Schneider,2016-03-08 So many mothers feel like something is out of joint something is missing and maybe the truth is that we re all just missing each other C J Schneider found herself in the middle of a perfect storm after giving birth to her third child and moving to a new neighborhood Conditions for misery and postpartum depression were ideal she was isolated lonely and exhausted with three young children at home As she started talking with other mothers she realized that she was not alone in her experience of feeling alone In her unique voice Schneider intelligently and compassionately offers practical advice on how to create the essential community that mothers need Given the many examples of communal mothering from the past and around the world as well as modern examples of communities in which mothers are thriving the research is clear since the beginning of womankind mothering has been a communal effort Mothers of the Village affirms that as mothers connect with each other and learn to work with each other despite the challenges they may find a piece of themselves that they have felt missing all along Living Without Love Florence Lamm Coustier,2002 Florence Coustier grew up with an emotionally needy mother four teasing brothers and an alcoholic father who sexually abused her Her mother believed Florence was retarded after delivering her two months premature weighing less than three pounds Florence grew up believing that she was naturally stupid and received little attention or help from the educational system Florence left home and moved to California in her early thirties To stop her mother s constant pleas to return home Florence married Henry Coustier To Florence s disappointment Henry had no idea as to any of the needs his wife might have In her book Florence seeks answers to her never ending fear of any man who showed an interest in her and why she so longed to be loved It wasn t until she was in her fifties that Florence finally discovered to her great surprise her resilient independent and intelligent self Poor but Rich Melvyn Louis,2010-08-27 My life has been an interesting journey I have traveled all over the world met many people done many things and most of the time I was happy Although to be perfectly honest there were many times when suicide seemed like the best answer During those times Im sure it was my faith in God that pulled me through I am a strong believer in God I am not a person who goes to church haven't been to church in many a year except for weddings and funerals but I do believe in God and prayer Now if you would like to share some of my experiences with me just hold on I will tell all and hope you enjoy the story of my life with my sisters as I remember
