North African Writing Len Ortzen, 1970 Africa Writes Back James Currey, 2022-10-31 June 17 2008 is the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart by Heinemann. This publication provided the impetus for the foundation of the African Writers Series in 1962 with Chinua Achebe as the editorial adviser. Africa Writes Back The African Writers Series and the Launch of African Literature captures the energy of literary publishing in a new and undefined field. Portraits of the leading characters and the many consultants and readers providing reports and advice to new and established writers make Africa Writes Back a stand out book. James Currey's voice and insights are an added bonus.

African Writers Series, 1983 Area Handbook for Morocco Richard F. Nyrop, 1972 Social political economic and governmental aspects of Morocco The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan, 2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women's Studies and Comparative Studies departments. This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers. These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential. They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb the major geographical regions of Africa. The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world. Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes Soyinka Mahfouz and Gordimer and the visibility of African writers increased. They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America. African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on 300 writers from 39 countries. These writers were selected on the basis on two criteria that there is material on them in an easily available reference work and that there is some information of research value on free Web sites Each writer is from the late 19th or 20th century with the notable exception of Olaudah Equiano an 18th century African whose slave narrative is generally considered the first work of African literature All entries are annotated African Literatures in English Gareth Griffiths,2014-09-19 Here is an introduction to the history of English writing from East and West Africa drawing on a range of texts from the slave diaspora to the post war upsurge in African English language and literature from these regions

Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam,Alicia L. Kerfoot,2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography The Broadview Anthology of British Literature Volume 6B: The Twentieth Century and Beyond: From 1945 to the Twenty-First Century Joseph Black,Leonard Conolly,Kate Flint,Isobel Grundy,Don LePan,Roy Liuzza,Jerome J. McGann,Anne Lake Prescott,Barry V. Qualls,Claire Waters,2008-05-22 In all six of its volumes The Broadview Anthology of British Literature presents British literature in a truly distinctive light Fully grounded in sound literary and historical scholarship the anthology takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a wide selection of work by lesser known writers The anthology also provides wide ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to issues of race gender class and sexual orientation It includes comprehensive introductions to each period providing in each case an overview of the historical and cultural as well as the literary background It features accessible and engaging headnotes for all authors extensive explanatory annotations throughout and an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials offering additional perspectives both on individual texts and on larger social and cultural developments Innovative authoritative and comprehensive The Broadview Anthology of British Literature embodies a consistently fresh approach to the study of literature and literary history The full Broadview Anthology of British Literature comprises six bound volumes together with an extensive website component the latter has been edited annotated and designed according to the same high standards as the bound book component of the anthology and is accessible through the broadviewpress.com website by using the passcode obtained with the purchase of one or more of the bound volumes. Highlights of Volume 6, The Twentieth Century and Beyond, include Joseph Conrad's The Secret Sharer, an essay on the Titanic, and a substantial range of background materials including documents on the exploitation of central Africa that set An Outpost of Progress in vivid context and a large selection of late twentieth and early twenty-first century writers such as Ian McEwan, Kazuo Ishiguro, and Zadie Smith. For the convenience of those whose focus does not extend to the full period covered in the final volume of The Broadview Anthology of British Literature, Volume 6, The Twentieth Century and Beyond, that volume is now available either in its original one-volume format or in this alternative two-volume format with Volume 6a, The Early Twentieth Century extending to the end of WWII, and Volume 6b, The Late Twentieth Century and Beyond, covering from WWII into the present century.

Emerging Perspectives on Chinua Achebe Ernest Emenyonu, Iniobong I. Uko, 2004. Chinua Achebe's influence on contemporary African literature is as much in evidence in his art of the novel as his theory of African literature and literary criticism. ISINKA Igbo, term for artistic purpose, establishes Achebe's legacy as a literary theorist and critic. In these essays, scholars from around the globe assess and establish how much Achebe's extra-fictional ideas about African literature and literature in general are justified in his own creative works.

