Dawn, 2014-09-04 Two sisters bound by love and courage continue their oh so familiar conversations regardless of being separated between the paths of life and death This is a true story of two deaths and one life which has proven that the bonds of love do exist beyond the grave After the sudden death of Angela s mother and shortly thereafter her sister Angela refused to believe that she had lost them forever She set off on a journey in search of the truth Her mother and sister guided and supported her as she discovered a world of existence in the afterlife They speak about their life in heaven about God the Creator the universe mankind the reason for living and the soul s purpose The discovery and understanding that Angela experienced brought much comfort in a time of grief Join Angela as she is taken on a journey in which she unravels the truth the truth of life My Journey Itana Gamada, 2025-08-13 For the Press Release In My Journey From Rural Bred Childhood to an Ardent Oromo Nationalist Itana Gamada shares his incredible life story from his humble beginnings in a small Oromo village to becoming an influential figure in the global Oromo nationalist movement In this deeply personal memoir Itana provides a unique perspective on the political and social issues that shaped his homeland Oromia and recounts his own experiences as a leader in organizations like the Union of Oromo Students in North America UONA and the Oromo Liberation Front OLF With a focus on the resilience of the Oromo people the book offers readers both a touching personal history and an insightful look at the broader struggle for Oromo self determination My Journey stands as a powerful testament to the unyielding pursuit of freedom and human rights making it a must read for those interested in personal narratives of political activism and national liberation

The Friend ,1900 Shadow Daughter Harriet Brown,2018-11-06 A riveting provocative and ultimately hopeful exploration of mother daughter estrangement woven with research and anecdotes from an award winning journalist The day of her mother s funeral Harriet Brown was five thousand miles away For years they d gone through cycles of estrangement and connection drastic blow ups and equally dramatic reconciliations By the time her mother died at seventy six they hadn t spoken at all in several years Her mother s death sent Brown on a journey of exploration one that considered guilt and trauma rage and betrayal and forgiveness Shadow Daughter tackles a subject we rarely discuss as a culture Family estrangements between parents and children siblings multiple generations are surprisingly common and even families that aren t officially estranged often have some experience of deep conflicts Despite the fact that the issue touches most people one way or another estrangement is still shrouded in secrecy stigma and shame We simply don t talk about it and that silence can make an already difficult situation even harder Brown tells her story with clear eyed honesty and hard won wisdom she also shared interviews with others who are estranged as well as the most recent research on this taboo topic Ultimately Shadow Daughter is a thoughtful provocative and deeply researched exploration of the ties that bind and break forgiveness reconciliation and what family really means

Demorest's Monthly Magazine ,1874 Undone: My Path Home Rose Northfield,2015-02-05 The world around me is dark and bitter I know that my walk is not straight My veins are sore and broken My hands tremble and my head is fogged with misery and death Ive lost my hope my faith and my way Ive been blinded by the darkness I cant find the light Revelation of my iniquity causes tears to well up in my eyes blurring my vision But then something starts to happen with the tears They begin to purify my sight I look up at the sky as the clouds start to dissipate and the sun peaks through with its long warm rays touching my inner core building within it the strength of true existence My veins begin to heal and strengthen the blood once again flowing through them with courageous life As I wake up I am able to see the world around me the life and the death The death is like a lethal smog existing within our atmosphere patiently awaiting its next victim Whereas there is a fresh clear rushing waterfall that brings life to all who choose to dwell along it That is where I found my home and I will not turn away from it again I cried out I am slipping but your unfailing love O Lord supported me Psalm 94 18 NLT
