Sweeney, 1990 This reference book is intended for use primarily by a scholar or an educator studying the lives roles and histories of women in America However the younger student or general reader may find this book useful to identify interesting materials for reports or reading Pref Italian Americana , 1986 Enacting the Presidency Edward A. Hinck, 1993-01-21 Presidential debates are forums designed to present and select candidates for national office Their purpose is to provide opportunities for candidates to win over undecided voters to reinforce voters who have already made a decision about who to vote for and to change the minds of those who are willing to reconsider their initial judgments concerning which candidate seems more fit to serve as president Edward Hinck argues that debates are not primarily about presidential policy making Rather they are opportunities to demonstrate a candidate's ability to lead by summarizing in a specific test of presidential character the larger conflict between the candidates Hinck develops an in depth rhetorical analysis of the presidential and vice presidential debates of 1960 to 1988 The analysis of each series of debates begins with an introduction that focuses discussion on the most important aspects of political image for each of the candidates then develops a case for understanding the ways in which the debates revealed the rhetorical strengths and weaknesses of each candidate's performance Hinck's neo Aristotelian approach asserts that debates serve both deliberative and epideictic ends because they provide important information about the candidates that cannot be disclosed except in the dramatic confrontation of the debate and because this dramatic confrontation enacts the democratic values of rational dialogue Enacting The Presidency is recommended to scholars in communication and political science The Cumulative Book Index , 1985 A world list of books in the English language Bibliographic Guide to North American History , 1985 Women in World History: Ead-Fur Anne Commire, Deborah Klezmer, 2000 Locating information on women is difficult and the editors have done a fine job assembling and publishing information extant on individual women from many nations both living and dead Because in some cases only birth marriage children and death dates are known the 10 000 articles vary in length according to the subject If you haven't been able to
