bestsellers year in and year out Now Mr Halliburton has written a book just for his younger friends but just to try and keep father and mother or uncle and aunt away from it and in it he has kept a promise he made to himself when he studied geography in school In those days his eager wish was to travel to see the places he had read about He swore that when he became a man he would see that his sons not only studied their geography but lived it too Now he has been to the four corners of the world and beheld the wonders of nature and man But he is a bachelor and has no sons of his own So he has adopted all boys and girls and here he takes them with him on a personally conducted tour to live geography with him the most thrilled geography anyone could imagine Following on from his Book of Marvels The Occident this present volume provides another exciting tour for school students introducing the people religions architecture customs and scenery from Greece to Mt Fuji in Japan multi cultural regions then called The Orient complete with maps of his travel routes No dramatic incident no fascinating legend relating to his marvels has been omitted Richard Halliburton has spared himself no trouble no expense to make this book complete and beautiful The illustrations are many and inspiring Out of his first hand knowledge of the notable scenes and works of our world he has chosen those that have most appealed to his own imagination and with his story telling gift simple direct enthusiastic he makes them live to the imagination of all boys and girls For he has the heart of a boy and he speaks to the heart of youth

Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton, 2011-08-15 In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security In Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism's constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism s Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon Gerald Max,2023-08-18 Richard Halliburton 1900 1939 considered the world s first celebrity travel writer swam the length of the Panama Canal recreated Ulysses voyages in the Mediterranean crossed the Alps on an elephant flew around the world in a biplane and descended into the Mayan Well of Death all the while chronicling his own adventures Several books treat his life and travels yet no book has addressed in detail Halliburton s most ambitious expedition an attempt to sail across the Pacific Ocean in a Chinese junk Set against the backdrop of a China devastated by invading Japanese armies and the storm clouds of world war gathering in Europe Halliburton and a crew of fourteen set out to build and sail the Sea Dragon a junk or ancient sailing ship from Hong Kong to San Francisco for the Golden Gate International Exposition After battling through crew conflicts and frequent delays the Sea Dragon set sail on March 4 1939 Three weeks after embarking the ship encountered a typhoon and disappeared without a trace Richly enhanced with historic photographs Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon follows the dramatic arc of this ill fated expedition in fine detail Gerry Max artfully unpacks the tensions between Halliburton and his captain John Wenlock Welch owing much to Welch s homophobia and Halliburton s unconcealed homosexuality And while Max naturally explores the trials and tribulations of preparing constructing and finally launching the Sea Dragon he also punctuates the story with the invasion of China by the Japanese as Halliburton and his letters home reveal an excellent wartime reporter Max mines these documents many of which have only recently come to light as well as additional letters from Halliburton and his crew to family and friends photographs films and tape recordings to paint an intricate portrait of Halliburton s final expedition from inception to tragic end The Christian Century ,1928 Los Angeles School Journal ,1927 The Forum ,1928 Susan Sontag

Carl Rollyson, Lisa Paddock, 2016-08-25 This first biography of Susan Sontag 1933 2004 is now fully revised and updated providing an even more intimate portrayal of the influential writer's life and career The authors base this revision on Sontag's newly released private correspondence including emails and the letters and memoirs of those who knew her best The authors reveal as never before her early years in Tucson and Los Angeles her conflicted relationship with her mother her longing for her absent father and her precocious achievements at the University of California Berkeley and the University of Chicago Papers diaries and lecture notes many accessible for the first time spark a passionate fire in this biography The authors follow Sontag as she abruptly ends an early first marriage establishes herself in Paris and embraces the open lifestyle she began as a teenager in Berkeley As a single mother she struggled with teaching at Columbia University and other colleges while aiming for a career as a novelist and essayist Eventually she made her own way in New York City after acquiring her one and only publisher Farrar Straus Giroux In her later years Sontag became a world figure a tastemaker dramatist and political activist who risked her life in besieged Sarajevo Love affairs with men and women troubled her Diagnosed with cancer she responded with determination and her experience with illness inspired some of her best writing This biography shows Sontag always craving more life at whatever cost and depicts her harrowing final decline even as she resisted terminal cancer Susan Sontag The Making of an Icon Revised and Updated presents in candid and stark relief a new assessment of a heroic and controversial figure Catalog of Copyright Entries.
