

Rough Draft Format (Attach Outline to Rough Draft)

Working Title

I. Type Roman numeral I., then indent and write your introductory paragraph by rewording the assignment with your author's name and the work you will be discussing as the topic of the paragraph. Conclude with some hint of what your final, conclusive thoughts will be. See me for help. Or.....write your introductory paragraph by identifying your issue or problem and propose your thesis (what you're going to try and show in this paper).

II. Influences (or, Background Information)

A. Paragraph describing in detail an influence on author's writing career or writing. Type * where you think you will need to cite a source. (Lecture on that requirement will be delivered soon – bring refreshments)

B. Paragraph on another influence - * where needed

C. Paragraph on another influence - * where needed

D. Paragraph on another influence - * where needed

We had said that a writer must have at least 4 influences on his or her writing career or writing. So, you must have at least A. thru D. Or....follow your outline by developing each of the letters in section II into paragraphs.

III. Title (or, My Plan)

A. Paragraph summarizing the literature you chose(*needed)
Or.... Follow your outline.

B. At least one paragraph that discusses what that work reveals about your author's "philosophy of life" or some sort of core belief or predominant theme in his or her writing.

C. Paragraph discussing another author's opinion on your author and any reaction or opinion you might have on that critic. (* where needed – try to quote the critic)

D. Paragraph on another critic (* where needed)
