Second Hand Out Jeff Spanke, 2008-10-01 All his life Dr. Sherman Hinkley was governed by one primary aspiration to work as an Agent for E. W. Harper's ClockWorks Time Travel Agency. A career with the Agency would ensure Sherman's status as a bona fide contemporary hero and legendary scholar. He sought not only the glamour that inevitably derived from fame but also the pride of knowing that after a series of failed endeavors he'd at last arrived. Yet Sherman quickly learns that even with the world famous Agency books should never be judged by their cover alone and that sometimes the darkness of truth is far more ominous than the brilliance of deceit. Now Sherman must re-evaluate his life, his career and his future while trying desperately to repair the world's past. What does it mean to be a hero? Sherman Hinkley couldn't have been further from the truth.

The Minister's Wife Karen Stiller, 2020-05-05 She never expected to be a minister's wife. And the life she discovered was more challenging and more beautiful than she could have anticipated. We all wrestle with tough questions about life and faith and Karen Stiller has learned that answers don't come any easier when you're married to the minister. What does it mean to live faithfully in our complicated world? Is there a place here for me, the real me? What does everyone expect of me and what if I fail? In The Minister's Wife, Karen shines a light on the rhythms and tough realities of the spiritual life for each and every one of us. She explores how community helps us grow, the unexpected beauty of doubt, the messy pain of families and funerals, how church can hurt and heal, and the beauty of showing up when sometimes it is more appealing to go to a coffee shop on a Sunday morning even when you're the pastor's wife. Warm, witty and achingly honest, The Minister's Wife is a memoir in essays on choosing to belong and an invitation to join a spiritual adventure.
