Ross Macdonald Kenneth Millar A Bibliography:

Ross Macdonald/Kenneth Millar, a Descriptive Bibliography Matthew Joseph Bruccoli, 1983 Kenneth Millar/Ross Macdonald Matthew Joseph Bruccoli, 1971 Ross MacDonald Tom Nolan, 2015-07-07 When he died in 1983 Ross Macdonald was the best known and most highly regarded crime fiction writer in America Long considered the rightful successor to the mantles of Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler Ross Macdonald and his Lew Archer novels were hailed by The New York Times as the finest series of detective novels ever written by an American Now in the first full length biography of this extraordinary and influential writer a much fuller picture emerges of a man to whom hiding things came as second nature While it was no secret that Ross Macdonald was the pseudonym of Kenneth Millar a Santa Barbara man married to another good mystery writer Margaret Millar his official biography was spare Drawing on unrestricted access to the Kenneth and Margaret Millar Archives on more than forty years of correspondence and on hundreds of interviews with those who knew Millar well author Tom Nolan has done a masterful job of filling in the blanks between the psychologically complex novels and the author's life both secret and overt Ross Macdonald came to crime writing honestly Born in northern California to Canadian parents Kenneth Millar grew up in Ontario virtually fatherless poor and with a mother whose mental stability was very much in question From the age of twelve young Millar was fighting stealing and breaking social and moral laws by his own admission he barely escaped being a criminal Years later Millar would come to see himself in his tales wrongdoers I don't have to be violent he said My books are How this troubled young man came to be one of the most brilliant graduate students in the history of the University of Michigan and how this writer who excelled in a genre all too often looked down upon by literary critics came to have a lifelong friendship with Eudora Welty are all examined in the pages of Tom Nolan's meticulous biography We come to a sympathetic understanding of the Millars long and sometimes rancorous marriage and of their life in Santa Barbara California with their only daughter Linda whose legal and emotional traumas lie at the very heart of the story But we also follow the trajectory of a literary career that began in the pages of Manhunt and ended with the great respect of such fellow writers as Marshall McLuhan Hugh Kenner Nelson Algren and Reynolds Price and the longtime distinguished publisher Alfred A Knopf As Ross Macdonald A Biography makes abundantly clear Ross Macdonald's greatest character above and beyond his famous Lew Archer was none other than his creator Kenneth Millar It's All One Case Paul Nelson, Kevin Avery, 2016-09-13 This is a prose series of unpublished interviews with and a visual retrospective of the seminal mid to late 20th century literary crime writer In 1976 critic Paul Nelson spent several weeks interviewing legendary detective writer Ross Macdonald who elevated the form to a new literary level We talked about everything imaginable Nelson wrote including Macdonald's often meager beginnings his dual citizenship writers painters music and movies he admired The Great Gatsby his favorite book how he used symbolism to change detective writing and more This book published in a handsome oversized format collects these unpublished interviews and is a visual history of Macdonald's professional career. It is illustrated with rare and select items from one of the world's largest private archives of Macdonald ephemera, reproduces in full color the covers of the various editions of Macdonald's more than two dozen books, collects facsimile reproductions of select pages from his manuscripts as well as magazine spreads and presents rare photos many never before seen.

Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition: no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this. Bulletin of Bibliography, 1984 The Professions of Authorship Matthew Joseph Bruccoli, 1996 A tribute to a man whose life's work has centered on the study of authorship and who is a scholar and book collector of the first magnitude. The Professions of Authorship examines the business of writing, publishing and selling books or what George V. Higgins describes in this volume as a perplexing, disorganized, chameleonic enterprise. Twenty-three authors, publishing professionals and scholars who share Matthew J. Bruccoli's love and knowledge of books offer candid observations and opinions about the past, present and future of publishing. In doing so, they unravel many of the mysteries surrounding this tradition-bound endeavor. Blue City Ross Macdonald, 2011-01-11 He was a son who hadn't known his father very well. It was a town shaken by a grisly murder, his father's murder. Johnny Weatherly was home from a war and wandering. When he found out that his father had been assassinated on a street corner and that his father's seductive young wife had inherited a fortune, he started knocking on doors. The doors came open and Johnny stepped into a world of gamblers, whores, drug dealers and blackmailers, a place in which his father had once moved freely. Now Johnny Weatherly was going to solve this murder by pitting his rage, his courage and his lost illusions against the brutal underworld that has overtaken his hometown. A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Western American Literature Richard W. Etulain, Nancy Jill Howard, 1995 The revised and updated edition of this standard reference work in the field of Western American Literature now contains over 6,000 bibliographic references. The topical listings have been expanded to encompass feminist and environmental studies. Rather than attempting to be exhaustive, the editors have chosen the major interpretive works, making the volume useful to both specialists working outside their area and nonspecialists seeking an overview. Broad in its scope, the guide also focuses on a number of special topics: local color and regionalism, popular western literature, western film, Indian literature and Indians in western literature, the environment, women and families, the Beats and Canadian western literature. Logically and helpfully organized, the volume will be invaluable to scholars, researchers, students and general readers. Bibliography of American Fiction, 1919-1988: Peter Matthiessen Matthew Joseph Bruccoli, Judith Baughman, 1991 Help for the Caring Brenda Parris Sibley, 2002 This much-needed bibliography and filmography brings together lists of books about Alzheimer's and caregiving, including biographies, poetry and even fiction as well as in instructional and dramatic films. The Bibliography of Contemporary American Fiction, 1945-1988 William McPherson, Jocelyn Sheppard, 1989 This volume records and describes bibliographical accounts of contemporary American fiction writers with emphasis on single author studies Its purposes are several to trace the historical development of the bibliography of individual writers to indicate the depth of bibliographical treatment of those writers currently available to scholars and librarians and finally to highlight the need for additional bibliographic research in the field Film Study Frank Manchel,1990 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Women of Waterloo County Ruth Weber Russell,2000 The Encyclopedia of the Novel Peter Melville Logan,Olakunle George,Susan Hegeman,Efraín Kristal,2011-01-18 Now available in a single volume paperback this advanced reference resource for the novel and novel theory offers authoritative accounts of the history terminology and genre of the novel in over 140 articles of 500 7 000 words Entries explore the history and tradition of the novel in different areas of the world formal elements of the novel story plot character narrator technical aspects of the genre such as realism narrative structure and style subgenres including the bildungsroman and the graphic novel theoretical problems such as definitions of the novel book history and the novel s relationship to other arts and disciplines The Encyclopedia is arranged in A Z format and features entries from an international cast of over 140 scholars overseen by an advisory board of 37 leading specialists in the field making this the most authoritative reference resource available on the novel This essential reference now available in an easy to use fully indexed single volume paperback will be a vital addition to the libraries of literature students and scholars everywhere

The Making of the University of Michigan, 1817-1992 Howard Henry Peckham,1994 A comprehensive history of one of the nation s most prominent universities The Railroad in American Fiction Grant Burns,2015-01-28 Nothing better represented the early spirit of American expansion than the railroad Dominant in daily life as well as in the popular imagination the railroad appealed strongly to creative writers For many years fiction of railroad life and travel was plentiful and varied As the nineteenth century receded the railroad s allure faded as did railroad fiction Today it is hard to sense what the railroad once meant to Americans The fiction of the railroad often by railroaders themselves recaptures that sense and provides valuable insights on American cultural history This extensively annotated bibliography lists and discusses in 956 entries novels and short stories from the 1840s to the present in which the railroad is important Each entry includes plot and character description to help the reader make an informed decision on the source s merit A detailed introduction discusses the history of railroad fiction and highlights common themes such as strikes hoboes and the roles of women and African Americans Such writers of pure railroad fiction as Harry Bedwell Frank Packard and Cy Warman are well represented along with such literary artists as Mark Twain Thomas Wolfe Flannery O Connor and Ellen Glasgow Work by minority writers including Jean Toomer Richard Wright Frank Chin and Toni Morrison also receives close attention An appendix organizes entries by decade of publication and the work is indexed by subject and title Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon,2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author s earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics Collected Books ALLEN OSB;AHEARN AHEARN (PATRICIA.),Patricia Ahearn,2013-02 An introduction to and advice on book collecting with a glossary of terms and tips on how to identify first editions and estimated values for over 20 000 collectible books published in English including translations over the last three centuries about half are literary titles in the broadest sense novels poetry plays mysteries science fiction and children s books and the other half are non fiction Americana travel and exploration finance cookbooks color plate medicine science photography Mormonism sports et al
