

The background of the slide is a light yellow color with a complex, abstract pattern of thin, dark brown lines. These lines form a series of overlapping, elongated, and somewhat circular shapes that create a sense of movement and depth. The lines are drawn in a sketchy, hand-drawn style, giving the background a textured, organic feel.

Points Of Balance Puntos De Apoyo:

One Island, Many Voices Eduardo R. del Rio, 2022-04-12 Cuban American writers have been studied primarily within the context of Latino literature as a whole. Seeing a need to distinguish and define this unique literary perspective, Eduardo del Rio selected twelve important well-known authors and conducted interviews. He chose writers who were born in Cuba but have lived in the United States for a significant amount of time and whose works include themes he considers elemental to Cuban American literature: identity, duality, memory, and exile. But rather than a cohesive homogeneous group, these conversations unveiled a kaleidoscope of individuality, style, and motive. The authors' bonds to Cuba inform their creative work in vastly different ways, and attempts to categorize their similarities only highlight the range of character and experience within this assemblage of talented writers. From playwright Dolores Prida to author and literary critic Gustavo Pérez Firmat, these voices run the gamut of both genre and personality. In addition to the essential facts of literary accomplishment, the interviews include a wealth of insight into each writer's history, motivations, concerns, and relationship to language. These personal details serve to humanize and illuminate the unique circumstances and realities that have shaped both the authors and their work. What del Rio has ultimately brought together is a series of intimate sketches that will not only serve as an important reference for any discussion of the literature but will also help readers to develop for themselves a sense of what Cuban American writing is and what it is not.

CONTENTS Preface Acknowledgments Introduction Nilo Cruz Roberto Fernández Cristina García Carolina Hospital Eduardo Machado Dionisio Martínez Pablo Medina Achy Obejas Ricardo Pau Llosa Gustavo Pérez Firmat Dolores Prida Virgil Suárez Epilogue Notes Bibliography Index A Sense of Regard Laura McCullough, 2015 How do poets engage issues of race? This timely collection of essays brings together the voices of living poets and scholars including Garrett Hongo and Major Jackson to discuss the constraints and possibilities of racial discourse in poetic language, offering new insights on this perennially vexed issue. Identity, Memory, and Diaspora Jorge J. E. Gracia, Lynette M. F. Bosch, Isabel Alvarez Borland, 2009-01-08 This fascinating volume contains interviews with nineteen prominent Cuban American artists, writers, and philosophers who tell their stories and share what they consider important for understanding their work. Struggling with issues of Cuban American identity in particular and social identity in general, they explore such questions as how they see themselves, how they have dealt with the diaspora, and their memories of what they have done to find a proper place in their adopted country and how their work has been influenced by the experience. Their answers reveal different perspectives on art, literature, and philosophy and the different challenges encountered personally and professionally. The interviews are gathered into three groups: nine artists, six writers, and four philosophers. An introductory essay for each group is included, and the interviews are accompanied by brief biographical notes along with samples of the work of those interviewed.

Cubop City Blues Pablo Medina, 2012-06-05 The celebrated Cuban American poet and novelist delivers a haunting love letter to New York with tales of love, death, and exile. Publishers Weekly Pablo Medina's Cubop City

Blues fuses raw passionate language and elegant lyricism to breathe life into a musically disguised New York City shaped by jazz masters refugees and storytellers Our guide into Cubop City is the Storyteller born nearly blind and shrouded in his mother's guilt He's homeschooled inside his parents crumbling apartment with a European housekeeper and educated through Encyclopedia Britannica the Bible and One Thousand and One Nights When he's twenty five his mother and father are both diagnosed with cancer and the Storyteller alone is left to care for them He does so by telling them stories conceived from the prolific reading that allowed his imagination to flourish despite little contact with the outside world Through his tales full of magic sorrow longing love Cubop City surges colorfully to life Moving through myriad points of view the Storyteller imagines a world populated by both well known figures like Chano Pozo and Jelly Roll Morton and invented characters most notably a mustachioed man who is stabbed by a stranger and embarks on a novel long search for his attacker Molded in the cadence of Afro Cuban jazz Cubop City Blues is a symphonic portrait of a bustling urban landscape and the intimate lives that give a city its voice A kaleidoscopic depiction of life in exile Leonard Lopate Medina's most touching novel to date A rich and stunning novel with an incredibly intricate scaffolding Yet another triumph Rigoberto Gonzalez Los Angeles Review of Books
