NAACP Youth and the Fight for Black Freedom, 1936-1965 Thomas Bynum, 2013-08-30 Historical studies of black youth activism have until now focused almost exclusively on the activities of the Congress of Racial Equality CORE and the Student Nonviolent

Coordinating Committee SNCC However the NAACP youth councils and college chapters predate both of those organizations They initiated grassroots organizing efforts and nonviolent direct action tactics as early as the 1930s and in doing so made significant contributions to the struggle for racial equality in the United States This deeply researched book breaks new ground in an important and compelling area of study Thomas Bynum carefully examines the activism of the NAACP youth and effectively refutes the perception of the NAACP as working strictly through the courts His research illuminates the many direct action activities undertaken by the young people of the NAACP activities that helped precipitate the breakdown of racial discrimination and segregation in America Beginning with the formal organization of the NAACP youth movement under Juanita Jackson the author traces the group's activities from their early anti lynching demonstrations through their post World War II withholding patronage campaigns to their participation in the sit in protests of the 1960s He also explores the evolution of the youth councils and college chapters including their sometime rocky relationship with the national office and shows how these groups actually provided a framework for the emergence of youth activism within CORE and SNCC The author provides a comprehensive account of the generational struggle for racial equality capturing the successes failures and challenges the NAACP youth groups experienced at the national state and local levels He firmly establishes the vital role they played in the history of the civil rights movement in the United States and in the burgeoning tradition of youth activism in the postwar decades

My Fight For Irish Freedom: Dan Breen's Autobiography Dan Breen, 1981-01-01 In 1919 a group of young men barely out of their teens poorly armed with no money and little training renewed the fight begun in 1916 to drive the British out of Ireland Dan Breen was to become the best known of them At first they were condemned on all sides They became outlaws and My Fight describes graphically what life was like on the run with an army at one s heels and a thousand pounds on one s head A burning belief in their cause sustained them through many a dark and bitter day and slowly support came from the people Guardian of the Light Paddy Kearney,2010-06-01 Denis Hurley was not born in a lighthouse as some people imagine His father was the keeper of the lighthouse at Cape Point the guardian of the light that warns the sailors of dangers and guides them away from destruction Now the son did not follow in his father s footsteps But he became a lighthouse keeper too the guardian of the light that warns of dangers and saves us from destruction The lighthouse has become a symbol of light and hope and our Archbishop has been doing this work of warning and guiding for the greater part of his life And he has done it with great faithfulness for which today we give thanks Alan Paton author of Cry the Beloved Country Vintage 2002 Born in Cape Town in 1915 of Irish parents Dennis Hurley became the youngest Catholic bishop in the world in 1947 at 31 and would later come to be regarded along with Desmond Tutu as one of the South African state s most wanted political opponents His inspiring life as a courageous opponent of South Africa s apartheid regime for over 50 years and as a champion of the reforms and spirit of Vatican II is chronicled in this indispensable work Faith against the Odds: A Memoir of My Journey from Mississippi to the Ivy League and Beyond Gladys January Willis,2014 This book presents the story of Gladys January Willis from early childhood to retirement as a university professor and administrator It chronicles her experiences as a Black girl born and reared in Jackson Mississippi as well as her educational sojourn in college and graduate schools and a career in higher education and entrance into Christian ministry as an ordained chaplain In Chapter IX of the book Willis writes It is no secret that in my racist and segregated community the majority White system promoted its message loudly and clearly on the public buses in the segregated school system in employment practices in segregated eateries in housing developments in business transactions and in the political arena One of the most impacting experiences in my life after the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act was that of exercising my right to vote Because of the cherished right to vote as an American citizen whenever there is an election exercising my right to vote is a top priority I am sure that my Black home environment played a vital role in the way I came to think about life in general and my own life in particular She credits her maternal grandmother Henrietta Young Hedrick as her primary role model Mama as she was called was a proud Black woman who demanded that she be respected Her boldness was undaunted and communicated her respect for herself and her demand for the same from others regardless of who they were or their station in life Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers
