Rosemary Decamp:

Rosemary DeCamp Rosemary DeCamp,2009-01-09 Actress Rosemary DeCamp writes with wit and charm of her life and work in films and television in her delightful autobiography Fans of radio film and television will not be able to put down this engaging work by one of Hollywood's consummate professionals John Garfield Patrick J. McGrath,2006-09-06 One of the most gifted actors of the 1930s and 1940s John Garfield is too little remembered today His gritty true to life performances in 35 films including Body and Soul which was one of the first movies to raise the ugly specter of race relations in the United States and in 16 Broadway productions were all highly acclaimed Garfield is best recalled by some for having been targeted by the House Un American Activities Committee for his liberal political beliefs Garfield was one of many Hollywood stars blacklisted by Senator Joseph McCarthy and his cronies Acting is my life he said in a speech in 1939 Deprived of that opportunity he died in 1952 This generously illustrated work examines the actor's personal and professional life recounting a bygone era of Hollywood and American history Torrance High School Lorelee Spradlin,2017-08-28 In 1917 when Torrance School first opened the city of Torrance was developing a reputation as an industrial powerhouse The new school initially served all school age children in one building By 1923 the elementary students had their own school and Torrance High School stood as the only high school until the 1950s As the population of the city grew so did the campus of Torrance High The rich history of Torrance High School is filled with academic and athletic successes as well as storied alumni like Louis Zamperini and Ted Tanouye who served the United States during World War II In the 1990s the highly recognizable Main Building served as a set for several television shows including Beverly Hills 90210 and Buffy the Vampire Slayer and movies such as She's All That and Not Another Teen Movie Femme Noir Karen Burroughs Hannsberry,2012-10-26 Though often thought of as primarily a male vehicle the film noir offered some of the most complex female roles of any movies of the 1940s and 1950s Stars such as Barbara Stanwyck Gene Tierney and Joan Crawford produced some of their finest performances in noir movies while such lesser known actresses as Peggie Castle Hope Emerson and Helen Walker made a lasting impression with their roles in the genre These six women and 43 others who were most frequently featured in films noirs are profiled here focusing primarily on their work in the genre and its impact on their careers A filmography of all noir appearances is provided for each actress Haunted Jerome Patricia Jacobson,Midge Steuber,2016-12-12 Discover just how Jerome Arizona became known as America's Largest Ghost Town and what spirits walk its historic streets Jerome was once home to the largest copper mine in Northern Arizona built on the steep terrain of Cleopatra Hill The small town population fifteen thousand at its peak was shockingly nefarious Diversions for the hardworking miners came by way of saloons gambling and ladies of the evening Shootouts and murders violent accidents in the mines and smelters and fires and diseases scourged its denizens Life was tough on the mountain death came too soon for many When the copper mine closed in 1953 Jerome was rendered a ghost town and its spirits still lurk among the living The stories in this book will convince you they are here for a reason Includes photos Nancy Reagan Kitty Kelley,2011-10-18 A shocking portrait of the 1980s America and the woman whose position helped shape the values and policies of the Reagan administration Through over 1 000 interviews collected during four years of exhaustive research and reporting Kelley reveals Nancy Reagan as a superb public performer a vain materialistic social climber a bitter foe and formidable strategist an American phenomenon

Sitcom Queens Michael Karol,2006-07 Whether it was Lucy and Ethel Lucille Ball and Vivian Vance or Eve Arden as Miss Brooks Gale Storm as her dad s little Margie always interfering but with the best of intentions or the more modern Bea Arthur as Maude flaunting the conventions of how a woman was supposed to behave we all have our favorite funny ladies who brought us laughter every week and for a half hour at least took us away from our daily problems Classic TV expert Michael Karol in a series of original essays examines the roles these Sitcom Queens played on TV and how they became the beloved TV icons of generation after generation of TV fans With a sitcom timeline and a Top 10

