T. Collins,2016-08-12 This is a story about six men who went to a medical college in Texas during the 1970s It is blackly humorous and often shocking as it examines the hidden side of medical education and its effects on the lives of students and patients in a university hospital Those who read it may never again feel quite the same about doctors The main character has enrolled in order to avoid military service during the Vietnam War thus he sees medical school from the unique viewpoint of an insider who as yet has no desire to become part of the system He soon finds himself locked in a fiercely competitive academic struggle that absorbs and eventually obsesses him When the war ends he is halfway through the program No longer able to walk away he decided to stay on He makes a promise to himself to retain his individuality and to never become an apologist for the establishment In spite of this he is gradually corrupted and becomes involved in some very questionable activities Finally the protagonist reaches his turning point and acts to expose a case of human experimentation whose subjectspatients on a cancer wardhave not given their informed consent His medical career ends when he is cast out as a result of what has probably been the first moral act of his life Cat-Cup Clones Zahn Pesh,2011-10-25 Why a fictional memoir and why the arcane language to tell a story about a youth who is mentally a pre teenager while physically developing as an adult Because the works I admire most seem to fall into that literary genre Marcel Proust James Joyce Gertrude Stein Lawrence Durrell and more recent writings like Robert Pirsigs Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance and like Dave Eggers A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius And because the youth Vaney expressed himself in arcane phrases like mama gift it to me and meaningful body language as well as mysterious seizures Finally why self publish Because the publishing industry may not yet be ready for major changes as it was unready for Proust Joyce and others Zahn Pesh hopes you enjoy this book The American Stationer ,1892 The O'rourkes Bob Shea,2002-10-31 Robert O Rourke bastard son of a Belfast scullery maid came to America in 1820 He started life in a nation that was experiencing the ups and downs of the start of the Industrial Revolution by working in one of Lowell s first mills Anti papists drove him north in 1821 He fled to Dover New Hampshire to begin life anew He married into one of the town s oldest families earning his father in law s respect and his brother in law s hatred Years passed and he amassed holdings in textiles bricks land lumber railroads and new inventions from Bangor Maine to Chicago He learned who his father was and what wealth and power the man left him His life was entwined with historic happenings as inhabitants of a boisterous new nation strove to cope with government struggles world recognition and the slavery question As O Rourke built his dynasty even joining the 49 Gold Rush family members business associates and friends sought to find a place in the life of this melancholy man All of this took place in a fast changing country in the years before the agony of secession and Civil War Suffer the Innocent Children Marian Olivia Heath Griffin,2021-02-24 There are millions of innocent children of the world who deserve love respect concern and loyalty Jesus said many times Suffer the little children to come to me and do not bother them Innocent children are untrained undisciplined and lacking in capacity or experience Many children suffer today like never before They need helping navigating their way through the system of life while protecting and respecting themselves Real life does not teach great lessons in times of ease and prosperity joy and comfort Children s greatest character building and faith strengthening lessons mostly come during times of difficulties and suffering From the time we are born until our death God doesn t waste anything not even our heartaches and trials Many innocent children are blessed with the empowerment of faith education and experience of joy they deserve This is god sent and shows God s love of human life He said I will show you a
