Pharmaceutical Review of Reviews Benjamin Lillard, 1906 The Avatar Television Franchise Francis M. Agnoli, 2022-12-29
Nickelodeon's Avatar: The Last Airbender 2005-08 and its sequel The Legend of Korra 2012-14 are among the most acclaimed and influential U.S. animated television series of the 21st century. Yet despite their elevated status, there have been few academic works published about them. The Avatar Television Franchise: Storytelling, Identity, Trauma, Fandom, and Reception remedies this gap by bringing together a wide range of scholarly writings on these shows. This edited collection is comprised of 13 chapters organized into 4 sections featuring close readings of key episodes analyzing how they create meaning as well as illustrating how established theories can guide those readings. Some chapters explore different theories relating to identity as well as considering the repercussions of depicting real-world identities in these shows, while others examine the various manifestations of trauma from throughout the franchise as well as illustrate different scholarly approaches to the topic. Still others utilize fan studies to understand the myriad ways viewers have responded to and interpreted the Avatar franchise.

The Making of a Bestseller Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 1999-01-01
Writer F. Scott Fitzgerald's career itself is a metaphor for the vagaries of book publishing. If Fitzgerald would have had his way, we would today refer to The Great Gatsby as either Gold Hatted Gatsby, Trimalchio in West Egg, or The High Bouncing Lover. A few years before Gatsby, Fitzgerald had become a literary sensation at the age of 23. Helen Hooven Santmyer, a contemporary of Fitzgerald's, would not have a successful novel published until she was 88 and living in a nursing home. In this book, the author explores that mysterious place in publishing where art and commerce can either clash, mesh, or both. Along the way, a wide range of authors, from the literary greats to today's commercial superstars, editors, agents, and publishers, share their thoughts, insights, and experiences. What inspires writers? John Steinbeck, for example, wrote every novel as if it were his last, as if death were imminent. Why are some books successful and appreciated while others fall into oblivion? The answers are often elusive, never absolute, but the stories and anecdotes are always fascinating. Focus On: 100 Most Popular Canadian Male Film Actors Wikipedia contributors,

The Cinema of Discomfort Geoff King, 2021-10-07 How do we understand types of cinema that offer experiences of discomfort, awkwardness or disquieting uncertainty? This book examines a number of examples of such work at the heart of contemporary art and indie film. While the commercial mainstream tends to offer comforting viewing experiences or moments of discomfort that exist largely to be overcome, The Cinema of Discomfort analyses films in which discomfort is offered in a sustained manner. Cinema of this kind confronts us with material such as distinctly uncomfortable sexual encounters. It invites us into uncertain relationships with awkward and sometimes unlikable characters. It presents us with challenging behaviour or what are presented as uncomfortable realities. It often refuses information on which to base judgments More discomfortingly cinema of this kind tends to provoke uncertainty at the level of what emotional responses we are encouraged to have towards difficult sometimes controversial characters or events The Cinema of Discomfort examines a number of case studies including Palindromes by Todd Solondz US and Dogtooth from Yorgos Lanthimos Greece along with other examples from Austria Sweden the UK the US and Germany Offering close textual analysis of the manner in which discomfort is generated it also asks how we should understand the appeal of such work to certain viewers and how the existence of films of this kind can be explained as products of both their socio cultural context and the more particular institutional realms of art and indie film Persuasive Genres Sujata S. Kathpalia,2021-09-30 This book provides an analysis of persuasive genres in the domain of media ranging from traditional to new media genres on the internet Kathpalia provides a layered analysis of a family of persuasive genres at the functional semantic and linguistic levels and a reconceptualization of genres as empowering rather than constraining enabling rather than binding and dynamic rather than static The book leads readers to an understanding of genre that accounts for the way we interpret respond to and create genres in different settings whilst shedding light on how genres change and how they evolve into new and unique forms to meet the ever changing needs of society This book would be of interest to those studying or researching the topic of genres and those interested in reconceptualizing the way in which we interpret and understand genres from linguistic and discourse perspectives Focus On: 100 Most Popular Films Based on British Novels Wikipedia contributors, Saving the World and Healing the Soul David M.
