MY GRANDDAUGHTERS ARE COMBING
OUT THEIR LONG HAIR

my granddaughters are combing out their long hair sitting at night on the rocks in Venezuela they have watched their babes falling like white birds from the last of the treetop cradles they have buried them in their hearts where they will never forget to keep on singing them the old songs.

brought down to earth they use twigs, flint scrapers;
acadian their laughter underground makes the thyme
flower in darkness,

my granddaughters are thin as fishbones & hornfooted, but they are always beautiful under the stars: like little asian paperthings they seem to open outwards into their own waterbowl.

mornings they waken to light's chink ricocheting off an old Black's Harbour sardinecan.

reduce them the last evangelines make them part of the stars.

my granddaughters are coming out at night, combing their burr-colored hair, by the rocks & streamtrickle in Venezuela, they are burnt out as falling stars but they laugh and keep on singing them the old songs.

Lorraine Loewen Isaak, 2022-05-26 In my early years I felt sadness in my Grandpa Grisch it seemed to cling to him What feelings could not do however was give me greater understanding into his inner world Unknown to me family had stored close to one hundred letters for over thirty years and these would pass into my hands the summer of 2019 Once transcribed from German into English these letters exposed the truth of what Grisch had carried over his lifetime and confirm what I felt but did not know The reader will bear witness as Grisch did of his family's disorientation trauma and loss that would take them to Kazakhstan and Paraguay while he lived a simple life on a small farm in Steinbach Manitoba Canada Despite their separation whether in years or experience Grisch would never shake off a longing for what had been familiar a place to call home Land of Black Clay Jose Louzeiro, 2000 Land of Black Clay takes place largely in the rural township of Sapir a town in the northeast Brazilian state of Paraiba many hundreds of miles north northeast of Rio de Janeiro The main character Jorge Elias is a newspaper reporter from Rio de Janeiro who is assigned to cover a news story in Sapir A judge Odilon Fernandes has reopened the case of a farmworker union organizer whose murder local landowners ordered The initial investigation into the murder was perfunctory but now the possibility of justice is given a second chance Land of Black Clay is a political adventure novel reminiscent of the material from which such Costa Gavras movies as Z and Missing were made Though this is a work of fiction such union leaders as Joo Pedro Teixeira and Margarida Maria Alves actually lived The land barons and their friends are fictional as are the events themselves Boson Books also offers a translation of Childhood of the Dead by Jose Louzeiro For an author bio and photo reviews and a reading sample visit bosonbooks.com EXPERIENCE OF ELDERLY PEOPLE IN NEPAL Purna Bahadur Thapa, 2020-10-01 Living longer is regarded as a triumph of human development Progress in health services has brought noticeable increase in life expectancy and a reduction in mortality and fertility rate In general wrinkled faces and sags weak bones and changes in appearances manifest old age In Nepal by and large old age has been understood largely from the physical dimension thus there is wider belief that in old age people are frail and weak The main purpose of this research is to explore perceptions and practices on old age To explore this I have employed an interpretative research paradigm and qualitative approach with purposive sampling method The major findings of the study show that security concerns of old age have yet to get adequate attention from family members society and government The elderly people have mixed opinions on their age few consider that old age has brought lots of knowledge experience and skills so they are resourceful whereas others assert themselves as utterly dependent on family and helpless Interestingly it also reveals that longevity has provided an opportunity to ponder upon life and death and they tend to chase more spiritual gatherings and functions This study also reveals the mounting generational gaps emerging in the families The Barber's Granddaughter, and a Preacher's Kid Carolyn O'Neal Douglas, 2012-11-30 In the early eighties fed up with ten years of infidelity from an abusive husband Cece and her five children left Arkansas running for their lives They would soon find that the fast paced California life of drugs gangs ghetto living and prison would be equally as painful as what they left behind Her story is one of survival choices and consequences and finally finding redemption after years of making the wrong choices the only way of life but not a good way and not a good life This is a demonstration that an about face turnaround can be made but only if the desire is sincere The journey of this family witnesses the Amazing Grace saga of generational curses that are bound on earth as they are bound in Heaven Become a part of a mother s conscious desire and need to change the course and quality of her life by aligning her choices with the will of God This is a must read book Va Ya Con Dios!
