The Animal Game Daniel E. Bender, 2016-11-07 Tracing the global trade and trafficking in animals that supplied U S zoos Daniel Bender shows how Americans learned to view faraway places through the lens of exotic creatures on display He recounts the public s conflicted relationship with zoos decried as prisons by activists even as they remain popular centers of education and preservation The Social Life Of Monkeys And Apes S. Zuckerman, 2013-11-05 This is Volume IV of four in a collection on Comparative Psychology Originally published in 1932 this study is referred to as a classic in both historical terms and its usefulness in the study of primates The Social Life of Monkeys and Apes Solly Zuckerman, Solly Baron Zuckerman, 1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Friend, 1876 Double-wide Michael Martone, 2007 Collected early fiction of one of Indianas premier writers The Apes Vernon Reynolds, 1971 The mouse and her friends, with other stories John Edw Taylor, 1855 Homeless Dogs & Melancholy Apes Laura Brown, 2010 Brown shows how the literary works of the 18th century use animal kind to bring abstract philosophical ontological and metaphysical questions into the realm of everyday experience difference hierarchy intimacy diversity and transcendence Listening to the Unconscious Kenneth Smith, Stephen Overy, 2023-01-26 What happens in our unconscious minds when we listen to produce or perform popular music The Unconscious a much misunderstood concept from philosophy and psychology works through human subjects as we produce music and can be traced through the music we engage with Through a new collaboration between music theorist and philosopher Smith and Overy present the long history of the unconscious and its related concepts working systematically through philosophers such as Schopenhauer and Nietzsche psychoanalysts such as Freud and Lacan to theorists such as Deleuze and Kristeva The theories offered are vital to follow the psychological complexity of popular music demonstrated through close readings of individual songs albums artists genres and popular music practices Among countless artists Listening to the Unconscious draws from Prince to Sufjan Stevens from Robyn to Xiu Xiu from Joanna Newsom to Arcade Fire from PJ Harvey to LCD Sound System each of whom offer exciting inroads into the fascinating worlds of our unconscious musical minds And in return theories of the unconscious can perhaps takes us deeper into the heart of popular music Steal This Book Too! Sean Curtis, 2004-05 From Primitives to Primates David Van Reybrouck, 2012 Where do our images about early hominids come from In this fascinating in depth study David Van Reybrouck demonstrates how input from ethnography and primatology has deeply influenced our visions about the past from the 19th century to this day often far beyond the available evidence Victorian scholars were keen to look at contemporary Australian and Tasmanian aboriginals to understand the enigmatic Neanderthal fossils Likewise today s primatologists debate to what extent bonobos baboons or chimps may be regarded as stand ins for early human ancestors The belief that the contemporary world provides living links still goes strong Such primate models Van Reybrouck argues continue the highly problematic comparative method of the Victorian times He goes on to show how the field of ethnoarchaeology has succeeded in circumventing the major pitfalls of such analogical reasoning A truly interdisciplinary study this work shows how scholars working in different fields can effectively improve their methods for interpreting the deep past by understanding the historical challenges of adjacent disciplines

Overviewing two centuries of intellectual debate in fields as diverse as archaeology ethnography and primatology Van Reybrouck s book is one long plea for trying to understand the past on its own terms rather than as facile projections from the present David Van Reybrouck Bruges 1971 was trained as an archaeologist at the universities of Leuven Cambridge and Leiden Before becoming a highly successful literary author The Plague Mission Congo he worked as a historian of ideas For more than twelve years he was co editor of Archaeological Dialogues In 2011 12 he held the prestigious Cleveringa Chair at the University of Leiden

Primate Visions Donna J. Haraway, 2013-01-11 Haraway s discussions of how scientists have perceived the sexual nature of female primates opens a new chapter in feminist theory raising unsettling questions about models of the family and of heterosexuality in primate research

Ape John Sorenson, 2009-10-15 Apes to look at them is to see a mirror of ourselves Our close genetic relatives fascinate and unnerve us with their similar behavior and social personality Here John Sorenson delves into our conflicted relationship to the great apes which often reveal

Poetry of the Fifth Ape Ardi Krum, 2020-11-19 Ardi Krum wrote poetry to express emotions and thoughts during her years of earnestly seeking God A God who through a congregation of evangelicals she grew to fear yet sincerely begged for his love Her inquisitive mind needed answers concerning doctrine yet the church demanded a life based solely on faith and questions were discouraged So even with the threat of a wrathful God Ardi began reaching outside her circle to professors and scholars Ardi encountered people who could answer her questions based on scientific facts Over time both the stories and the poetry change from a defeated young woman pleading with a deity for acceptance to a woman brazenly stepping outside the shadow of the cross Through an unquenchable thirst for answers supported by facts you see the transformation from a humiliated fallen angel to a primate rising up and awakening as the Fifth Ape

An Askew View John Kenneth Muir, 2002-09 Looks at the films of Kevin Smith tracing their characters controversy over the language and content themes and critical reception

The Archetype of the Ape-Man Dawn Prince-Hughes, 2001 This interdisciplinary dissertation explores the archetype of the ape man from a phenomenological perspective with its genesis and present continuation dependent on extant and accreted human behavior and morphology In order to ascertain the embedded components of the ape man archetype an identikit ape man as a discrete phenomenon is derived after the examination of cross cultural examples world wide Next this discrete phenomenon and its constituent parts are compared both to extant ape species behavior and morphology and the paleoanthropological evidence to determine in what ways if any components of each are reflected accurately in the phenomenon Utilizing concepts in the fields of cultural and physical anthropology ethology psychology and philosophy this dissertation asserts as its conclusion that the archetype of the ape man is a result of accreted and enacted collective memories and reflects an important phenomenon integral to human thought and form
