Routledge Anthology Of Cross Gendered Verse:

The Routledge Anthology of Cross-Gendered Verse Alan Michael Parker, Mark Willhardt, 2005-08-04 Both male and female poets cross the gender line men assume a female voice and women a male voice The Routledge Anthology of Cross Gendered Verse is a fascinating collection of such poems beginning in the age of Chaucer and working its way through to the present day Together these poems offer a unique collection of masks personae and voices rife with issues of class gender and race Alan Parker and Mark Willhardt in bringing together these poems for the first time assert an entirely new paradigm a theoretical and practical reading of a heretofore undefined genre They also provide a critical introduction which synthesizes traditional literary debates with current gender theory and through the lens of historical literary social and theoretical issues present a new way to interpret these ventriloquized poems The Routledge Anthology of Cross Gendered Verse provides a wealth of material for students and teachers of literature and gender studies It is a compelling collection which will also appeal to poetry lovers

The Routledge Anthology of Cross-Gendered Verse Alan Michael Parker, Mark Willhardt, 2005-08-04 Poetry lovers will delight in this hugely enjoyable and enlightening collection of such poems beginning in the age of Chaucer and ending in the present day A valuable contribution to literary gender and performance studies

Cross-Gendered Literary Voices R. Kim, C. Westall, 2012-05-21 This book investigates male writers use of female voices and female writers use of male voices in literature and theatre from the 1850s to the present examining where how and why such gendered crossings occur and what connections may be found between these crossings and specific psychological social historical and political contexts The Little Magazine Others and the Renovation of Modern American Poetry Suzanne Wintch Churchill, 2006 Others an important and neglected little magazine finally receives the attention it deserves in Churchill s superbly crafted study In Churchill s discussions of Mina Loy Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams among others Others serves as a framework for reassessing the scope and significance of modernist formalism This book is an important contribution to the fields of American poetry and poetics gender studies queer theory and cultural studies

Women, Writing, and Fetishism, 1890-1950 Clare L. Taylor, 2003 Clare L Taylor investigates the problematic question of female fetishism within modernist women s writing 1890 1950 Drawing on gender and psychoanalytic theory she re examines the works of Sarah Grand Radclyffe Hall H D Djuna Barnes and Ana s Nin in the context of clinical discourses of sexology and psychoanalysis to present an alternative theory of female fetishism challenging the perspective that denies the existence of the perversion in women Anthology of Magazine Verse and Yearbook of American Poetry, 1997 Alan F. Pater, 1997-05

Presenting Gender Chris Mounsey, 2001 A collection of essays that concerns writers or real people of the early modern period who presented their protagonists or themselves as members of the opposite biological sex The collection demonstrates the variety of motives for such acts of gender passing and offers interpretations that shed some light on the probable intentions of the gender passers Gendering Poetry Vicki Bertram, 2005 Vicki Bertram shows that gender is a crucial ingredient in the writing reading and interpretation of poetry Beginning with an overview and critique of the contemporary debate on poetry and gender she then moves on to discuss the work of selected lyric poets from the 1950s onwards

Ethical Encounters Janne Korkka, 2013-09-01 The problems of knowing and representing the other are acute every time we encounter a text as writers or readers Ethical Encounters engages with the representation of encounters with alterity in the writings of the Canadian author Rudy Wiebe Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas's philosophy on the ethics of encountering the other the book argues that Wiebe's writings show that the self's knowledge offers an inadequate basis for ethically valid representations of those encounters In the search for ethical ways of engaging with alterity Wiebe's writings offer new ways of employing silence and the presence of the unknowable as means to explore encounters with alterity Ethical Encounters shows that dividing Wiebe's work into two sharply distinct categories of Mennonite and First Nations writings overlooks important connections between the author's central works and may seriously hinder the interrogation of narrative engagement with alterity While such human encounters resonate against ethical strategies of representation the greatest challenge for the ethics of encounter in Wiebe's texts arises in encounters with the alterity of space Ethical Encounters engages with both physical and narrative spaces which are not permanently fixed in landscape or geography or in human perceptions of place arguing that the most radical expressions of alterity in Wiebe's writings emerge in encounters with the spaces of the Canadian North The study raises questions about the relationship between the self and the other as they concern knowing what does the self know when it claims to know another person or space How does the narrating self negotiate the seeming collapse of its own knowledge when it encounters others whose stories cannot be known Ethical Encounters casts new light not just on Wiebe's writings but also on how we as authors and readers engage with expressions of alterity which refuse to be transformed into familiar knowable forms Janne Korkka is post doctoral researcher and coordinator of the North American Studies programme in the Department of English University of Turku Finland His main research interests lie in the problems of representing space and encountering alterity in Canadian writing He is co editor of Seeking the Self Encountering the Other Diasporic Narrative and the Ethics of Representation 2008 He teaches Canadian and postcolonial literatures and North American Studies and publishes mainly on Canadian writing