Nigerian Speculative Fiction Chukwunonso Ezeiyoke, 2025-05-30. This book is an exciting addition to a gap in non-Western genre studies of African fiction. It challenges the dominant canonicity of African literature which is overshadowed by texts concerned with the colonial discourse and writing back while exploring speculative themes in Nigerian fiction and writing that stem from an African cosmology and culture. The book examines important twentieth-century precursors of the post-millennial boom in Nigerian Speculative Fiction (SF), reading texts that were omitted from the Nigerian literary canon developed in the 1960s. It combines an analysis of recent fiction and criticism with a historical overview of the development of the under-researched area of Nigerian SF. Through these readings, the author demonstrates the range of concerns explored by Nigerian SF, including futurism, posthumanism, horror, fantasy, and science fiction, among others. This book argues that these narratives exceed the binary implicitly sustained by the texts that write back to the West and offers new readings of contemporary Nigerian SF works that imagine futures different from the past and present conditions imposed by capitalism, colonialism, and imperialism. Providing new theoretical tools and concepts, this book in the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series will be of interest to readers and scholars working in the fields of African studies, African culture and society, literature, and language.

The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 Oyekan Owomoyela, 2008-10-21. Composed by a premier scholar of African literature, this volume is a comprehensive guide to the literary traditions of Gambia, Sierra Leone, Liberia, Ghana, and Nigeria, five distinct countries bound by their experience with colonialism. Oyekan Owomoyela begins with an overview of the authors' texts and historical events that have shaped the development of postwar Anglophone literatures in this region exploring shifts in theme and the role of foreign sponsorship and illuminating recent debates regarding the language identity gender and social commitments of various authors and their works His introduction concludes with a bibliography of key critical texts The second half of the volume is an alphabetical tour of writers publications concepts genres movements and institutions with suggested readings for further research Entries focus primarily on fiction but also touch on drama and poetry Featured authors include Chris Abani Chinua Achebe Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Cyprian Ekwensi Uzodinma Chukuka Iweala Helen Oyeyemi and Wole Soyinka Topics range from the European origins of African literature and the West African diaspora to the development of an African personality the establishment of a regional publishing industry and the global literary marketplace Owomoyela also discusses such influences as the postwar emergence of Onitsha Market Literature the Mbari Club and the importance of the Noma Award Owomoyela's portrait points to the major impact of West African literature on the evolution of both African and world literatures in English Sure to become the definitive text for research in the field The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 is a vital resource for newcomers as well as for advanced scholars seeking a deeper understanding of the region's rich literary heritage Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature's development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index Intertextuality in Modern Arabic Literature Since 1967 Luc-Willy Deheuvels, Barbara Michalak-Pikulska, Paul Starkey, 2006 Being and Becoming African as a Permanent Work in Progress B. Nyamnjoh, U. Nwosu, 2021-06-09 This book is a timely addition to debates and explorations on the epistemological relevance of African proverbs especially with growing calls for the decolonisation of African curricula The editors and contributors have chosen to reflect on the diverse ways of being and becoming African as a permanent work in progress by drawing inspiration from Chinua Achebe's harnessing of the effectualness of oratory especially his use of proverbs in his works The book recognises and celebrates the fact that Achebe's proverbial Igbo imaginations of being and becoming African are compelling because they are instructive about the lives stories struggles and aspirations of the rainbow of people that make up Africa as a veritable global arena of productive circulations entanglements and compositeness of being The contributions foray into how claims to and practices of being and becoming African are steeped in histories of mobilities and a myriad of encounters shaped by and inspiring of the competing and complementary logics of personhood and power that Africans have sought and seek to capture in their repertoires of proverbs The task of documenting African proverbs and rendering them accessible in the form of a common hard currency with fascinating epistemological possibilities remains a challenge yearning for financial scholarly social and political attention The book is an important contribution to John Mbiti's clarion call for an active and sustained interest in African proverbs

Publishing the Postcolonial Gail Low, 2020-07-24 This book explores how writers such as Amos Tutuola George Lamming Samuel Selvon VS Naipaul Chinua Achebe Derek Walcott Kamau Brathwaite and Wole Soyinka came to be published in London in important educational series such as the Three Crown Series and African Writers Series Low takes account of recent debates in the discipline of book history especially issues that deal with social cultural and economic questions of authorship publishing histories canon formation and the production distribution and reception of texts in the literary market place Searching publishing archives for readers reports editorial correspondence and interventions this book represents a necessary exploration of postwar publishing contexts and the dissemination of texts from London that is crucial to literary histories of the postcolonial book Taken together as a postwar generation this cohort of now canonical writers helped imagine their respective national communities yet their intellectual labors entered an elite transnational literary circuit and correspondingly were transformed into textual commodities by the economic social cultural and institutional transactions that were part of an expanding print capitalism

