Divine Foreknowledge and Human Freedom William Lane Craig, 1991 The ancient problem of fatalism more particularly theological fatalism has resurfaced with surprising vigour in the second half of the twentieth century Two questions predominate in the debate 1 Is divine foreknowledge compatible with human freedom and 2 How can God foreknow future free acts Having surveyed the historical background of this debate in The Problem of Divine Foreknowledge and Future Contingents from Aristotle to Suarez Brill 1988 William Lane Craig now attempts to address these issues critically His wide ranging discussion brings together a thought provoking array of related topics such as logical fatalism multivalent logic backward causation precognition time travel counterfactual logic temporal necessity Newcomb's Problem middle knowledge and relativity theory The present work serves both as a useful survey of the extensive literature on theological fatalism and related fields and as a stimulating assessment of the possibility of divine foreknowledge of future free acts

Singing the Psalms with My Son T. Wilson Dickinson, 2023-06-02 What will the future hold for our children In a time of looming climate catastrophe this question inspires anxiety fear and guilt In Singing the Psalms with My Son Wilson Dickinson charts a path where the practices of parenting lead to transformation and hope The everyday tasks of caring for children radiate with the alternative energy of creativity and cooperation If we learn from them our homes can become schools for movements of joy and justice rather than fortresses fearfully set against the world Dickinson turns to the Psalms for guidance on this journey The prayerful poetry of the Psalter gives us refuge where we can cry in lament while still joining creation in praising God With honesty humility and humor Dickinson weaves meditations on individual Psalms with reflections on life as a parent We accompany him and his son as they find the sacred and revolutionary possibility of ordinary activities like reading children s books playing in the backyard and celebrating holidays Coupled with guidance for personal and communal use these meditations invite us to harness the power of parental love and childish wonder to work for a hopeful future
