My Little African King:

An Index to African-American Spirituals for the Solo Voice Kathleen A. Abromeit, 1999-01-30 Spirituals were an intrinsic part of the African American plantation life and were sung at all important occasions and events This volume is the first index of African American spirituals to be published in more than half a century and will be an important research tool for scholars and students of African American history and music The first collection of slave songs appeared in 1843 without musical notation in a series of three articles by a Methodist Church missionary identified simply as c Collections that included musical notation began appearing in the 1850s The earliest book length collection of spirituals containing both lyrics and music was published in 1867 and entitled Slave Songs of the United States Not since the 1930s with the publication of the Index to Negro Spirituals by the Cleveland Public Library has an index of spirituals been compiled The spirituals are neatly organized in four indexes a title index first line index alternate title index and a topical index that includes twenty major categories A bibliography of indexed sources serves as a guide for further research My Little Black Book William J. Barnes, 1999-10 My Calvary Road Roy Hession, 2011-07-14 Roy Hession's The Calvary Road has sold millions of copies and has been translated into over forty languages My Calvary Road tells the personal side of the story of one man's spiritual journey on the road to righteousness learning what it means to be open to God's purpose An evangelist who in his lifetime was well known on both sides of the Atlantic Hession recounts how revival came to his personal life and ministry With utter frankness he tells how he was blessed by failure his life a demonstration of the true grace of God

Magical Realism in West African Fiction Brenda Cooper, 2012-10-12 This study contextualizes magical realism within current debates and theories of postcoloniality and examines the fiction of three of its West African pioneers Syl Cheney Coker of Sierra Leone Ben Okri of Nigeria and Kojo Laing of Ghana Brenda Cooper explores the distinct elements of the genre in a West African context and in relation to a range of global expressions of magical realism from the work of Gabriel Garcia Marquez to that of Salman Rushdie wider contemporary trends in African writing with particular attention to how the realism of authors such as Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka has been connected with nationalist agendas This is a fascinating and important work for all those working on African literature magical realism or postcoloniality The Color of Smoke Menyhert Lakatos, 2015-08-11 FOR THE FIRST TIME IN ENGLISH a timeless tribute to one of the world's most marginalized peoples and the riveting tale of one boy's journey to manhood Sweeping us into the world of the roma as fascism gathers force and the Holocaust looms on the horizon The Color of Smoke is a thoroughly absorbing story that abounds in unforgettable characters There is the adolescent narrator torn between his people and a society that both entices him and rejects him From his rise in school to his first sexual encounters from hunger to police harassment he treads a precarious path one marked by moments of beauty and poignancy along with bawdiness violence and high adventure And we come to know a people bound as much by a rich moral fabric as by the land and by the horses they love By an author who himself came of age in a Romani settlement during World War II The Color of Smoke is a must read for anyone seeking a stunningly new authoritative window onto the lives of the dispossessed with haunting implications for today Magisterial in scope and yet intensely personal it combines beautiful prose with profound reflections on the human condition as only great literature can From the Trade Paperback edition The Pulse of Black America at My Fingertips Cara Pearson,2001-11 The book is adapted from an online email forum dialogue Topics includes interracial relationships Jesse Jackson Election 2000 KKK etc Discussions takes a closer look at America in Black White Excerpt I date white women exclusively Well I should say non African American women exclusively So I guess I m what you call a sell out Why Excerpt 2 Are there any true black Republicans And if the answer is yes then WHY I cannot and will not ever understand why any minority would vote for Bush And why any minority would support him It s also no different why Jesse Helms continues to win in the state of North Carolina Will the real Uncle Tom please stand up Excerpt 3 Venus Williams success on the tennis courts is no less impressive than some of our male athletes in different sports but we don t seem to give her the same esteem The Book of Knowledge Arthur Mee,1911 Happy Days ,1916 Children and Youth Speak for Themselves Heather Beth Johnson,2010-03-23 The volume is a collection of articles from scholars who pay particular attention to children and or adolescents voices interpretations perspectives and experiences within specific social and cultural contexts Contributions include research stemming from a broad spectrum of methodological and theoretical orientations The Little Black Princess: A True Tale of Life in the Never-Never Land Jeannie Gunn,2023-11-11 Jeannie Gunn s The Little Black Princess A True Tale of Life in the Never Never Land is a captivating narrative that delves into the relationship between a European woman and an Indigenous Australian girl in the remote Australian outback Gunn s literary style is characterized by vivid descriptions of the harsh yet beautiful landscape as well as sensitive portrayals of the cultural clashes and misunderstandings that occur in this setting The book is a significant contribution to Australian literature offering readers a glimpse into the complexities of race relations and colonialism during the early 20th century Jeannie Gunn also known as Mrs Aeneas Gunn was a pioneering author who drew inspiration from her own experiences living in the Australian outback Her firsthand knowledge of the challenges and triumphs of life in the bush shines through in this novel making it a powerful and authentic portrayal of a bygone era I highly recommend The Little Black Princess to readers interested in Australian literature colonial history and cross cultural relationships Gunn s thoughtful exploration of identity belonging and empathy makes this book a compelling and thought provoking read for anyone interested in issues of diversity and inclusion African Women's Histories in European Narratives Yolanda Aixelà-Cabré,2025-06-12 Little is known about the African women who came to Europe from the 1870s onwards nor do we dare to imagine them as wealthy elegantly dressed individuals with refined tastes and fluent in several languages The Krio Fernandino represented a multisited multilocal transnational transcontinental and Afropolitan community that lived between Africa and Europe from the late 19th century onwards This book explains how the Krio

