Rowing Across The Dark Poems:

Rowing Across the Dark Franz Douskey, 1981      Dark Would Liz Waldner, 2002 The author explores the idea of self in the twenty first century venturing into Dante's dark wood in search of the truth about rootlessness and identity Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original      The Downstream Extremity of the Isle of Swans Mary Jo Bang, 2001 This compelling book takes its title from Samuel Beckett's Ohio Impromptu In Beckett's play a grieving beloved seeks relief from the haunting presence of a departed lover in a place where From its single window he could see the downstream extremity of the Isle of Swans With a bow to Beckett's style and linguistic playfulness Mary Jo Bang's collection of poems deals compassionately and gracefully with the tangible world Bang's savvy alliterative insistence sweeps the reader along as her poems collectively offer a world delicately structured from memorable fragments of experience emotion things and places inside and outside the human psyche      The Reservoir Donna Stonecipher, 2002 The poet blends narrative and lyrical forms to explore the line between the artificial and real in our society using the reservoir as a metaphor for this mystery Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry      All Aberration Terese Svoboda, 2009-09-01 These are poems of family of romantic hope and disappointment of parenthood and of grief that move from a childhood in Nebraska in which a father strides into a ripe wheat field to the parks and parking lots of New York City the interchangeable landscapes of suburban America and the more sensual environment of secluded water to little traveled parts of Africa and the Pacific where our customs and passions are refracted into shapes that are sometimes beautiful sometimes grotesque Terese Svoboda writes of a world in which the reassuring simplicity remembered from childhood is difficult to recover Outside of this vision of the past all present life seems an aberration an existence where violence can supplant love families break apart a child dies All Aberration received a starred review in Publishers Weekly a lead in Contemporary Poetry 1986 and a Notable Book nomination by the American Library Association It was written during stays at Yaddo MacDowell and Ossabaw and received the benefit of a Creative Artists Public Service grant in 1982 Its poems first appeared in such magazines as Harper's The Nation Paris Review and Ploughshares      Contemporary American Poetry Lloyd M. Davis, 1985 Lists over 5 200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983      The Patriot Christopher Davis, 1998 The Patriot is the chronicle of a deeply personal attempt to rebuild a sense of self and safety in an unstable environment Christopher Davis's poems address destructive forces including the murder of a younger brother and the impact of AIDS on modern gay culture These elements blend with the dangers of a world in which love and death are cruelly inseparable and in which the insinuations of consumer culture into the psyche destroy security but in which dark humor and the beauty of imagery combat despair In language electric with imagination these poems utter a mangled stuttering contemporary echo of Walt Whitman's poetry cheated out of its joyous confidence but constructing in the words of the author a weak bridge away from suicide      Saunter Joshua McKinney, 2002 Joshua McKinney's debut collection of poetry Saunter shows immense devotion to and passion for language in all its aspects He intensely attends to words and delights in the play of accidental connections and complications Such amusement and playfulness with oppositions is evidenced in lines like an opening a cello scales some stairs Risen a thought falls McKinney s awareness of the complex resonance of literary history and current issues of language comes through in his dedication to making the appearance of language not just its sound or its relative meaning an integral aspect of his poems Meanwhile the subject matter is often surprisingly mythic and mysterious championing absolute freedom and wildness His intricate verse is sincere in its observations while turning inward on itself sauntering in designed indirection

Desire in L.A. Martha Clare Ronk,1990 Desire in L A confronts limitless longing in a city that is itself without limits In these poems the object of desire is decidedly missing whether that object be love or beauty or the past Shifting even within a single poem and certainly from section to section the objects of desire in Martha Ronk s poetry become as elusive as the unnamed Marilyn Monroe that image of another s skirts of the title poem or the moment captured in A photograph as good as a picture He leans forward with such fervor yet isn t young and something decidedly is happening even to the beefy fellow in his white short sleeved shirt A photograph oh perhaps not the same as a Manet but it is Auden and for whatever reason he stares at the square flesh neckline of her dress He is forward in his chair ruffled about the collar and everyone is wearing black and white It is the formal occasion of how much he cares to be there Venice 1951 and how much I care to see him no matter what for longing like that Moving from thwarted examples of family and place to language and its corruptions from classical Japanese love poems to failed love in the southwestern desert from emotionality to artifice the book ends with a series focused on the slipperiness of all categories

Depth Theology Peter O'Leary,2006 Depth Theology taps the religious potential of poetry to access both the interior and the exterior worlds Inspired by depth psychology the field of psychology devoted to the unconscious Peter O Leary s poems work to discover the religious knowledge of the unconscious mind While seeking a revelatory poetry O Leary engages the inconclusive quality of the revealed observing that There s a liquidity trickiness to life an entropy of spillage The religious imagination that evolves in this series of thirty four poems is unclouded by dogma and richly colored by erudition while it tests the limits of human language and experience in an effort to understand our inwardness Overflowing with images of birds and other objects of day to day experience interwoven with the mythic allegorical and biblical Depth Theology charts a path to understanding our innermost worlds From Lux Contemplatio there is no place anymore for us to migrate The need yet remains Antarctica means now an interior domain Curiosity about our inner life increases A nomad s desert God is an inward generator Our outward movement yields our soul s circumincession its insitting in rotation with the divine abeyance

