Devon Spencer, Katherine Willis Pershey, 2025-07-29 Love Letters to God is an intensely personal and deeply theological book of epistles between two dear friends. The authors hail from different backgrounds in faith, family, and life circumstances but find common ground in their devotion to Christ, Christianity, and each other. The letters chronicle a year in the life of this friendship, marked by fervent faith and bouts of unbelief, suffering and rejoicing, death, loss, and baptism, and the sanctification of a friendship. The tone is at once literary and personal, peppered as much with theological references as unrefined vulnerability, and speaks to all who cherish their faith and their friends.

Bearing Witness Daniel Lee Hill, 2025-04-22 In an era when the label evangelical is hotly contested and often entangled with political agendas, Daniel Lee Hill's Bearing Witness offers a timely reexamination of what it means to live out the gospel in public life. Drawing on the rich legacy of nineteenth-century abolitionists David Ruggles, Maria W. Stewart, and William Still, Hill constructs a compelling evangelical framework for public witness anchored in Scripture and the practice of lament and burden-bearing. Hill challenges evangelicals to rediscover their roots in a tradition that speaks powerfully to contemporary debates over church culture and the call to social justice. Bearing Witness will be an indispensable guide for professors, students, pastors, and laypeople committed to a faith that speaks to the public square.

Exalting Jesus in John Matt Carter, Josh Wredberg, 2017-11-01 Exalting Jesus in John is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this new commentary series, projected to be 48 volumes, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books. Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a Reflect/President/Shepherds/Theological Seminary/Cary North Carolina/Matt and Joshua provide an excellent resource on John's Gospel. With a clear outline of content, a concise purpose for writing, and a faithful handling of the text as it points to Jesus, the authors give the reader a valuable resource for study and preaching. They herald a clear message to remind the reader: The gospel is the good news that you no longer have to wander about in the darkness and despair of sin, but you can enjoy the light of righteousness through Jesus Christ. p. 27 I commend this commentary as it will prove beneficial for many for years to come.

Lane Harrison D. Min, lead pastor, LifePoint Church, Ozark, Missouri. The Gospel of John has no shortage of commentaries, raising the obvious question: what sets this one apart from all the others? The unique contribution of Matt Carter's work is rooted in his personal profile. Carter is both a highly successful church planter and long-tenured pastor who has built and led a large church through text-driven preaching. A church holding forth the truth in the heart of one of the most socially liberal cities in the country. A church that has multiplied itself many times over through planting new churches in their own city and in some of the most difficult countries on the planet. As a trustworthy twenty-first-century pastor-theologian, Carter has not only produced a commentary but a sermon and bible study starter for preachers and teachers seeking to accurately interpret

Learn how to uncover your unmet God-given longings and satisfy them in ways that lead away from brokenness toward spiritual wholeness. Many people today are struggling with unprecedented levels of anxiety, hurt, doubt, guilt, and shame. In Free to Thrive, Josh McDowell and Ben Bennett invite you on a journey of healing and will teach you how to overcome unwanted behaviors by engaging your unmet longings. With a blend of hard-won wisdom, compassion, and youthful energy, they present Biblical teaching, up-to-date neuroscientific research, time-tested principles, personal stories of deliverance from addictions and unwanted behavior, practical tools, opportunities, and questions for deeper reflection and self-evaluation. No matter what you are struggling with, it is possible to experience the spiritual, emotional, and relational wholeness that God wants you to have and live the thriving life you were made for. Joy in the Sorrow Matt Chandler, 2019-09-27. A moving, compelling, hope-filled book that will bolster your faith in times of trial. We all wonder how we will cope in times of terrible suffering and how we can best support others who are suffering. And we all ask the question: how does suffering square with God's character and purpose? As a young pastor, Matt Chandler knew he needed to learn how to help hurting people. He studied the Scriptures and he learned from people at the Village Church who remained joyful in their suffering. And then suddenly he was having to live what he'd learned. This is the moving story of Matt's battle with a potentially fatal brain tumor. But it's also the stories of those who taught him and teach him how to walk with joy in sorrow. This book will make you cry, laugh, and worship God. And you will see how you can live with joy when times of sorrow come and how you can support others going through tough times.