Fernandino and particularly their women transcended the barriers of race and gender in colonial Africa and in Spain Aixel Cabr highlights a fascinating journey across cultures and continents unearthing a compelling narrative of African women s empowerment in their home continent and in Catalonia This research highlights a women s history that resonates on regional national and transcontinental levels a genuine Euro African and Afro European legacy to be preserved for future generations

Beyond Idol Worship! Fumi Stephanie Ogunleye Hancock,2007-06 Part autobiography and part inspirational journey this work describes how to be delivered from oppression depression and bondage and addiction of any kind through God Motivation All the King's Men Robert Penn Warren,2006 A dynamic backwoods lawyer battles his way into the governor s mansion where he uses his unprincipled charm to become a brutal dictator An Anthology of Interracial Literature Werner Sollors,2004-02 This anthology explores the literary theme of black white encounters of love and family stories that cross or are crossed by what came to be considered racial boundaries Harper's Young People ,1885 Taming the Storm Jack Bass,2002-12-01 Thrust into the center of a raging storm over civil rights Frank M Johnson Jr was the youngest federal judge in the country at the time of his appointment in 1955 During his twenty four years on the district court in Montgomery Alabama Johnson handed down a string of precedent setting decisions that were vastly unpopular at the time but that would prove to have profound consequences for America s future Not only did Johnson s trailblazing opinions greatly expand the access of African Americans to their constitutional rights but his opinions also helped to dismantle discrimination against women prison inmates and the mentally ill Johnson paid a heavy price for his judicial vision however for he had to endure public scorn death threats and the outrage of a society that felt itself and its values to be under siege Eventually Johnson prevailed winning honor even in his native Alabama and a respected place in the history of the civil rights movement Taming the Storm is the story of an authentic American hero and the era he did so much to define The Boundaries of Freedom Brodwyn Fischer,Keila Grinberg,2023-08-17 This carefully curated collection of essays opens the vibrant field of Brazilian slavery and abolition studies to English language readers J. A. Rogers Louis J. Parascandola,2023-08-31 No man living has revealed so many important facts about the Negro race as has Rogers wrote W E B DuBois Indeed as Henry Louis Gates Jr contends J A Rogers was often the only source for an ordinary Black person to learn of their history from the 1920s through the 1970s Now Louis J Parascandola makes available an accessible collection of Rogers s writings for a new generation Joel Augustus Rogers was born in Negril Jamaica in the late nineteenth century where although his father was a teacher he received only basic education Rogers emigrated to the United States and studied at the Art Institute of Chicago while working as a Pullman porter He later took up journalism and moved to New York for better opportunities writing for papers and journals published by the likes of Marcus Garvey W E B DuBois and H L Mencken While working with the Pittsburgh Courier he was assigned to cover the Italo Ethiopian War 1935 1937 becoming the first American Black foreign war correspondent His column for the Courier became vital to the Black middle class conveying stories of Black achievements and relating a distinguished history that imparted knowledge and pride He continued this work with his books 100 Amazing Facts about the Negro with Complete Proof the two volume The World s Great People of Color 3000 B C to 1946 A D and the novel From Superman to Man This engaging collection represents the wide range of Rogers s work across time and demonstrates his intellectual philosophy J A Rogers Selected Writings is required reading for anyone interested in Black nationalism Black journalism Black literature and Pan African culture and identity Tell This in My Memory Eve M. Troutt Powell, 2012-11-14 In the late nineteenth century an active slave trade sustained social and economic networks across the Ottoman Empire and throughout Egypt Sudan the Caucasus and Western Europe Unlike the Atlantic trade slavery in this region crossed and mixed racial and ethnic lines Fair skinned Circassian men and women were as vulnerable to enslavement in the Nile Valley as were teenagers from Sudan or Ethiopia Tell This in My Memory opens up a new window in the study of slavery in the modern Middle East taking up personal narratives of slaves and slave owners to shed light on the anxieties and intimacies of personal experience The framework of racial identity constructed through these stories proves instrumental in explaining how countries later confronted or not the legacy of the slave trade Today these vocabularies of slavery live on for contemporary refugees whose forced migrations often replicate the journeys and stigmas faced by slaves in the nineteenth century Here to Complete Dr. King's Dream Lillian Cohen Kovar, 1996 This is an ethnographic study of an inner city college spanning two decades after the institution of open admission in 1970 Its students are predominantly African American and Hispanic though increasing numbers come from countries throughout the developing world These first generation college students many of them beyond customary college age come to school encumbered with the burdens of poverty minority status and inadequate early schooling Their teachers in 1990 recall with nostalgia and anguish the metamorphosis of the college during the decades of the 1970s and the 1980s This book deals directly with the most crucial policy issue confronting the community college today what is to be its mission As the latest entrant to higher education the community college now claims one half of all new matriculants and most minorities An evaluation of its triumphs and failures is in order
