My Mum Is Lost:

How I Lost My Mother Leslie Swartz, 2021-03 How I Lost My Mother is a deeply felt account of the relationship between a mother and son and an exploration of what care for the dying means in contemporary society The book is emotionally complex funny sad and angry but above all heartfelt and honest It speaks boldly of challenges faced by all of us challenges which are often not spoken about and hidden but which deserve urgent attention This is first and foremost a work of the heart a reflection on what relationships mean and should mean There is much in the book about relationships of care and exploitation in southern Africa and about white Jewish identity in an African context But despite the specific and absorbing references to places and contexts the book offers a broader more universal view All parents of adult children and all adults who have parents alive or have lost their parents will find much in this book to make them laugh cry think and feel

The Lost Parents N. Bridges, 2012-12-26 The Lost Parents is a collection of real life stories describing what it means to experience the loss of a close bond within a parent child relationship These interviews are about ordinary people revealing how an absent parent has shaped their personal journey and how these changes affected their lives as adults The circumstances recorded explain relationships divorce prison long term illness bereavement and abuse The men and women featured come from a variety of culturally different backgrounds The most important aspect of these retold accounts is that there is no formula or rule to follow The purpose they serve is to share these everyday tales which so often hold people in a state of disappointment and unhappiness The messages these stories have in common is that each one tells of how these individuals have found courage to move their lives forward from a place of abandonment and loss

The Lost Mother Anne Summers, 2010 My mother had just turned ten in mid 1933 when a young woman approached her as they were both leaving Mass at St Joan of Arc s in Brighton The woman was an artist and she would like to paint her portrait After her mother s death in 2005 Anne Summers inherits a portrait of her mother as a child Mesmerised by this image she finds herself drawn into the story of how the portrait was painted and eventually found its way into her family She soon learns the artist painted another portrait of her mother this time as the Madonna In a gripping narrative that is part art history part detective story and part meditation on the relations between mothers and daughters Anne s search for the Madonna painting and the mysterious Russian migr collector who bought both paintings takes her down unexpected paths Her search soon turns into a parallel quest to rescue Constance Stokes the artist from obscurity and to learn why the collector suddenly abandoned the paintings Along the way Anne finds she must face the truth of the relationship she had with her mother In turn hypnotic and moving The Lost Mother is a powerful exploration of art loss and love