The Violence of the Morning Calvin Bedient,2002 Groundbreaking new poetry evokes a wide range of influences from Kant to the Upanishads while making deep exploratory journeys into the complexities of sexual relationships disease heartbreak and death Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original

Lord Brain Bruce Beasley,2005 Lord Brain is an extended meditation on the psyche in its double sense of mind and soul in its relationship to that three pound bundle in our skull Bruce Beasley's collection of thirty one poems is named for Sir Walter Russell Brain or Lord Brain 1895-1966 the eminent British neuroscientist and author of Brain's Diseases of the Nervous System Bringing into conversation the disparate fields of neuroscience theology linguistics particle physics and theology these poems investigate in both lyrical and scientific terms the relationship of brain to mind and soul and of brain to the cosmos and God Whether discussing cosmology or astrophysics neurobiology or insect physiology Lord Brain connects the inner cosmos of our human anatomy with the external forces material and divine that brought the cosmos into being

The Book of Motion Tung-Hui Hu, 2003 This debut collection explores memory cities motion Tung Hui Hu's tone has some of the swampy wit that recalls Calvino or Michaux A man swaps bodies with his lover a mapmaker holds captive a city which needs his crystal telescope to navigate through streets unreadable as palm lines a car pushed off a cliff in a fit of anger becomes home for a school of fish Anchored by the sequence Elegies for self Hu's poetry brings a quiet sophistication to syntax diction and form

A Drowning Man is Never Tall Enough Patrick Lawler, 1990-01-01 This is a poetry of excursions into maps of lost territories into the thoughts of a man with no legs into the life of a town marked by disasters Patrick Lawler moves into the slender lines of shattered glass the spaces between lyric and narrative between metamorphosis and mutation From the artful surface of a Russian novel rich with symbolism and white bears to a survivor's unwillingness to immerse himself in life or leave it the poems in A Drowning Man Is Never Tall Enough hunger for a language beyond the solid for the fragmentation that makes a scene complete

Knot Stacy Doris, 2006 What follows occurs in a moment a flash It would detail a single tangibility if that did not entail all sensation Stacy Doris charts the invisible investigates the unborn and describes everything not yet imagined The tightly constructed verses of Knot weave imagery of decay and birth science and culture the warp and weft of cloth digestion wave particles and a talking cat Linguistic play abounds and Doris presents us with a human double bind to cling to the stability of the tangle or to participate in the circuits of entanglement From Under Fire i VII Each moment fifteen pounds of air pin us by gravity Then anyone Needs sixteen pounds of lightness to ever budge Such compliance Demands levitation must generate excitement which passion enact Thus dreams have all they can handle From a stone anchored is how We rise where faith is placed only in potential miracle without Dimension's measure so opening unhinged at least where each they Is porous in penetrability dunked and enriched

Dare Say Tod Marshall, 2002 Three long poems illuminate broken and violated things using Bach Kandinsky and Botticelli as raw material for poetic musing Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry

Vertical Elegies 5 Sam Truitt, 2003 A collection of sixty nine sonnets seeks to capture the dizzying speed and hallucinogenic landscape of modern of urban life Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series competition Poetry

Mere Mortals Terese Svoboda, 2009-09-01 All of the medical technological and psychological advances of the twentieth century challenge mere mortals in Terese Svoboda's third book of poetry In Faust a mini epic in five acts the eponymous character of literary legend appears in the form of a woman who redefines what being mortal means in light of the politics of the Third World and gender In contrast Ptolemy's Rules for High School Reunions explores what happens when you do without a pact with the devil The gods Greek and otherwise also make appearances as a TV announcer in Philomela in the basement with the plumber in The Smell of Burning Pennies and in the dyslexic confusion between Dog God But it is not only the divine that charges the poems in Mere Mortals sex also suffuses and reinvents key relationships Readers of such wittily probing poems as The Root of Father is Fat and Brassiere Prison or Showcase will know why Philip Levine has described Svoboda as one light year from being the polite lovely workshop poet Mere Mortals poems first appeared in such magazines as the New Yorker New York Times Magazine Paris Review and the American Poetry Review      Falling Awake Gary Margolis, 2008-04-01 These are poems of the present of commercials and human interest stories of the drive in windows that make banks and bedrooms of our cars These poems trace the faint erasures of time and human relationships following runners as they pause by the Ticonderoga ferry and Lake Champlain riding with tourists across a river to an old fort the distant sounds of a historic slaughter obscured by the misfiring pistons of an inboard motor and by the unforgiving surf Describing the world he has seen and loved as well as how that world sometimes threatens itself Gary Margolis speaks with caring humor and seriousness of the brokenness and beauty of America's present      Dwelling Song Sally Keith, 2004 As a hummingbird beats its wings so that it might be still to feed on a flower the poet concludes The equation keeps balancing out and I'm drawn to how it does not settle Aware of the difficulty of loving the world while feeding upon it the poems of Dwelling Song hope vision is levity as they press language to make sight and song This writing is a form of mimicry yet an act of dangerous flight Whether from the voice of a hunter shepherd farmer or bugle blowing boy on a city street the song recognizes that moving forward necessitates turning one's back
