Roundup Virginia Faulkner, 1957 Roundup Virginia Faulkner, The Complete Roadside Guide to Nebraska Alan Boye, 2007-04-01 The second edition of The Complete Roadside Guide to Nebraska represents a major enlargement and revision of the first edition making this the most comprehensive guide to the state ever written. The book covers over twelve thousand miles in all ninety-three counties of the state where the West begins. Here readers can become acquainted with numerous folklore tales and discover the locations of thousands of historical sites, burials, pioneer roads, museums, and other wonders of the Cornhusker State. Reading the West Michael Kowalewski, 1996-02-23 The American West of myth and legend has always exerted a strong hold on the popular imagination and the essays in Reading the West examine some of the basis of that fascination. Reading the West, first published in 1996, is a collection of critical essays by writers independent scholars and critics on the literature of the American West in the last two centuries. It showcases new ways of reading and understanding western writing. Arguing for the importance of place in literature, these essays explore what makes representative literary works western. They also explore the multicultural and ecological dimensions of western writing. This volume helps enrich our understanding of a distinguished body of literary work which has sometimes been unjustly ignored. It deals not only with literature but with the changing conception of the West in the American imagination. Interstices of Space and Memory Sreedevi Santhosh, Samjaila TH, Sneha Suresh, Preethi S., 2025-03-07 The conference intersectionally locates memory and space that reconstruct city chronotopes to explore how identities are reconfigured in metropolitan Indian cities. In taking recourse in locating turning points that could be historical, political, or cultural in the life of Metropolitan Indian Cities, the perspective that is brought together with personal and collective stories that are recorded in Art Literature Curated Projects Museums is that these moments reshape human values, ethos in Cities. The assumption made is that at specific moments in time, turning points with the pandemic, for instance, the spirit of the city changes. It highlights how human beings in cities account for such changes. The IIHS runs a postcard project on human lives during the plague and corona, being an example. It uses focal moments in the City as the lens to discuss Art Literature and City Design. The Age of Discontent Ralph Brauer, 2025-04 For much of the last century, three narratives framed American history: The plantation narrative with its Gone with the Wind view of slavery and Reconstruction, bolstered racial apartheid; The frontier narrative worshipped individualism over collective responsibility and ignored the decimation of indigenous cultures; The industrial narrative redefined by Ralph Brauer in this sweeping history of late nineteenth-century labor and farmer activism, traditionally celebrated laissez-faire capitalism, and the achievements of wealthy industrialists. The Age of Discontent offers an alternative perspective, asserting that the largest and most important expression of mass democracy in American history laid the foundations for economic growth and prosperity. Main Street, not Wall Street, was responsible for the American Century. Grassroots activists and reformers from the working and farming classes take center stage in this fascinating success story of government programs and legislation

Let the Cowboy Ride Paul F. Starrs, 2000-03-17 The dime novel and dude ranch the barbecue and rodeo the suburban ranch house and the urban cowboy all are a direct legacy of nineteenth century cowboy life that still enlivens American popular culture Yet at the same time reports of environmental destruction or economic inefficiency have motivated calls for restricted livestock grazing on public lands or even for an end to ranching altogether In Let the Cowboy Ride Starrs offers a detailed and comprehensive look at one of America's most enduring institutions Richly illustrated with more than 130 photographs and maps the book combines the authentic detail of an insider's view Starrs spent six years working cattle on the high desert Great Basin range with a scholar's keen eye for objective analysis

American Endurance Richard A. Serrano, 2016-10-04 Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and author Richard A Serrano's new book American Endurance Buffalo Bill the Great Cowboy Race of 1893 and the Vanishing Wild West is history mystery and Western all rolled into one In June 1893 nine cowboys raced across a thousand miles of American prairie to the Chicago World's Fair For two weeks they thundered past angry sheriffs governors and Humane Society inspectors intent on halting their race Waiting for them at the finish line was Buffalo Bill Cody who had set up his Wild West Show right next to the World's Fair that had refused to allow his exhibition at the fair The Great Cowboy Race occurred at a pivotal moment in our nation's history many believed the frontier was settled and the West was no more The Chicago World's Fair represented the triumph of modernity and the end of the cowboy age Except no one told the cowboys Racing toward Buffalo Bill Cody and the gold plated Colt revolver he promised to the first to reach his arena nine men went on a Wild West stampede from tiny Chadron Nebraska to bustling Chicago But at the first thud of hooves pounding on Chicago's brick pavement the race devolved into chaos Some of the cowboys shipped their horses part of the way by rail or hired private buggies One had the unfair advantage of having helped plan the route map in the first place It took three days numerous allegations and a good old Western showdown to sort out who was first to Chicago and who won the Great Cowboy Race
