Rosetta Et La Promebe:

Love and Money Lisa Henderson, 2013-01-01 Love and Money argues that we can't understand contemporary queer cultures without looking through the lens of social class. Resisting old divisions between culture and economy, identity and privilege, left and queer recognition and redistribution, Love and Money offers supple approaches to capturing class experience and class form in and around queerness. Contrary to familiar dismissals, not every queer television or movie character is like Will Truman on Will and Grace: rich, white, healthy, professional, detached from politics, community, and sex. Through ethnographic encounters with readers and cultural producers and such texts as Boys Don't Cry, Brokeback Mountain, By Hook or By Crook, and wedding announcements in the New York Times, Love and Money sees both queerness and class across a range of idioms and practices in everyday life. How it asks: do readers of Dorothy Allison's novels use her work to find a queer class voice? How do gender and race broker queer class fantasy? How do independent filmmakers cross back and forth between industry and queer sectors, changing both places as they go and challenging queer ideas about bad commerce and bad taste? With an eye to the nuances and harms of class difference in queerness and a wish to use culture to forge queer and class affinities, Love and Money returns class and its politics to the study of queer life. Five Directors Kate

Ince, 2019-01-04 Auteurism the idea that a director of a film is its source of meaning and should retain creative control over the finished product has been one of film studies' most important paradigms ever since the French New Wave of the late 1950s and early 1960s and the adoption of the term auteur by Andrew Sarris. Through the popular, controversial, and critically acclaimed films of Olivier Assayas, Jacques Audiard, the Dardenne brothers, Michael Haneke, and François Ozon, this book looks into how the meaning of auteur has changed over this half century and assesses the current state of Francophone auteur cinema. It combines French philosophical and sociological approaches with methodologies from the Anglo-American fields of gender studies, queer theory, and postmodernism. This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of film studies, European cinema, and French and Francophone studies as well as to film enthusiasts. Francophone Film Lieve Spaas, 2000 Covering the rich film production of Belgium, Switzerland, Quebec, the Caribbean, North Africa, and Sub-Saharan Africa, this book brings together films that might otherwise be divided by questions of race, gender, genre, period, or nation in a valuable comparative study of a diverse corpus. Individual countries, film makers, and films are treated separately in order to emphasize their specific identities or those which are represented in their films, and key films are examined within a well-developed historical context. Clearly written and accessible to the specialist and general reader alike, this informative book is a valuable reference source. European Directors and Their Films Bert Cardullo, 2012-08-09 In European Directors and Their Films: Essays on Cinema, Bert Cardullo offers readable analyses of some of the most important film artists and individual films of the last several decades. Beyond simple biographical capsules and plot summaries, these readings demonstrate with elegance and clarity what cinema means as well as shows explaining how international moviemakers use the resources of the medium to pursue complex significant human goals Essential Cinema Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2004-04-27 A cogent and provocative argument about the art of film Essential Cinema is a fiercely independent reference book of must see movies for film lovers everywhere Ethical Inquiries after Wittgenstein Salla Aldrin Salskov, Ondřej Beran, Nora Hämäläinen, 2022-05-18 This volume showcases contemporary ground up ethical essays in the tradition of Wittgenstein's broader philosophy and Wittgenstein inspired ethical reflection It takes the ethical relevance of Wittgenstein as a substantial and solid starting point for a broad range of ongoing thinking about contemporary ethical issues The texts are organised in two sections The first consists of chapters exploring questions around what could be called the grammar of our moral forms of life and thus represents a more traditional approach in ethics after Wittgenstein The second part represents a recent turn in the tradition towards investigating moral conceptions perspectives and concepts that are undergoing change either because the world itself is changing for instance with new technologies or because human agency such as social movements has brought us to reconsider previously unquestioned ideas and structures Within the book the authors contributions are inspired in their ways of working with ethical questions by Wittgenstein's conceptions of language understanding and the nature of philosophical inquiry This book is of interest to philosophers influenced by Wittgenstein as well as to all ethicists seeking ideas for how to do philosophy in a manner close to lived experience and practice

Hollywood Abroad Melvyn Stokes, Richard Maltby, 2019-07-25 Hollywood Abroad is the first book to examine the reception of Hollywood movies by non American audiences Although numerous books on film history have analyzed the ways in which American films came to dominate world markets there has so far been very little published work on how audiences outside the United States have responded to Hollywood produced films Hollywood Abroad explores the reception of U S films in Britain France Belgium Turkey Australia India Japan and Central Africa The book covers topics from the first major penetration of American films into France Britain and Australia to the impact of such films as The Best Years of Our Lives to the response of Belgian young people in the age of the multiplex It demonstrates that the story of the reception of American films overseas is less one of domination than of a complex adoption of Hollywood into various cultures Jean-Pierre and Luc Dardenne Joseph Mai, 2010-10-01 For well over a decade Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne have produced highly original and ethically charged films that immerse their audiences in an intense and embodied viewing experience Their work has consistently attracted international recognition including the rare feat of two Palme d'Or at Cannes In this first book length study of the Belgian brothers Joseph Mai delivers sophisticated close analyses of their directorial style and explores the many philosophical issues dealt with in their films especially the ethics of Emmanuel Levinas Mai discusses the Dardennes varied and searching career from its inception in the late 1970s starting with the working class political consciousness and lost utopias of their documentary period passing through their transition toward fictional narrative experimental techniques and familial themes and finishing with a series of in depth and philosophically informed interpretations of the brothers more recent work In such highly influential films such as La promesse Rosetta The Son and The Child the brothers have recast filmmaking through what Mai calls a sensuous realism realism capable of touching the audience with the most compelling problems and moral dilemmas of contemporary society This volume also features an interview in which the Dardennes discuss their approach to film production and the direction of actors

