Rosemary Verey's Garden Plans Rosemary Verey,1993 Great British Gardeners Vanessa Berridge,2018-05-15 Through the stories of twenty six inspiring figures from Capability Brown Humphry Repton and Vita Sackville West to lesser known figures and present day gardeners such as Beth Chatto and John Brookes this book brings the colourful history of British gardening to life Autobiography of a Garden Patterson Webster,2022-07-04 Autobiography of a Garden follows

Patterson Webster's twenty-five year journey as she transforms a beautiful but conventional country property into a 750-acre landscape that challenges what a garden is or can be. A unique personal memoir, this book details how a neophyte gardener moved from copying the ideas of other people to learning from them and finally to striking out on her own. Combining traditions from French and English eighteenth-century gardens with contemporary perspectives, Webster communicates concepts and ideas that underpin the garden's design, sharing a process that evolved over seasons and years. She explores the meaning of creating a garden and the meaning that a garden can create, linking ideas about aging and the passage of time to the reality of growth and death in the landscape and thinking through how art in a garden can reframe questions of memory and our relationship to nature. Using the history of the property as a framework, Webster considers the impact made by those who lived on the land before her: the Abenaki, the early settlers, the cottagers, the farmers, the US southerners who came to Quebec to avoid the summer heat, and the northerners who defeated them in the Civil War. With engaging personal anecdotes, she describes the thinking behind each part of the garden and the examples that guided her, the mishaps and successes she encountered, and her plans for the future. Beautifully photographed and full of inspirational ways of thinking about gardens and gardening, Autobiography of a Garden blends history, horticulture, and art, encouraging readers to make their own surroundings more beautiful and more meaningful.

The Inward Garden Julie Moir Messervy, 2007 Julie Moir Messervy has written a classic garden book. Deeply literate and beautifully written, The Inward Garden gives the reader a process for designing one's dream garden. Based on garden archetypes—the sea, the cave, the harbor, the promontory, the island, the mountain, and the sky—this book provides a structure for imagining and designing the garden of one's desires. It is illustrated with outstanding garden photographs by the celebrated national geographic photographer Sam Abell.

First Ladies of Gardening Heidi Howcroft, 2015-03-05 The English Garden is the universal measure of all things related to garden design. It is in the UK that the great garden designers live and work, and where a major gardening movement has developed over the last few decades, influencing the rest of the world with its ideas and vision. This book introduces the grandes dames of contemporary English garden design and includes the great names of the garden world which have emerged since the 1950s, from Vita Sackville-West and Beth Chatto to Beatrix Havergal. It also presents outstanding women gardeners of the present day who have likewise had a substantial influence on the development of contemporary garden design. Heidi Howcroft has discovered these women's gardening secrets and writes sensitively and informatively about the individual women and their influence on the English country garden. The individual gardens' charm and design are captured in photos by Marianne Majerus.