Corruption and Economic Growth in Africa David N. Abdulai, 2023-12-28 Corruption is one of the major challenges impeding Africa's growth and development efforts and its impact is much more pronounced at this point of the continent's development trajectory Corruption has political economic and social consequences and this book argues that any efforts to help Africa grow and develop must prioritise the fight against it so that the aid and funding given for projects in the region can continue to be sustained The book also tackles the issue of national security and instability caused by corruption The author argues that progress cannot happen in countries and environments where instability exists and persists Corruption in Africa has contributed to instability and other national security challenges especially in fragile states on the continent The book starts by looking at the three major types of corruption petty grand and systemic and then goes on to address the different categories of corruption such as bureaucratic legislative political as well as public and private sector aspects It also deals with common forms of corruption as well as some of the causes such as bad governance and excessive greed to mention a few Further it critically examines how current political systems on the continent contribute to this condition The book argues that some of the solutions that have been proposed to date are not viable or have not worked in practice and through applied research offers workable solutions that policy makers African politicians academics and students of economics and development can use as a reference guide in the fight against corruption

The Companion to African Literatures G. D. Killam, Ruth Rowe, 2000 Refreshing African Studies Review The entries are knowledgeable thorough and clearly written Highly recommended Choice an ambitious reference guide to works on African literature African Studies Review This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures The entries are authoritative and up to date providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent's literary flowering Bernth Lindfors A comprehensive introduction and guide to African authored works with over 1 000 cross referenced entries covering classics in African writing literary genres and movements biographical details of authors and wider themes linking African Afro Caribbean and Afro American literatures Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu

Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature Institutions of World Literature

Stefan Helgesson, Pieter Vermeulen, 2015-06-19 This volume engages critically with the recent and ongoing consolidation of world literature as a paradigm of study On the basis of an extended active and ultimately more literary sense of what it means to institute world literature it views processes of institutionalization not as limitations but as challenges to understand how literature may simultaneously function as an enabling and exclusionary world of its own It starts from the observation that literature is never simply a given but is always performatively and materially instituted by translators publishers academics and academics critics and readers as well as authors themselves This volume therefore substantiates refines as well as interrogates current approaches to world literature such as those developed by David Damrosch Pascale Casanova and Emily Apter Sections focus on the poetics of writers themselves market dynamics postcolonial negotiations of discrete archives of literature and translation engaging a range of related disciplines The chapters contribute to a fresh understanding of how singular literary works become inserted in transnational systems and conversely how transnational and institutional dimensions of literature are inflected in literary works Focusing its methodological and theoretical inquiries on a broad archive of texts spanning the triangle Europe Latin America Africa the volume unsettles North America as the self evident vantage of recent world literature debates Because of the volume's focus on dialogues between world literature and fields such as postcolonial studies translation studies book history and transnational studies it will be of interest to scholars and students in a range of areas Postcolonial Literatures in the Local Literary Marketplace Jenni Ramone, 2020-08-06 This book asks what reading means in India Nigeria the UK and Cuba through close readings of literary texts from postcolonial spatial architectural cartographic materialist trauma and gender perspectives It contextualises these close readings through new interpretations of local literary marketplaces to assert the significance of local not global meanings

The book offers longer case studies on novels that stage important reading moments Alejo Carpentier's The Lost Steps 1953 Leonardo Padura's Adios Hemingway 2001 Tabish Khair's Filming 2007 Chibundu Onuzo's Welcome to Lagos 2017 and Zadie Smith's Swing Time 2016 Chapters argue that while India's literary market was disrupted by Partition literature offers a means of moving beyond trauma in post Revolutionary Cuba the Special Period led to exploitation of Cuban literary culture resulting in texts that foreground reading spaces in Nigeria the market hosts meeting negotiation reflection and trade including the writer's trade while Black consciousness bookshops and writing in Britain operated to challenge the UK literary market a project still underway This book is a vindication of reading and of the resistant power and creative potential of local literary marketplaces It insists on located reading enabling close reading of world literatures sited in their local materialities
