MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelson D. Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I will do everything I can to get into a good university where I can go to college.

My Story An Autobiography:

My Story Mary Astor, 2013-08-20 My Story an Autobiography By Mary Astor Prologue People have often said to me You haven't changed a bit They meant it as a compliment but I could hear it only as an accusation a statement of brutal fact And I have thought bitterly You are so right For I knew that if I had not changed I had not grown To be a perennial child an ethereal Peter Pan playing with pirates and Indians throughout all eternity can be a lovely thing in the never never land of fantasy but it is an unhappy thing in life The child is born so that he may become a man It is his destiny to grow to learn to understand to assume responsibilities Growth can be painful I know but I have found that a stunted and retarded growth can be a pain beyond belief My father often used to rebuke me by saying You are almost nine years old and then ten and then eleven and twelve and you haven't learned a thing Well here I was fifty years old and I still hadn't learned a thing My father's rebuke had always seemed to imply a promise that years the very accumulation of years would bring experience and understanding So at whatever age I was I wished I were older At seventeen I longed to be twenty five At twenty I wanted to be a woman of the world of thirty At thirty I read that the French thought a woman did not reach a full maturity of beauty and attractiveness until she was forty Finally at forty five I decided that the whole thing was a pack of lies Where was the serenity that the years were to bring Where was the cooling of passion's blood I realized that I who leaned on so many people and things had been leaning even on the abstraction of time I was still refusing to grow up to face the oppressive fact that I should long since have become a responsible mature adult I continued to seek people and things I could lean on to escape the need for making my own decisions and assuming responsibility for my own acts One event above all others should have brought me to a full realization of my responsibility and dignity as an individual but even in that I failed My conversion to the Catholic Church was almost purely emotional I felt instinctively that I had finally found something substantial to lean on never realizing that it is the Church above all else that demands a stern and courageous individuality So my conversion did not turn out to be the conventional conversion story where the sinner is baptized and lives happily ever after I leaned and I fell It is true the Church would repeatedly pick me up and dust me off after each fall She would dry my tears and heal my wounds and comfort me Then she would gently say Go Walk alone with God But I couldn't walk alone So I Windham Press is committed to bringing the lost cultural heritage of ages past into the 21st century through high quality reproductions of original classic printed works at affordable prices This book has been carefully crafted to utilize the original images of antique books rather than error prone OCR text This also preserves the work of the original typesetters of these classics unknown craftsmen who laid out the text often by hand of each and every page you will read Their subtle art involving judgment and interaction with the text is in many ways superior and more human than the mechanical methods utilized today and gave each book a unique hand crafted feel in its text that connected the reader organically to the art of bindery and book making We think these benefits are worth the occasional imperfection resulting from the age of these books at the time of scanning and their vintage feel provides a connection to the past that goes beyond the mere words of the text

My Story Marilyn Monroe, 2006-11-25 Written at the height of her fame but not published until over a decade after her death this autobiography of actress and sex symbol Marilyn Monroe 1926-1962 poignantly recounts her childhood as an unwanted orphan her early adolescence her rise in the film industry from bit player to celebrity and her marriage to Joe DiMaggio In this intimate account of a very public life she tells of her first non consensual sexual experience her romance with the Yankee Clipper and her prescient vision of herself as the kind of girl they found dead in the hall bedroom with an empty bottle of sleeping pills in her hand The Marilyn in these pages is a revelation a gifted intelligent vulnerable woman who was far more complex than the unwitting sex siren she portrayed on screen Lavishly illustrated with photos of Marilyn this special book celebrates the life and career of an American icon from the unique perspective of the icon herself

Autobiographical Memory in an Aboriginal Australian Community A. Monchamp, 2014-08-26 This book shares and analyses the stories of Opal a senior Alyawarra woman Through her stories the reader glimpses the harsh colonial realities which many Aboriginal Australians have faced highlighting the cultural embeddedness of autobiographical memory from a philosophical psychological and anthropological perspective Performing Autobiography Jennifer Stephenson, 2013-06-17 In Performing Autobiography Jenn Stephenson presents an innovative new approach to autobiography studies that links the growing field of research to drama Stephenson's analysis engages with performance histories to demonstrate the extent to which the dramatic form which recasts autobiography as ambiguously fictive ensures that the experience of the plays remains open to revision alteration and interpretation As such Performing Autobiography understands this form not to be the impossible documentation of the backward looking narrative of one's life but rather an evolving process of self creation and transformation Stephenson explores the autobiographical form by analysing seven works by Canadian playwrights written and performed between 1999 and 2009 including Judith Thompson's Perfect Pie Daniel MacIvor's In On It and Timothy Findley's Shadows Her analysis encourages us to see autobiography as a uniquely political act one that where enacted on stage illustrates the variety of ways that self reflection and interpretation has an expanding role in contemporary culture

Living with the Sea Mike Brown, Kimberley Peters, 2018-10-03 The seas and oceans are currently taking centre stage in academic study and public consciousness From the plastics littering our seas to the role of climate change on ocean currents from unequal access of marine resources to the treacherous experiences of seafarers who keep our global economy afloat now is a crucial time to examine how we live with the sea This ambitious book brings together an interdisciplinary and international cohort of contributors from within and beyond academia It offers a range and diversity of insights unlike previous collections An oceanic turn is taking place with a burgeoning of academic work that takes seriously the place of seas and oceans in understanding socio cultural and political life past and present Yet there is a significant gap concerning the ways in which we engage with seas and oceans with a will to enliven action and evoke change This book explores these challenges offering insights from spatial planning architectural design geography educational studies anthropology and cultural studies An examination through these lenses can help us to better understand human relationships with the seas and oceans and promote an ethic of care for the future

Acts of Narrative Resistance Laura J. Beard, 2009-10-01 This exploration of women's autobiographical writings in the Americas focuses on three specific genres testimonio metafiction and the family saga as the story of a nation What makes Laura J Beard's work distinctive is her pairing of readings of life narratives by women from different countries and traditions Her section on metafiction focuses on works by Helena Parente Cunha of Brazil and Luisa Futoranksy of Argentina the family sagas explored are by Ana Mar a Shua and N lida Pi on of Argentina and Brazil respectively and the section on testimonio highlights narratives by Lee Maracle and Shirley Sterling from different Indigenous nations in British Columbia. In these texts, Beard terms genres of resistance: women resist the cultural definitions imposed upon them in an effort to speak and name their own experiences. The author situates her work in the context of not only other feminist studies of women's autobiographies but also the continuing study of inter-American literature that is demanding more comparative and cross-cultural approaches. Acts of Narrative Resistance addresses prominent issues in the fields of autobiography, comparative literature, and women's studies, and in inter-American, Latin American, and Native American studies.