Screen Writings: Partial views of a total art, classic to contemporary Bert Cardullo, 2010 Screen Writings Genres Classics and Aesthetics offers close readings of genre films and acknowledged film classics in an attempt to explore both the aesthetics of genre and the definition of classic as well as the changing perception of so called classic movies over time

Performing Ethics Through Film Style Lamberti Edward Lamberti, 2019-11-06 Emmanuel Levinas's ethical philosophy has had a significant influence on film theory in recent years Proposing a relationship between Levinasian ethics and film style and bringing it into a productive dialogue with theories of performativity this book explores this influence through three directorial bodies of work those of the Dardenne Brothers Barbet Schroeder and Paul Schrader Discussing a range of films including the Dardennes Le Fils and The Kid with a Bike Schroeder's Matresse and Reversal of Fortune and Schrader's American Gigolo and The Comfort of Strangers Edward Lamberti demonstrates how film styles can perform a Levinasian ethics

Postcolonial Hospitality Mireille Rosello, 2001 Hospitality has emerged as a category in recent French thinking for addressing a range of issues associated with immigration Concentrating primarily on France and its former colonies in North and sub Saharan Africa this book considers how hospitality and its dissidence are defined practiced and represented in European and African fictions theories and myths at the end of the 20th century

The Technique of Film and Video Editing Ken Dancyger, 2013-04-26 The Technique of Film Video Editing provides a detailed precise look at the artistic and aesthetic principles and practices of editing for both picture and sound Analyses of photographs from dozens of classic and contemporary films and videos provide a sound basis for the professional filmmaker and student editor This book puts into context the storytelling choices an editor will have to make against a background of theory history and practice This new edition has been updated to include the latest advances in digital video and nonlinear editing and explores the new trend of documentary as mainstream entertainment using films such as Fahrenheit 9 11 and The Fog of War as examples

Precarity in European Film Elisa Cuter, Guido Kirsten, Hanna Prenzel, 2022-06-06 This volume brings together renowned scholars and early career researchers in mapping the ways in which European cinema whether arthouse or mainstream fictional or documentary working with traditional or new media engages with phenomena of precarity poverty and social exclusion It compares how the filmic traditions of different countries reflect the socioeconomic conditions associated with precarity and illuminates similarities in the iconography of precarious lives across cultures While some of the contributions deal with the representations of marginalized minorities others focus on work related precarity or the depictions of downward mobility Among other topics the volume looks at how films grapple with gender inequality intersectional struggle discriminatory housing policies and the specific problems of precarious youth With its comparative approach to filmic representations of European precarity this volume makes a major contribution to scholarship on precarity and the representation of social class in contemporary visual culture Watch our book talk with the editors Elisa Cuter Guido Kirsten and Hanna Prenzel here <https://youtu.be/lKpD1NFAx2o> La promesse, 1968 World Directors in Dialogue Bert Cardullo, 2011-02-07 This book features interviews with 13 major international directors Akira Kurosawa Satyajit Ray Luchino Visconti Abbas Kiarostami Ermanno Olmi Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne Zhang Yimou Mike Leigh Ken Loach Jacques Tati Eric Rohmer and François Truffaut Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo, 2015-04-01 The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Written with university students in mind these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class The book is aimed at students teachers and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann's relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann's book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann's has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination The Dardenne Brothers' Cinematic Parables Joel Mayward, 2022-09-30 The Dardenne Brothers Cinematic Parables examines the work of Belgian filmmakers Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne who have been celebrated for their powerfully affecting social realist films Though the Dardenne brothers films rarely mention religion or God they have received wide recognition for their moral complexity and spiritual resonance This book brings the Dardennes filmography into consideration with theological aesthetics Christian ethics phenomenological film theory and continental philosophy The author explores the brothers nine major films beginning with The Promise 1996 and culminating in Young Ahmed 2019 through the hermeneutics of philosopher Paul Ricoeur By using Ricoeur's description of parable as a narrative metaphor which generates an existential limit experience Joel Maynard crafts an innovative Ricoeurian hermeneutic for making theological interpretations of cinema Drawing upon resources from three disciplinary spheres theology philosophy and film studies in a dynamic interweaving approach Maynard proposes that the Dardennes create postsecular cinematic parables which evoke theological and ethical responses in audiences imaginations through the brothers distinctive filmmaking style what is termed transcendent realism The book ultimately demonstrates how the Dardenne brothers are truly doing not merely depicting theology and ethics through the cinematic form it presents film as theology what Maynard refers to as theocinematics This is valuable reading for scholars of theology philosophy and film studies as well as film critics and cinephiles interested in the cinema of the Dardenne brothers

The Political Space of Art Benoît Dillet, Tara Puri, 2016-05-18 This book studies the tension between arts and politics in four contemporary artists from different countries working with different media The film directors Luc and Jean Pierre Dardenne film parts of their natal city to refer to specific political problems in interpersonal relations The novelist Arundhati Roy uses her poetic language to make room for people's desires her fiction is utterly political and her political essays make place for the role of narratives and poetic language Ai Weiwei uses references to Chinese history to give consistency to its economic miracle Finally Burial's electronic music is firmly rooted in a living breathing London built to create a sound that is entirely new and yet hauntingly familiar These artists create in their own way a space for politics in their works and their oeuvre but their singularity comes together as a desire to reconstruct the political space within art from its ruins These ruins were brought by the disenchantment of 1970s the end of art postmodernism and the rise of design marketing and communication Each artwork bears the mark of the resistance against the depoliticisation of society and the arts at once rejecting cynicism and idealism referring to themes and political concepts that are larger than their own domain This book focuses on these productive tensions
