McGarrell, 2012-02-15 Crime and Terrorism Risk is a collection of original essays and articles that presents a broad overview of the issues related to the assessment and management of risk in the new security age These original articles show how researchers experts and the public are beginning to think about crime and terrorism issues in terms of a new risk paradigm that emphasizes establishing a balance between threat and resources in developing prevention and response strategies Challenging Fronteras Mary Romero, Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, Vilma Ortiz, 2014-06-11 Challenging Fronteras reflects an important new wave of research that moves beyond sweeping generalizations that treat Latinos as a monolithic cultural group This anthology focuses on the diversity of Latino experiences by providing historical specificity and cutting edge research that employs the conceptual and analytical tools of social science Contributors selected from leading researchers in Latino Studies include Patricia Zavella Suzanne Oboler Alejandro Portes Clara Rodriguez Marta Tienda Nestor Rodriguez and others

Intersections of Crime and Terror James J.F. Forest, 2013-09-13 During the last ten years an increasing number of government and media reports scholarly books and journal articles and other publications have focused our attention on the expanded range of interactions between international organized crime and terrorist networks A majority of these interactions have been in the form of temporary organizational alliances or customer supplier relationships surrounding a specific type of transaction or resource exchange like document fraud or smuggling humans drugs or weapons across a particular border The environment in which terrorists and criminals operate is also a central theme of this literature These research trends suggest the salience of this book which addresses how organized criminal and terrorist networks collaborate share knowledge and learn from each other in ways that expand their operational capabilities The book contains broad conceptual pieces historical analyses and case studies that highlight different facets of the intersection between crime and terrorism These chapters collectively help us to identify and appreciate a variety of dynamics at the individual organizational and contextual levels These dynamics in turn inform a deeper understanding of the security threat posted by terrorists and criminal networks and how to respond more effectively This book was published as a special issue of Terrorism and Political Violence Challenges of Policing Democracies Dilip Das, Marenin Otwin, 2012-10-12 In this text the editors analyze the diverse situations that police forces operate under and the challenges that they face in different kinds of democracies This cross cultural comparison of various systems highlights the universal observation that police are an anomaly in a democracy and explores how various influences for example large scale social violence a zeal for crime fighting and vulnerability to temptation often find police incapable of behaving in a democratic manner Challenges of Policing Democracies goes beyond just showing the similarities and differences of the policing challenges democratic societies face it also examines the responses and remedies adopted by police in various countries at different levels of democratic achievement and how every society struggles with the challenges of preserving democratic values without sacrificing the effectiveness of policing

New landscape of policing Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2011-09-23 In this report the Home Affairs Committee examines the Government's proposals for policing reform Key findings i it is unacceptable that more than a year after the Government announced it was phasing out the National Policing Improvement Agency it still has not announced any definite decisions about the future of the vast majority of the functions currently performed by the Agency the phasing out of the Agency should be delayed until the end of 2012 ii after the Olympics the Home Office should consider making counter terrorism a separate command of the New National Crime Agency rather than it being the responsibility of the Metropolitan Police iii the Government must urgently appoint a head of the new National Crime Agency iv a Professional Body for policing could ultimately become a useful part of the policing landscape v the Home Office should be more active in encouraging and supporting forces to collaborate with one another vi IT across the police service as a whole is not fit for purpose and the Home Office must make revolutionising police IT a top priority vii the review of pay and conditions is having an inevitable impact on morale in the police service but it is possible to do more to mitigate this viii The Committee commends the work of Jan Berry the former Reducing Bureaucracy in Policing Advocate in emphasising that reducing bureaucracy in the police service is not simply about reducing paperwork but addressing the causes of that paperwork
