1950s and '60s James Taylor, 2016-09-22 In the 1950s and 1960s luxury car buyers from government ministers to captains of industry almost invariably bought British. These were stately dignified and grand vehicles with many featuring leather interiors and wood trim. Unfortunately that market has now largely disappeared and with it so have the car makers themselves. This new book covers cars in the over 3 litre class from the biggest names in British luxury motoring including Alvis Daimler and Lagonda and high end models from Austin Rover and Jaguar. It examines the features and characteristics of these classic cars as well as explaining why they fell from prominence in the 1970s. Replete with beautiful photography throughout this book is a loving portrait of the British luxury car a dearly missed saloon defeated by foreign imports. Saab 92-96V4 - The Original Saab Lance Cole, 2022-05-16 Launched in 1949 as the 92 before evolving into the 93 96 2 stroke and 96V4 this car was in production for thirty one years. However its story was far from straightforward. Although respected for its technically brilliant design and universally praised for its ride and handling the model never quite reached its full sales potential and its reputation was marred by problems that could not have been foreseen. With over 240 colour photographs the book includes a brief history of Alfa Romeo to the end of the 1960s. The development of the Alfasud's design and the political reasons for building a new factory are given along with the car's reception from both the press and owners.
