Outsiders Looking In David Clifford, Laurence Roussillon, 2004-01-29 This new interdisciplinary collection of writing explores the achievements of the Rossettis in the context of the Victorian era and in the light of modern cultural and literary criticism Outsiders Looking In considers the position that the Anglo Italian Rossettis occupied in the cultural melee of mid Victorian London a status that was both central and fringe owing to their dual nationality Writers' Letters Michael Bird, Orlando Bird, 2021-11-09 Writer's Letters is a collection of fascinating letters written by great writers from Dickens to De Beauvoir Feminine Singularity Ronjaunee Chatterjee, 2022-08-09 What happens if we read nineteenth century and Victorian texts not for the autonomous liberal subject but for singularity for what is partial contingent and in relation rather than what is merely alone Feminine Singularity offers a powerful feminist theory of the subject and shows us paths to thinking subjectivity race and gender anew in literature and in our wider social world Through fresh sophisticated readings of Lewis Carroll Christina Rossetti Charles Baudelaire and Wilkie Collins in conversation with psychoanalysis Black feminist and queer of color theory and continental philosophy Ronjaunee Chatterjee uncovers a lexicon of feminine singularity that manifests across poetry and prose through likeness and minimal difference rather than individuality and identity Reading for singularity shows us the ways femininity is fundamentally entangled with racial difference in the nineteenth century and well into the contemporary as well as how rigid categories can be unsettled and upended Grappling with the ongoing violence embedded in the Western liberal imaginary Feminine Singularity invites readers to commune with the subversive potentials in nineteenth century literature for thinking subjectivity today