Mary Wickes Steve Taravella,2013-05-24 Moviegoers know her as the housekeeper in White Christmas the nurse in Now Voyager and the crotchety choir director in Sister Act This book filled with never published behind the scenes stories from Broadway and Hollywood chronicles the life of a complicated woman who brought an assortment of unforgettable nurses nuns and housekeepers to life on screen and stage Wickes was part of some of the most significant moments in film television theatre and radio history On that frightening night in 1938 that Orson Welles recorded his earth shattering War of the Worlds radio broadcast Wickes was waiting on another soundstage for him for a rehearsal of Danton s Death oblivious to the havoc taking place outside When silent film star Gloria Swanson decided to host a live talk show on this new thing called television Wickes was one of her first guests When Lucille Ball made her first TV appearance anywhere Wickes appeared with her and became Lucy s closest friend for more than thirty years Wickes was the original Mary Poppins long before an umbrella carried Julie Andrews across the rooftops of London And when Disney began creating 101 Dalmatians it asked Wickes to pose for animators trying to capture the evil of Cruella de Vil The pinched face actress who cracked wise by day became a confidante to some of the day s biggest stars by night including Bette Davis and Doris Day Bolstered by interviews with almost three hundred people and by private correspondence from Ball Davis Day and others Mary Wickes I Know I ve Seen That Face Before includes scores of never before shared anecdotes about Hollywood and Broadway In the process it introduces readers to a complex woman who sustained a remarkable career for sixty years

A Conservative Christian Reviews the Greatest Movies Ever Made George McManus,2003-07 Michael Curtiz Alan K. Rode,2017-11-17 Academy Award winning director Michael Curtiz 1886 1962 whose best known films include Casablanca 1942 Yankee Doodle Dandy 1942 Mildred Pierce 1945 and White Christmas 1954 was in many ways the anti auteur During his unprecedented twenty seven year tenure at Warner Bros he directed swashbuckling adventures westerns musicals war epics romances historical dramas horror films tearjerkers melodramas comedies and film noir masterpieces The director s staggering output of 180 films surpasses that of the legendary John Ford and exceeds the combined total of films directed by George Cukor Victor Fleming and Howard Hawks In the first biography of this colorful instinctual artist Alan K Rode illuminates the life and work of one of the film industry s most complex figures He explores the director s little known early life and career in his native Hungary revealing how Curtiz shaped the earliest days of silent cinema in Europe before immigrating to the United States in 1926 In Hollywood Curtiz earned a reputation for explosive tantrums his difficulty with English and disregard for the well being of others However few directors elicited more memorable portrayals from their casts and ten different actors delivered Oscar nominated performances under his direction In addition to his study of the director s remarkable legacy Rode investigates Curtiz s dramatic personal life discussing his enduring creative partnership with his wife screenwriter Bess Meredyth as well as his numerous affairs and children born of his extramarital relationships This meticulously researched biography provides a nuanced understanding of one of the most talented filmmakers of Hollywood s golden age

The Queen of Technicolor Tom Zimmerman,2022-07-26 Best known for her appearances in the six Technicolor Neverland movies Maria Montez is a film icon Growing up as one of ten children in the Dominican Republic her rise as a film star in the United States seemed unlikely In 1939 Montez set off on her own to New York City to fulfill her aspirations of movie stardom Despite having no substantial acting experience Montez managed to sign with major agent Louis Schurr who helped her secure a contract with Universal Studios before she moved out to Hollywood Following her arrival in Los Angeles Montez began cultivating the larger than life persona for which she is known Her beauty personality and series of publicity antics including dramatic restaurant entrances endeared her to the press She even created her own fan club The Montez for Stardom Club Her ambitious self promotion bolstered the success she found with her first big lead in Arabian Nights released in 1943 From then on the studio referred to her as The Queen of Technicolor Author Tom Zimmerman puts Montez s life in historical context including her role as a cultural icon and a living representation of the United States Good Neighbor Policy with Latin American countries With her

