revelatory confessional of a seventeen year old girl's fight to escape a kidnapper and her struggles to connect with loved ones and a life that no longer exists Seven months That's how long I was kept captive Locked in a room with a bed refrigerator and adjoining bathroom I was instructed to eat bathe and behave I received meals laundered clothes and toiletries through a cat door never knowing if it was day or night The last time I saw the face of my abductor was when he dragged me fighting from the trunk of his car My only solace was Mason one of the other kidnapped teens and our pact to one day escape together But when that day finally came I had to leave him behind Now that I'm home my parents and friends want everything to be like it was before I left But they don't understand that dining out and shopping trips can't heal what's broken inside me I barely leave my bedroom Therapists are clueless and condescending So I start my own form of therapy but writing about my experience awakens uncomfortable memories ones that should've stayed buried When I ask the detectives assigned to my case about Mason I get an answer I don't believe that there were no traces of any other kidnapped kids But I distinctly remember the screams holding hands with Mason through a hole in my wall and sharing a chocolate bar I don't believe he wasn't really there and I'm determined to find him How far will I have to go to uncover the truth of what happened and will it break me forever
