perceptions of the veil this volume shows that the meaning of hijab can be natural or constructed real or metaphorical and religious or political when it is presented through the media in the teachings of Islam and in upholding it as a national symbol of a nation state There are inherent tensions among the ideas concerning the power of hijab Does wearing it give agency to women or does it represent oppression thereby creating and perpetuating stereotypes How an individual sees their relationship with the self family and community and the nation state dictates their choice of whether to wear the veil In exploring the wide range of portrayals the editors pose critical questions about perceptions of the veil and the dangers of ignoring its multiplicity