thick Dominican accent Montez struggled to make herself intelligible to an American audience However unlike some of her Latin contemporaries she did not present a caricature of her culture or use her accent for comedic purposes giving her credibility with a Latin American audience Zimmerman skillfully recounts the story of Montez's fiery ambition and her ascent to Hollywood fame giving her the opportunity to live on in public memory The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash,2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries three stars good four stars excellent five stars masterpiece and yes author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut In addition to a precis each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing recommended acceptable cautionary and unacceptable Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre i e animated drama sports mystery adventure etc as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection From Radio to Television Vincent Terrace,2022-10-21 The early years of television relied in part on successful narratives of another medium as studios adapted radio programs like Boston Blackie and Defense Attorney to the small screen Many shows were adapted more than once like the radio program Blondie which inspired six television adaptations and 28 theatrical films These are but a few of the 1 164 programs covered in this volume Each program entry contains a detailed story line years of broadcast performer and character casts and principal production credits where possible Two appendices Almost a Transition and Television to Radio and a performer's index conclude the book This first of its kind encyclopedia covers many little known programs that have rarely been discussed in print e g Real George based on Me and Janie Volume One based on Quiet Please and Galaxy based on X Minus One Covered programs include The Great Gildersleeve Howdy Doody My Friend Irma My Little Margie Space Patrol and Vic and Sade Lux Presents Hollywood Connie Billips,Arthur Pierce,2025-02-26 The Lux Video Theatre was the longest running radio drama program ever broadcast Starting in 1934 the show usually featured a one hour adaptation of a motion picture screenplay often with members of the original movie cast The Lux Video Theatre the television counterpart to the radio broadcast aired from 1950 through 1957 This reference work is a show by show chronicle of the series arranged by broadcast season and showing network affiliation host announcer director musical director and adaptation writer Show listings include title date first broadcast cast cast of the Lux commercials plot synopsis and film versions of the story Also provided are the intermission guests D W Griffith Theda Bara King Vidor Sid Grauman among others interviewed between acts of the broadcasts Sixties Shockers Mark

Clark, Bryan Senn, 2025-03-06 This comprehensive filmography provides critical analyses and behind the scenes stories for 600 horror science fiction and fantasy films from the 1960s During those tumultuous years horror cinema flourished proving as innovative and unpredictable as the decade itself Representative titles include Night of the Living Dead The Haunting Carnival of Souls Repulsion The Masque of the Red Death Targets and The Conqueror Worm An historical overview chronicles the explosive growth of horror films during this era as well as the emergence of such dynamic directorial talents as Roman Polanski George Romero Francis Ford Coppola and Peter Bogdanovich Hollywood Musicals Nominated for Best Picture Frederick G. Vogel, 2015-09-02 Only one year after the presentation of the first Academy Awards on May 16 1929 two musicals joined the select group of five films nominated for Best Picture One The Broadway Melody won the award and since then 37 additional musicals have received Best Picture nominations Of those nine have won the award This book covers all 39 Hollywood musicals nominated for Best Picture It explains why each film was nominated and why the winners won points out the influences that guided the productions and discusses these films influences on succeeding films Plot descriptions are provided along with facts about the acting direction choreography and orchestration complete cast and production credits and comments from critics Becoming Ronald Reagan Robert Mann, 2019-10-01 In the 1960s transitioning from acting to politics was rare Ronald Reagan was not the first to do it but he was the first to jump from the screen to the stump and on to credibility as a presidential contender Reagan s transformation from struggling liberal actor to influential conservative spokesman in five years and then to the California governorship six years later is a remarkable and compelling story In Becoming Ronald Reagan Robert Mann explores Reagan s early life and his career during the 1950s and early 1960s his growing desire for acclaim in high school and college his political awakening as a young Hollywood actor his ideological evolution in the 1950s as he traveled the country for General Electric the refining of his political skills during this period his growing aversion to big government and his disdain for the totalitarian leaders in the Soviet Union and elsewhere All these experiences and more shaped Reagan s politics and influenced his career as an elected official Mann not only demonstrates how Reagan the actor became Reagan the political leader and how the liberal became a conservative he also shows how the skills Reagan learned and the lessons he absorbed from 1954 to 1964 made him the inspiring leader so many Americans remember and revere to this day Becoming Ronald Reagan is an indelible portrait of a true American icon and a politician like none other Purchase the audio edition Film Noir Guide Michael F.
