for the online journal openDemocracy between 2004 and 2009 is proof of a subtle worldview that continues to generate questions What is the relation between religion nationalism and progress Is a new international order possible When is intervention a force for progress From the big headline topics such as the Iraq War to the unexpected comparisons of Tibet and Palestine or Afghanistan and the Falklands Halliday's writings provide a perennially surprising and enlightened guide to the major issues of international politics John Clare's Guide to Media Handling John Clare, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 The media is an important influence on how a company or organization is perceived This is an insider's guide to media handling showing readers what needs to be done to achieve media success and offering them the tools to do it John Clare is a former ITN and Daily Mail journalist who is now a media and crisis consultant and here he shares his experience He offers an in depth examination of the different media sectors TV radio and print and how to make your stories relevant to them There is a detailed explanation of how a newsroom works based on different desks and deadlines and how to take advantage of these The different types of editorial pieces news and features are analyzed along with the circumstances in which you should target each The book includes coverage of the use of the Internet as a vehicle for news American Bookseller ,1983

Re-thinking Travel Writing Ben Stubbs, Lee Mylne, 2024-03-30 This book stems from the question that we as co authors grappled with for the past 3 plus years while in our own periods of stasis during the pandemic What place does the travel writing genre hold in a post COVID world With the massive interruptions to travel and travel writing across 2020 2023 as the pandemic forced us indoors and into isolation it also raised many other pertinent questions about the practice of and future of travel writing Part of the prompt for this book comes from the post pandemic assumption that in an ecologically fraught less mobile and more uncertain world there may not be a place for travel writing as we know it to exist in any meaningful way We examine the problems and solutions apparent for travel writing as it engages with a period of re thinking prompted by the pandemic though necessary for a plethora of other reasons as well As academics and travel writing practitioners with decades of experience in the field we offer a unique perspective on this topic as we have the in the field experience of professional travel writers and we have the academic grounding to better understand the history theoretical concerns and contradictions of the genre to provide a more in depth perspective to our travel writing colleagues This grounding allows us to access a unique and valuable perspective for Re thinking Travel Writing The Journey of a Genre for academics aspiring travel writers and contemporary colleagues in the field

A Chinese-American Exciting Journey Into the 21st Century

K. P. Wang, 2006 The book is written in three parts with Appendices Maps References and Photos The first is a story of myself and immediate family and the role we played in Chinese history The second covers my extended family and friends who have lived equally interesting lives The third delves into all the major aspects of China's economy resources industry and infrastructure etc present and future This section should interest most readers in business industry academic and government circles I even tried to highlight events from history geography philosophy religion education social welfare agriculture food supply ecology medicine performing arts tourism and sports to science and technology natural and human resources heavy industry four electricals transportation aerospace the military and light industry This book is much more than a memoir and deserves to be treated as textbook material

From Village Boy to Global Citizen (Volume 2): The Travels of a Journalist Shelton A. Gunaratne, 2012 The author describes and dramatizes the most memorable places visited often with accompanied family members since leaving the country of his birth in 1966 Author notes After my retirement in 2007 I found the time to compile this travelogue using the notes in my diaries and updating the material through online research with particular help from the constantly revised Wikipedia entries In this process I learned to make each travel essay an evergreen that would not perish soon after its publication as in the case of newspaper travel pieces Travel has shaped my personality Global travel to get to know culturally diverse people was one of my childhood ambitions Moreover travel is an essential aspect of a journalist's life Therefore my travels constitute a very important part of my autobiography I included detail in the hope that the reader would keep this volume for long term reference My explorations of U S national parks and my camping expeditions should be of particular interest to family oriented travelers
