The Horses of the Sahara Eugène Daumas, 2014-01-13 The Arabs created one of the world s finest breeds of saddle horses the Arabian and they have long possessed an immense store of knowledge regarding the care training and breeding of this splendid horse In the nineteenth century General Melchior Joseph Eugene Daumas had access to their knowledge even though as he pointed out it requires a great deal of patience and tact for a Christian to obtain from the Mohammedans even the most insignificant of details General Daumas was because of his unique relationship with the Arabs probably the first European to produce a comprehensive study of Arabian horses And to add even greater value to The Horses of the Sahara he was able to secure for the ninth edition here translated extended commentaries on all aspects of Arabian horsemanship by the Emir Abd el Kadar one of the most important nineteenth century Arab leaders and certainly one of the foremost authorities on the subject The Horses of the Sahara will be of interest not only to equestrians but also to historians and other scholars interested in the customs of the North African desert tribes and in the complex backgrounds of European North African relations General Daumas took part in the conquest of Algeria by France so distinguishing himself that he was named Director of the Bureau of Algerian Affairs in the French Ministry of War During the campaigns and the occupation that followed he studied and attempted to understand the native peoples with an objectivity and sympathy unusual among the colonialists of the period His book provides fascinating sidelights on many aspects of Arab life including customs superstitions religion and family life Sheila M Ohlendorf was uniquely suited to translate The Horses of the Sahara An excellent rider herself thoroughly experienced with the animals and the techniques being discussed she also spoke fluent French having received her B A degree in languages from Texas Western University now the University of Texas at El Paso As curator of the Hall of the Horsemen the large collection at the University of Texas at Austin she had access to a wide variety of supplementary authorities which enriched both her translation and the notes that accompany the book The Horses of the Sahara and the Manners of the Desert Eugène Daumas, 1863 A Song for the Horses Kip Hutchins, 2025-10-21 As permafrost in Siberia continues to melt and the steppe in the Gobi turns to desert people in Mongolia are faced with overlapping climate crises Some nomadic herders describe climate change as the end of a world They are quick to add that the world has ended before for Indigenous people in North Asia as waves of colonialism have left the steppe with a complicated web of apocalypses A Song for the Horses by K G Hutchins examines cases in which people respond to the pressures of climate change by drawing on cultural heritage to foster social resiliency Hutchins s ethnographic research spanning more than a decade provides a vivid and intimate portrayal of Mongolian life Musicians use the morin khuur or horse fiddle to engage with the subjectivities and agencies of nonhuman animals and other beings This work is a significant contribution to the posthuman turn in social sciences engaging with theories from prominent scholars such as Donna Haraway and Anna Tsing As climate change continues to impact communities worldwide this book offers a unique perspective on how cultural heritage can be mobilized to address environmental challenges providing valuable lessons for global efforts to build sustainable and resilient futures At the intersection of music environment and posthumanism A Song for the Horses shows how Mongolian musicians use cultural traditions to imagine and build toward alternative futures beyond climate change and neoliberalism The Horses of Sierra Leone Leeland Shelly Nash, 2023-05-18 In this gripping and painful memoir Leeland Shelly Nash recounts her first tour of duty as a UN military observer in Sierra Leone while the country transitions from a brutal civil war to the election of a new government As if acclimating to the stresses of her first overseas deployment in a country that is still on the brink of implosion is not enough she must also contend with gender discrimination and covert actions by someone seeking her repatriation back to Canada for reasons beyond simple sexism Having engaged in similar struggles throughout her military career she refuses to back down While forced to second guess the next actions of her comrades she strives to continue to do her job and make a difference to the people around her in the mission and to find hope in the midst of her discouraging environment The Happiest Horse Part I the Basics , Winston County, Alabama Files From The Southern Claims Commission Robin
